

The background of the cover is a soft-focus photograph of two white paper doves in flight. The doves are positioned diagonally, one above the other, with their wings spread wide. They are flying towards the right side of the frame. The background is a bright, hazy sky with a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The overall mood is peaceful and hopeful.

Understanding Peace Cultures Peace Education:

Understanding Peace Cultures Rebecca L. Oxford, 2014-03-01 Understanding Peace Cultures is exceptionally practical as well as theoretically grounded As Elise Boulding tells us culture consists of the shared values ideas practices and artifacts of a group united by a common history Rebecca Oxford explains that peace cultures are cultures large or small which foster any of the dimensions of peace inner interpersonal intergroup international intercultural or ecological and thus help transform the world As in her earlier book The Language of Peace Communicating to Create Harmony Oxford contends here that peace is a serious and desirable option Excellent educators help build peace cultures In this book Shelley Wong and Rachel Grant reveal how highly diverse public school classrooms serve as peace cultures using activities and themes founded on womanist and critical race theories Yingji Wang portrays a peace culture in a university classroom Rui Ma s model reaches out interculturally to Abraham s children Jewish Christian and Muslim youth who share an ancient heritage Children s literature Rebecca Oxford et al and students own writing Tina Wei spread cultures of peace Deep traditions such as African performance art Buddhism Daoism Confucianism and Islam give rise to peace cultures as shown here by John Grayzel Sister Jewel a colleague of Thich Nhat Hanh Yingji Wang et al and Dian Marissa et al Peace cultures also emerge in completely unexpected venues such as gangsta rap unveiled by Charles Blake et al and a prison where inmates learn Lois Liggett s spiritual semantics Finally the book includes perspectives from Jerusalem by Lawrence Berlin and North Korea and South Korea by Carol Griffiths to help us envision and hope for new transformative peace cultures where now there is strife

Handbook on Peace Education Gavriel Salomon, Ed Cairns, 2011-02-25 This handbook encompasses a range of disciplines that underlie the field of peace education and provides the rationales for the ways it is actually carried out The discipline is a composite of contributions from a variety of disciplines ranging from social psychology to philosophy and from communication to political science That is peace education is an applied subject which is practiced in differing ways but must always be firmly based on a range of established empirical disciplines The volume is structured around contributions from expert scholars in various fields that underpin peace education plus contributions from experts in applying peace education in a range of settings all complemented by chapters which deal with issues related to research and evaluation of peace education

Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education Nicole L. Johnson, 2021-08-01 In Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education Re Engaging the Heart of Peace Studies scholar teachers across a variety of humanities fields explore the content methods and pedagogies that are unique to their respective disciplines in contributing to the study of peace and justice In recent decades even as peace scholarship has burgeoned many peace studies texts including those that purport to be interdisciplinary in nature have emphasized social science perspectives and in some cases have foregone exploration of the role of the humanities altogether in comprehensive peace education While humanities scholars continue to stake out space for peace scholarship within their fields no volume has attempted to collect the wisdom of multiple humanities disciplines in order to make the case for their critical role in authentic peace education Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education addresses that shortcoming in the field of peace studies by exploring the ways in which the humanities are uniquely situated to contribute particular content knowledge skills and values required of comprehensive peace education scholarship and activism These include the development of empathy and understanding creative vision and imagination personal and communal transformation toward the good in society such as the pursuit of justice nonviolence freedom and human thriving and field specific analytical lenses of their own among other contributions Both teachers and students of peace will find value in this interdisciplinary humanities volume Each chapter of Humanities Perspectives in Peace Education offers a deep dive into a particular humanities field including philosophy literature language and culture studies rhetoric religion history and music to mine the field's unique contributions to peace and justice studies Scholars ask What are we missing in peace education if we fail to include this academic discipline Chapters include suggestions for peace pedagogies within the humanities field as well as bibliographies and suggestions for further reading

