Interactive Media and Society Corinne M. Dalelio, 2022-06-21 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title In this book Corinne M Dalelio analyzes how the rise of interactive media over the last few decades has had enormous impacts on every aspect of American society the ways in which we organize produce consume engage entertain and inform Yet the vestiges of the one way broadcast model of the media industries continue to be primary prominent and persuasive in our culture Dalelio argues This book offers clarity and insight into the current media landscape by first outlining what it is that makes interactive media distinct from that which came before and then identifying the harmonies and tensions between media systems new and old as they operate in various communicative contexts still in flux These contexts include art journalism activism marketing and even the public sphere Dalelio encourages readers to hone their critical digital literacy skills by supplying them with analytical concepts and theoretical principles that can be applied regardless of how these tools change or evolve ultimately enabling more thoughtful and meaningful interactive media usage and consumption Elucidated throughout with interesting and relevant narrative examples this book offers an engaging and straightforward presentation of the current scholarly understanding of these tools along with practical tips for navigating the challenges of our complex media ecosystem Scholars of media studies communication sociology and American studies will find this book particularly useful Misinformation Studies and Higher Education in the Postdigital Era Paul Cook,2024-12-15 In Misinformation Studies and Higher Education in the Postdigital Era Beyond Fake News Paul Cook argues that the epistemological complexity of the postdigital age demands a new metadisciplinary approach to information and media misinformation studies Cook posits that institutions of higher education can work toward regaining the public's trust and reinvigorating general education programs by developing a metadiscipline that directly addresses the problem of misinformation in all its various and dangerous forms This book outlines how such a curricular pivot may be accomplished in an age saturated with generative AI algorithmic manipulation ubiquitous networked computing and information overload coupled with the myriad challenges higher education faces from seemingly all sides Ultimately this book makes a compelling case that universities and colleges can instead harness the fragmentation caused by this perfect storm currently facing higher education so they can not only weather the crisis but also emerge stronger because of it
