Media and Communication in Nigeria Bruce Mutsaers, Nnamdi T Ekeanyanwu, 2021-12-30 Communication is changing rapidly around the world particularly in Africa where citizens are embracing digital technologies not only to improve not only interpersonal communication but also the state of their financial well being This book investigates these transformations in Nigeria's booming communication industry The book traces communications in Nigeria back to pre colonial indigenous communications through the development of telecommunication broadcasting networks the press the Nigerian film industry Nollywood and on to the digital era At a time when Western voices still dominate the academic literature on communication in Africa this book is noteworthy in drawing almost exclusively on the expertise of Nigerian based authors critiquing the discipline from their own lens and providing an important contribution to the decolonisation of communication studies The authors provide a holistic analysis of the sector encompassing print journalism broadcast journalism public relations advertising film development communication organisational communication and strategic communication Analysis of the role of digital technologies is woven throughout the book concluding with a final section theorising the future of communication studies in Nigeria in the light of the digital media revolution Robust in its theoretical and methodological underpinnings this book will be an important reference for researchers of media and communication studies and those working on Africa specifically A Companion to New Media Dynamics John Hartley, Jean Burgess, Axel Bruns, 2015-06-02 A Companion to New Media Dynamics presents a state of the art collection of multidisciplinary readings that examine the origins evolution and cultural underpinnings of the media of the digital age in terms of dynamic change Presents a state of the art collection of original readings relating to new media in terms of dynamic change Features interdisciplinary contributions encompassing the sciences social sciences humanities and creative arts Addresses a wide range of issues from the ownership and regulation of new media to their form and cultural uses Provides readers with a glimpse of new media dynamics at three levels of scale the macro or system level the meso or institutional level and micro or agency level Theatre of the Ridiculous Kelly I. Aliano, 2018-10-30 Theatre of the Ridiculous is a significant movement that highlighted the radical possibilities inherent in camp Much of contemporary theatre owes this form a great debt but little has been written about its history or aesthetic markers This book offers a comprehensive overview of the important practitioners along with critical commentary of their work Beginning with Ridiculous most recognizable name Charles Ludlam the author traces the development of this campy queer genre from the B movies of Maria Montez to the Pop Art scene of Andy Warhol to the founding of the Play House of the Ridiculous and the dawn of Ludlam s career and finally to the contemporary theatre scene Handbook of Classroom Management Edmund Emmer, Edward J. Sabornie, 2014-09-04 The field of classroom management is not a neatly organized line of inquiry but rather consists of many disparate topics and orientations that draw from multiple disciplines Given the complex nature of the field this comprehensive second edition of the Handbook of Classroom Management is an invaluable resource for those interested in understanding it This volume provides up to date summaries of research on the essential topics from the first edition as well as fresh perspectives and chapters on new topics It is the perfect tool for both graduate students and practitioners interested in a field that is fascinating but not immediately accessible without the proper guidance Technology Mike O'Reilly, 2025-09-28 Technology The Game Changer presents the case that technology should be seen as an essential feature of the human condition Technology is defined as extending the capabilities of life processes harnessing and regulating natural phenomena enabling complex life forms such as humans to build societies which step up through a series of gears It is argued that humans are not only animals that make technology but also animals made by technology Nothing in history it is proposed makes sense except in the light of technology It is contended that a technological perspective provides a satisfying and inclusive account of where we came from who and what we are and the various contingent futures that may face us Taking a universal view technology is presented as a basic feature of nature necessarily central to the evolution and history of intelligent beings whenever and wherever in the cosmos they might arise Knowledge-creating Milieus in Europe Augusto Cusinato, Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos, 2015-08-26 This book introduces a radically spatialised approach to knowledge creation and innovation Reflecting on an array of European urban and regional developments it offers an updated notion of milieu as the conceptual and material space of knowledge and innovation in line with the interpretative turn in social sciences and humanities In view of the unwillingness of mainstream economics to accommodate such a trend the authors pursue a broadly understood hermeneutic approach that expands on the triad of knowledge space innovation The book's main findings are that space is an essential intermediary in the connection between knowledge and innovation and that a renewed notion of milieu provides the knowledge space innovation triad with both an analytical basis and operational power It also offers fresh insights into the significance and potential of the knowledge economy A number of empirical European case studies on various scales organisations cities and territories support the findings and suggest new policy directions

Digital Orality Cecelia Cutler, May Ahmar, Soubeika Bahri, 2022-10-31 This volume showcases innovative research on dialectal vernacular and other forms of oral speech like writing in digital spaces The shift from a predominantly print culture to a digital culture is shaping people's identities and relationships to one another in important ways Using examples from distinct international contexts and language varieties kiAmu Lebanese Ettounsi Shanghai Wu Welsh English and varieties of American English the authors examine how people use unexpected codes scripts and spellings to say something about who they are or aspire to be This book will be of particular interest to students and scholars interested in the impact of social media on language use style and orthography as well as those with a broader interest in literacy communication language contact and language change

