Strategic Management Richard Godfrey,2015-12-14 Regularly considered to be the cap stone course on any business or management degree strategy has developed into a wide ranging and sometimes overwhelming field of study However in recent years the theory of strategy has come under increasing scrutiny for its perceived failures and detachment from real world practice With an engaging and conversational tone this new concise textbook offers an accessible and timely review of the theory and practice of strategic management explored from a more critical perspective In a refreshing change from much of the literature Richard Godfrey takes a wider view of strategy incorporating insights from the worlds of sociology psychology and history to highlight the complexity and plurality at the heart of the discipline The book also incorporates a number of extensive case studies on contemporary business strategy from the likes of Apple Nike Zara and IKEA Written for both an undergraduate and postgraduate audience the book challenges a number of underlying assumption and beliefs about strategy and seeks to add clarity and context to the field

Strategies for Shaping

Territorial Competitiveness Jesús M. Valdaliso, James R. Wilson, 2015-04-10 This book focuses on the main challenges that cities regions and other territories at sub national level face when it comes to designing and implementing a territorial strategy for economic development and competitiveness There is a widespread recognition that territories need to construct strategies that focus on shaping sustainable competitive advantages To do this they draw upon their own unique resources and capabilities alongside intelligence on existing technological and market trends However there is still a notorious lack of both theoretical and empirical research on this issue The first part of this book develops a theoretical framework for understanding and analysing territorial strategy This framework asks three questions of territorial strategy what for what and how looking closely at the key relationship between strategy and policy The second part is dedicated to exploring this framework in practice through application to a series of unique cases from around the world at different territorial levels from regions such as the Basque Country Navarre and Murcia in Spain Okanagan British Columbia in Canada Wales in the United Kingdom and the cross border region of the resund in Denmark Sweden as well as the city of Rafaela in Argentina Each case offers something different and enables the framework to be thoroughly tested generating concluding reflections that add real value for scholars and policy makers interested in and working in the field of territorial strategy This volume is intended for the academic community the policy community government leaders policy makers policy researchers and consultants and university students and teachers at different levels interested in the areas of territorial competitiveness regional development competitiveness policies and processes of territorial strategy
