Unembedded Scott Taylor, 2009-07-01 In September 2004 Canadian journalist Scott Taylor was taken hostage in northern Iraq While awaiting execution by beheading he reflected on the events that had brought him to a torture chamber in a remote Iraqi village from his early years as a Canadian Forces infantryman to his later career as a frontline reporter in Africa the former Yugoslavia and in 21 trips to Saddam Hussein's Iraq before during and after the U S led invasion After his kidnapping ordeal Taylor resumed his unembedded war reporting in Afghanistan He recounts his adventures in this action packed and brutally honest memoir With searing criticism Taylor exposes the deceit of the politicians and media cheerleaders who at little cost to themselves are ultimately responsible for waging the senseless wars that cause so much needless suffering for so many innocent people Professional Journal of the United States Army ,2011-07

Combined Arms Center (CAC) Research and Publication Index ,2011 Index to selected publications of the Combined Arms Center Hamid Karzai Viki Wagner, 2011-03-18 Serving as the president of Afghanistan from 2001 2011 Hamid Karzai remains a controversial figure in Afghani politics and around the world Some view Karzai as a puppet of U S interests as he was appointed to the Interim Administration and charged with governing Afghanistan shortly after the U S invasion of the country in 2001 Karzai's grip on power remained in place for the next decade This compelling biography tracks the polarizing career of Hamid Karzai Chapters discuss his childhood driving out Soviet forces and the Taliban and his uncertain future

An Insider's Memoir Gordon Bryant Brown, 2018-05-04 Do you wonder Why is there so much national debt Where has the middle class gone Why do my kids have less opportunity than I did If so this book is for you 97% of money is created by the banks not by governments The Federal Reserve is a private bank controlled by private banks Adam Smith did not say an invisible hand guides the markets Government debt was static until the mid 1970's and has soared since Milton Friedman and Alan Greenspan both admitted to fundamental economic errors About 1/3 of an average person's spending goes to banks as interest Corporations are using treaties to overrule nations and democracy The TARP bank bailouts were the biggest theft in history Military Review ,2011-07 Quill & Quire ,2009 Tales from the Time Loop David Icke, 2003 Tales from the Time Loop is the most comprehensive book yet written about the global conspiracy that emerges more clearly every day David Icke has been warning for well over a decade of the plan for a world fascist state a global version of Nazi Germany in which the people will be prisoners of a Big Brother dictatorship founded on the suppression of the most fundamental freedoms and total control and surveillance Today there is a gathering awareness that he was right People are realising that Big Brother is no longer coming He's here No Questions Asked Lisa Finnegan, 2006-11-30 No Questions Asked takes an overarching view of media coverage from the day of the 9/11 attacks through the war in Iraq It also compares and contrasts how the U S media vs international media covered key events during this period Fact based rather than polemical the book explains why journalists responded the way they did during wartime and explores the ramifications for democracy of a weak press The Fourth Estate's most important job is to present unbiased accurate information about events issues and policies to the public Without public scrutiny administrations can become a breeding ground for bad and dangerous ideas In recent years for several reasons including the brilliant psychological manipulation of the nation after the September 11 2001 attacks the American media have allowed administration officials to present information to the public without having to worry much about answering uncomfortable questions or having their policies deconstructed for public consumption Relevant information is buried deep inside newspapers and gaping holes can be found in many stories in short obvious and important questions remain unasked The lack of questions from reporters led to a misunderstanding of the facts by the American public and consequently to their support of policies based on misinformation Polls have revealed that more than half of Americans believe mistruths about the war in Iraq and world terrorism Many including members of the media say the press has failed to do its job Very few news reports filled in the basic blanks the who what where when and whys about U S foreign policy the USA Patriot Act the administration's insistence on the need for secrecy and more power the truth about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq and the necessity of sending our soldiers to topple another country's dictator throwing an already tenuous region into dangerous imbalance Very few reports are filling in those blanks now Frontline David Loyn, 2005 Part Bang Bang Club part Flashman Frontline is the gripping story of lives lived to the full in some of the worst places on earth Maverick Fred J. Cook, 1984 The First Casualty Peter Greste, 2018-01-10 In a world where the first casualty of war is truth journalism has become the new battleground Peter Greste spent two decades reporting from the front line in the world's most dangerous countries before making headlines himself following his own incarceration in an Egyptian prison Charged with threatening national security and enduring a sham trial solitary confinement and detention for 400 days Greste himself became a victim of the new global war on journalism Wars have always been about propaganda but today's battles are increasingly between ideas and the media has become part of the battlefield Extremists have staked a place in news dissemination with online postings and journalists have moved from being witnesses to the struggle to a means by which the war is waged which makes them a target Having covered conflicts in Afghanistan Iraq and Somalia as well as having spent time in prison in Egypt Greste is extremely well placed to describe in vivid detail what effect this has on the nature of reporting and the mind of the reporter Based on extensive interviews and research Greste shows how this war on journalism has spread to the West not just in the murders at the French satirical magazine Charlie Hebdo or the repressions of Putin's Russia but Australia's metadata laws and Trump's phony war on fake news In this courageous compelling vital account Greste unpicks the extent to which modern investigative journalism is under threat and the fraught quest and desperate need for truth in the age of terrorism Flirting with Danger: Confessions of a Reluctant War Reporter Siobhan Darrow, 2002-01 Siobhan Darrow former star correspondent for CNN has covered the world's hottest war zones over the past two decades reporting from the front lines in Moscow Chechnya the Balkans Albania Israel and Northern Ireland

She now offers a riveting memoir of a woman finding her own way and her own happy ending amid extraordinary circumstances Reporting War Stuart Allan, Barbie Zelizer, 2004