Audience Interactions in Contemporary Celebrity Culture Ana Jorge, Gaëlle Ouvrein, Hilde Van den Bulck, 2024-05-15 Audience Interactions in Contemporary Celebrity Culture Approaches from across Disciplines explores current understandings of celebrity audience relationships in the context of digitalization and the ongoing celebritization of all aspects of culture and society Focusing on the themes of celebrity and health celebrity and identity and celebrity and scandal this volume presents chapters authored by experts from across the globe that deal with celebrity audience relationships in different historical cultural and social settings tackling the topics from social psychological critical cultural and persuasive perspectives In doing so this book highlights the broadening of disciplinary paradigmatic theoretical and methodological approaches to celebrity studies research By bringing these different approaches together in one book and drawing overall conclusions across chapters the editors and contributors of this volume promote and facilitate cross fertilization in ongoing efforts to grasp the fascinating complexity of celebrity audiences relationships Scholars of media pop culture and celebrity studies will find this collection particularly useful

The Oxford Handbook of Community Singing Esther M. Morgan-Ellis, Kay Norton, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Community Singing shows in abundant detail that singing with others is thriving Using an array of interdisciplinary methods chapter authors prioritize participation rather than performance and provide finely grained accounts of group singing in community music therapy religious and music education settings Themes associated with protest incarceration nation hymnody group bonding identity and inclusivity infuse the 47 chapters Written almost wholly during the 2020 21 COVID 19 pandemic the Handbook features a section dedicated to collective singing facilitated by audiovisual or communications media mediated singing some of it quarantine mandated The last of eight substantial sections is a repository of new theories about how group singing practices work Throughout the authors problematize the limitations inherited from the western European choral music tradition and report on workable new remedies to counter those constraints

Organizations and the Media Josef Pallas,Lars

Strannegård,Stefan Jonsson,2014-07-17 The relationship between media and the organizations they cover has changed dramatically in the last few decades which have witnessed a huge expansion of news coverage focusing on different types of organizations and their activities In parallel organizations have dramatically increased their investment in public relations and other media oriented forms of communication Like other societal developments globalization marketization individualization scientification mediatization has become an institutional force This book analyses the mediatization of contemporary organizations and how individual organizations industry or markets are scrutinized It examines its key influence on the actions of organizations and how it shapes the entire landscape in which the organizations operate What such a perspective provides is the accentuation of the interplay between organizations and different parts of the society as embedded in the media and its logic This will be essential reading for professionals academics and advanced students in organizational studies public relations and media studies

Filimowicz,Veronika Tzankova,2020-06-02 Reimagining Communication Meaning surveys the foundational theoretical and methodological approaches that continue to shape communication studies synthesizing the complex relationship of communication to meaning making in a uniquely accessible and engaging way The Reimagining Communication series develops a new information architecture for the field of communications studies grounded in its interdisciplinary origins and looking ahead to emerging trends as researchers take into account new media technologies and their impacts on society and culture Reimagining Communication Meaning brings together international authors to provide contemporary perspectives on semiotics hermeneutics paralanguage corpus analysis critical theory intercultural communication global culture cultural hybridity postcolonialism feminism political economy propaganda cultural capital media literacy media ecology and media psychology The volume is designed as a reader for scholars and a textbook for students offering a new approach for comprehending the vast diversity of communications topics in today s globally networked world This will be an essential introductory text for advanced undergraduate and graduate students and scholars of communication broadcast media and interactive technologies with an interdisciplinary focus and an emphasis on the integration of new technologies

The

Digital Reading Condition Maria Engberg,Iben Have,Birgitte Stougaard Pedersen,2022-12-30 This volume offers a critical overview of digital reading practices and scholarly efforts to analyze and understand reading in the mediatized landscape

Building on research about digital reading born digital literature and digital audiobooks The Digital Reading Condition explores reading as part of a broader cultural shift encompassing many forms of media and genres Bringing together research from media and literary studies digital humanities scholarship on reading and learning as well as sensory studies and research on multimodal and multisensory media reception the authors address and challenge print biased conceptions of reading that are still prevalent in research whether the reading medium is print or digital They argue that the act of reading itself is changing and rather than rejecting digital media as unsuitable for sustained or focused reading practices they argue that the complex media landscape challenges us to rethink how to define reading as a mediated practice Presenting a truly interdisciplinary perspective on digital reading practices this volume will appeal to scholars and graduate students in communication media studies new media and technology literature digital humanities literacy studies composition and rhetoric

The Lure of Communication Andrea Lombardinilo, 2024-02-29 This book addresses the convergence of sociology communication and rhetoric with particular reference to the contemporary expressive and social patterns of mass communication Using rhetoric as a meta conceptual apparatus for the sociology of communication this book offers an original and comprehensive critique of historical social theory alongside 20th century communication researchers The author demonstrates the symbiotic relationship between the rhetorical structures of the media sphere and the new narrative formats in which cultural representation merges into social and civil observation This book will be of interest to academics and students studying sociology communication and cultural studies