Peace Education Evaluation Celina Del Felice, Aaron Karako, Andria Wisler, 2015-05-01 Practice and research of peace education has grown in the recent years as shown by a steadily increasing number of publications programs events and funding mechanisms The oft cited point of departure for the peace education community is the belief in education as a valuable tool for decreasing the use of violence in conflict and for building cultures of positive peace hallmarked by just and equitable structures Educators and organizations implementing peace education activities and programming however often lack the tools and capacities for evaluation and thus pay scant regard to this step in program management Reasons for this inattention are related to the perceived urgency to prioritize new and more action in the context of scarce financial and human resources notwithstanding violence or conflict the lack of skills and time to indulge in a thorough evaluative strategy and the absence of institutional incentives and support Evaluation is often demand driven by donors who emphasize accounting given the current context of international development assistance and budget cuts Program evaluation is considered an added burden to already over tasked programmers who are unaware of the incentives and of assessment techniques Peace education practitioners are typically faced with forcing evaluation frameworks techniques and norms standardized for traditional education programs and venues Together these conditions create an unfavorable environment in which evaluation becomes under valued de prioritized and mythologized for its laboriousness This volume serves three inter related objectives First it offers a critical reflection on theoretical and methodological issues regarding evaluation applied to peace education interventions and programming The overarching questions of the nature of peace and the principles guiding peace education as well as governing theories and assumptions of change transformation and complexity are explored Second the volume investigates existing quantitative qualitative and mixed methods evaluation practices of peace educators in order to identify what needs related to evaluation persist among practitioners Promising practices are presented from peace education programming in different settings formal and non formal education within various groups e g children youth police journalists and among diverse cultural contexts Finally the volume proposes ideas of evaluation novel techniques for experimentation and creative adaptation of tools from related fields in order to offer pragmatic and philosophical substance to peace educators next moves and inspire the agenda for continued exploration and innovation The authors come from variety of fields including education peace and conflict studies educational evaluation development studies comparative education economics and psychology

Promoting Global Peace and Civic Engagement through Education Pandey, Kshama, 2016-05-04 It is easy to see that the world finds itself too often in tumultuous situations with catastrophic results An adequate education can instill holistic knowledge empathy and the skills necessary for promoting an international coalition of peaceful nations Promoting Global Peace and Civic Engagement through Education outlines the pedagogical practices necessary to inspire the next generation of peace bringers by addressing strategies to include topics from human rights and environmental sustainability to social justice and disarmament in a comprehensive method Providing perspectives on how to live in a multi cultural multi racial and multi religious society this book is a critical reference source for educators students of education government officials and administration who hope to make a positive change Paths to a Culture of Tolerance and Peace Basma EL Zein, Ahmed Al Jarwan, 2022-09-01 We are living today in a multicultural world surrounded by people from different backgrounds cultures and religions Establishing tolerance and peace has become crucial Without these qualities social stability and communal harmony are threatened and acceptance of each other remains elusive Spreading a culture of tolerance and peace is necessary to address contemporary issues of world peace this includes reflection on the importance of refusing violence and adopting a more peaceful means for resolving disagreements and conflicts This book written by the world s foremost thinkers in this area aims to increase feelings of openness and respect toward others solidarity and sharing based on a sense of security in one s own identity and a capacity to recognize the many dimensions of being human in different cultural and social contexts Topics discussed in the book include Promoting Tolerance and Peace Teaching Tolerance and Peace Human Values Intercultural Interreligious dialogue Human Fraternity document Peace Education for Violence Prevention in Fragile African Societies B. Maphosa,Alphonse Keasley,2016-12-29 Though conflicts among African nations diminished at the end of the last millennium the need for peace remains a perennial concern for African citizens within their communities and countries Once again Maphosa and Keasley have engaged a collection of scholar practitioners to address the query What s Going to Make a Difference in Contemporary Peace Education around Africa The contributing authors draw from daily headlines as well as African literature to unearth twenty first century quandaries with which educators in formal and informal contexts are called upon to grapple The What s Going to Make a Difference authors offer insights to educators peace education practitioners and parents for everyday living The authors probe the wisdom of the recent and ancient past and bring forth pearls for contemporary moments All in discerning effort to respond to the guiding question the editors and their contributing colleagues deliver a compelling set of revelations for Making a Difference in Peace Education for African and world citizens Handbook on Building Cultures of Peace Joseph de Rivera,2008-11-28 Mediation and negotiation personal transformation non violent struggle in the community and the world these behaviors and their underlying values underpin the United Nations definition of a culture of peace and are crucial to the creation of such a culture The Handbook on Building Cultures of Peace addresses this complex and daunting task by presenting an accessible blueprint for this development Its perspectives are international and interdisciplinary involving the developing as well as the developed world with illustrations of states and citizens using peace based values to create progress on the individual community national and global levels The result is both realistic and visionary a prescription for a secure future

