French Blockbusters Michael Charlie Michael, 2019-07-17 The digitised spectacles conjured by a word like blockbuster may create a certain cognitive dissonance with received ideas about French cinema long celebrated as a model for philosophical economic and aesthetic resistance to globalised popular culture While the Gallic cultural exception remains a forceful current to this day this book shows how the onslaught of Hollywood mega franchises and new media platforms since the 1980s has also provoked an overtly commercialised response from French producers eager to redefine the stakes and scope of their own traditions From English language action vehicles like Valhalla and the City of a Thousand Planets Besson 2017 to revisionist historical films like Of Gods and Men Beauvois 2011 and crowd pleasing comedies like Intouchables Toldano Nakache 2011 the variously filiated local blockbusters from contemporary France brim with the seeds of cultural contradiction but also with the energy of a forceful counter history Cutting across a swath of recent French produced cinema French Blockbusters offers the first book length consideration of the theoretical implications historical impact and cultural consequences of a recent grouping of popular films that are rapidly changing what it means to make or to see a French film today

New York Magazine, 1989-09-18 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Street Scriptures Alejandro Nava,2022-05-16 The world of hip hop is saturated with religion but often this element is glossed over as secondary to hip hop's other dimensions In Street Scriptures Alejandro Nava focuses our attention on this relationship in a fresh way combining his profound love of hip hop his passion for racial and social justice and his deep theological knowledge The result is a journey through hip hop's deep entanglement with the sacred Street Scriptures examines the reasons behind the rise of a religious heartbeat in hip hop looking at the crosscurrents of the sacred and profane in rap reggaeton and Latinx hip hop today Ranging from Nas Kendrick Lamar Chance the Rapper Lauryn Hill and Cardi B to St Augustine and William James Nava examines the ethical political aesthetic spiritual and prophetic in hip hop probing the pure sonic and aesthetic signatures of music while also diving deep into the voices that invoke the spirit of protest

The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art Dirk Cornelis de Bruyn,2014-10-02 With reference to recent neurological research into Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD using new imaging technologies and models of implicit and explicit memory systems developed from this research The Performance of Trauma in Moving Image Art examines the capacity of an artist's cinema of experimental and avant garde film to perform and communicate traumatic experience De Bruyn analyses key films from the 1940s to the present that perform aspects of overwhelming experience through their approach structure content and perceptual impact mapping a trajectory from analogue to contemporary digital moving image practice He argues for the inclusion of Peter Gidal's 1970s conception of materialist film into the genre of trauma cinema through its capacity to articulate unlocatability and perceptually perform disorientation and a flashback effect all further identified here as key characteristics of digital moving image practice The discussion explores the following questions Can materialist film model traumatic memory and perform the traumatic flashback Does the capacity to articulate trauma's unspeakability and invisibility give this practice a renewed relevance in digital media's preoccupation with surface and the impact of information overload De Bruyn's phenomenological traumatic reading of materialist film steps beyond Gidal's original anti illusionist rationale to incorporate critiques effectively mounted against it by the founders of a 70s feminist psychoanalytic counter cinema This contemporary re-reading further re-evaluates the Minimalist turn in painting and sculpture after the Second World War arguing that this development is not essentialist or visionary but makes visible the implicit mechanisms of denial and erasure at the core of traumatic remembering For de Bruyn the initial traumatic impact of industrialization on the body's perceptual apparatus traceable through the advent of cinema and train travel is communicated by such moving image art The development of digital technology marks a new cycle of such perceptual re-balancing for which materialist film is uniquely positioned and which it critically addresses Triple Threat Regina Kyle,2014-10-01 Sabotage and Seduction The Playwright It's emerging playwright Holly Nelson's big break

T. Siebert,2013-10-10 The inevitability of death that of others and our own is surely among our greatest anxieties Mortality s Muse The Fine Art of Dying explores how art mainly literary art addresses that troubling reality While religion and philosophy offer important consolations for life s end art responds in ways that are perhaps more complete and certainly more deeply human Among subjects treated the ars moriendi or art of dying tradition the contrast between past and more recent cultural values the religious consolation s value but shortcoming for some people the role of art in offering a secular consolation dying as a performing art the philosophic ideal of good death the lively appeal of carpe diem or living for the present moment the elegiac sense of life and the two opposite parts Mortality s Muse has played in dealing with war the most senseless and unnecessary cause of death The idea of an aesthetic sense of life forms the basis of these discussions Human beings are makers in the largest sense of the word and art represents everything they make civilization itself with all its