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada,2019-04-18 Nigeria a country under a military regime for several years transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999 Since this change violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria a country with a population of 189 million people What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation especially in educational circles Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria Peace Education Monisha Bajaj, Maria Hantzopoulos, 2016-01-28 Honorable Mention 2017 PROSE Award Education Practice Bringing together the voices of scholars and practitioners on challenges and possibilities of implementing peace education in diverse global sites this book addresses key questions for students seeking to deepen their understanding of the field The book not only highlights ground breaking and rich qualitative studies from around the globe but also analyses the limits and possibilities of peace education in diverse contexts of conflict and post conflict societies Contributing authors address how educators and learners can make meaning of international peace education efforts how various forms of peace and violence interact in and around schools and how the field of peace education has evolved and grown over the past four decades Building Cultures of Peace Randall Amster, Elavie Ndura-Ouédraogo, 2020-07-13 From violence and abuse within family units to communities and regions torn apart by inter group conflict and wars among nations the human condition is rife with turmoil The consequences of this seemingly perpetual strife weigh heavily on humanity often creating feelings of powerlessness and hopelessness that only serve to breed more conflict and violence In the face of these monumental challenges initiatives for peace struggle to take root Seeking effective ways to encourage these efforts the United Nations adopted three declarations on the eve of the 21st century including the Declaration on a Culture of Peace that broadly defines what the vision looks like and the actions necessary to build cultures of peace Taking up this central challenge of our time this volume of collected essays presents multiple perspectives on the critical issues of peace and conflict resolution that pervade the globe addressing the UN's charge to develop values attitudes modes of behavior and ways of life conducive to the promotion of peace among individuals groups and nations Bringing together scholars and practitioners from fields including education sociology criminology political science and peace studies this work constructively engages the task of creating peace and fostering hope in a conflict ridden world Peace is Everyone's Business Lowell Ewert, Frederick Bird, 2021-08-01 The premise of this book is very simple While acknowledging that much progress has been made since the end of World War II to improve life conditions for billions of people and reduce the likelihood of war current global challenges threaten to undermine undo or even reverse much of the progress made Growing political and social polarization and the resultant increasing fear of each other is on a trajectory that could cause unprecedented harm The book illustrates how everyone can have an impact on peace and that many already do so in both constructive and negative ways illustrated by many examples The book offers an expansive view of peace which includes promoting human rights identifying and resolving situations of slow violence working to promote fair and sustainable economic development identifying and resolving injustices and establishing institutions and practices for resolving conflicts by communicative means The book especially focuses on the role universities can and should play in promoting peace Universities which have played a pivotal role in creating a more humane and just world through their research teaching and scholarship now face the challenge of thoughtfully examining how each discipline and vocation and the university as a whole can contribute to fostering peace In general universities help to prepare students actively to work for peace by cultivating their capacities at reasoning and reflecting developing their skills in communicating and research and fostering among them an active awareness of their responsibilities as citizens of the world While not every discipline or vocation shares the same level of responsibility to advance peace all have the potential to do so as they intentionally and thoughtfully look for avenues to do so

Peace as Nonviolence Egon Spiegel, George Mutalemwa, Cheng Liu, Lester R. Kurtz, 2024-10-15 This book advances the peace discourse as defined in UN guidelines while also working towards the implementation of the science of peace in various educational contexts in Africa particularly at universities The contributions gathered here are intended to highlight the role of university peace studies programs particularly their relevance for peace education peace research and peace work The book is dedicated to students and teachers of Peace Studies and Development Studies at universities as well as civil society experts They bear a great responsibility with regard to shaping the Culture of Peace called for by the UN based on the foundation of peace education and peace work and in the context of an adequate peace policy The book seeks to strengthen African pillars of lasting peace through Peace Studies Analyzing the latest topics in Africa of universal importance it offers a valuable reference guide for researchers and professionals grappling with the realities of nonviolence and other essential topics in Peace Studies

Creating the Culture of Peace Anwarul K. Chowdhury, Daisaku Ikeda, 2020-07-23 The culture of peace and non violence is essential to human existence development and progress In 1999 the United Nations General Assembly adopted by consensus the norm setting forward looking Declaration and Programme of Action on a Culture of Peace Governments institutions NGOs other civil society entities and in particular individuals all are encouraged therein to contribute to the global movement for the culture of peace Related to this vision this rich and varied dialogue discusses how the culture of peace can be achieved in the world Based on the extensive personal and professional experiences of two high profile thinkers and activists they analyse the challenges unfolding at local national and global levels and how these relate to humanity s quest for peace human security and happiness Although coming from very different positions one a Buddhist philosopher educator and leader the other a UN diplomat renowned for his international work in peace development and human rights these interlocutors are united in their search for justice and better quality of life for all and their conviction that women and young people are the most effective means to achieving positive change in the world The dialogue provides ideas on the key challenges that face our planet poverty and deprivation war and violence nuclear weapons and small arms climate change and environmental degradation weak governance and financial crises marginalization of women and alienation of youth and the relentless drive for materialism They also invite us to consider how the culture of peace can be practically achieved through an individual collective and institutional transformation Recognizing that global citizenship multilateralism women s equality and value creating education are central and inter linked themes this dialogue also underscores the inherent strength of spirituality compassion empathy forgiveness respect for diversity and empowerment that comes from the trials and tribulations of life
