Understanding Rwandas Agribusiness And Manufacturing Sectors:

Understanding Rwanda's Agribusiness and Manufacturing Sectors Sachin Gathani, Dimitri Stoelinga, 2013-08 This book comes after the 50th anniversary of Rwanda's Independence and provides the first ever comprehensive overview of firms in the country's agribusiness and manufacturing sectors Understanding Rwanda's Agribusiness and Manufacturing Sectors puts these sectors into context historically explaining how decisions and initiatives going back to the 1930s have contributed to determining the shape and composition of agribusiness and manufacturing in Rwanda today These sectors more than any others have followed the ups and downs of Rwanda's history The book also provides an in depth analysis of agribusiness and manufacturing in Rwanda today with a focus on understanding the origins evolution and capabilities of firms and how these capabilities came to be This overview or Enterprise Mapping gives the reader a detailed understanding of the ownership structures products systems resources and exports of leading firms in Rwanda's agribusiness and manufacturing sectors today Finally this book individually profiles forty three of Rwanda's largest manufacturing and agribusiness firms This book is targeted at policymakers academics business people and prospective investors interested in gaining a better understanding of Rwanda's industrial sector

State Fragility Nematullah Bizhan, 2022-09-27 Presenting case studies and comparisons across seven countries this book addresses key questions as to the nature of state fragility policies used to mitigate it assessment of outcomes and prospects It offers a novel empirical contribution in examining a range of distinct but interdependent dimensions of state fragility not only focusing on questions of state legitimacy capacity and authority but also involving the economy and resilience to political and economic shocks as well as at vital questions of context and diversity Examining Afghanistan Lebanon Burundi Pakistan Sierra Leone Papua New Guinea and Rwanda within the context of their different local circumstances and within broader questions of global security the book identifies unique factors that have played a part in their specific context and explores key drivers and dominant features This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of state fragility and more broadly to students of politics public policy development studies state society relations political economy state building peace and conflict studies international studies security studies regional studies as well as NGOs and international organizations

Language as Statecraft Kate Spowage, 2024-07-18 This book examines the rise of English in Rwanda offering critical insights into the links between language colonialism and capitalism with implications for our understanding of global English Spowage takes an interdisciplinary approach drawing on political theory cultural materialism and critical sociolinguistics She positions language policy as an instrument for social reproduction and exploitation but also a site of struggle and contest Unravelling the complex history of language politics and policy in Rwanda Spowage elaborates a theory of language as statecraft This approach draws attention to the endurance of a colonial capitalist link between language and social class while illuminating the specific power of English in legitimising neoliberal political power and class hierarchies On this basis Spowage argues for a theoretical reimagining of the spread of English through the global English n buleuse a model which aims to capture the complex mechanisms that reinforce the dominance of English and to identify points where those mechanisms are fragile This innovative volume will be of interest to scholars in sociolinguistics global Englishes language and politics and African studies

Deals and Development Lant Pritchett,Kunal Sen,Eric Werker,2017-11-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4 0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations When are developing countries able to initiate periods of rapid growth and why have so few of these countries been able to sustain growth over decades Deals and Development The Political Dynamics of Growth Episodes seeks to answer these questions and many more through a novel conceptual framework built from a political economy of business government relations Economic growth for most developing countries is not a linear process Growth instead proceeds in booms and busts yet most frameworks for thinking about economic growth are built on the faulty assumption that a country s economic performance is largely stable Deals and Development explains how growth episodes emerge and when growth once ignited is maintained for a sustained period It applies its new framework to examine the growth of countries across a range of institutional and political contexts in Africa and Asia using the examples of Bangladesh Cambodia India Malaysia Thailand Ghana Liberia Malawi Rwanda and Uganda Through these country analyses it demonstrates the explanatory power of its framework and the importance of feedback cycles in which economic trends interact with political behaviour to either sustain or terminate a growth episode Offering a lens through which to analyse complex scenarios and unwieldy amounts of information this book provides actionable levers of intervention to bring around reform and improve a country s chance at achieving transformative economic growth Industries

Assessing the economywide impacts of COVID-19 on Rwanda's economy, agri-food system, and poverty: A social accounting matrix (SAM) multiplier approach Aragie, Emerta,Diao, Xinshen,Robinson, Sherman,Rosenbach, Gracie,Spielman, David J.,Thurlow, James,2021-05-17 Rwanda s policy response to COVID 19 has been widely praised for its rapid systematic and comprehensive approach to containing the pandemic Although the economic consequences are unavoidable the country expects to return its economy to its high growth trajectory as the pandemic subsides We use economic modeling tools designed to estimate the short term economywide impacts of the unanticipated rapid onset economic shocks of COVID 19 on Rwanda Results show that during the six week lockdown that began in March Rwanda s GDP fell 39.1 percent RWF 435 billion USD 484 million when compared to a no COVID situation in the same period Results further show that Rwanda s GDP in 2020 will be between 12 and 16 percent lower than a predicted no COVID GDP depending on the pace of the recovery The losses in annual GDP are between RWF 1.0 and 1.5 trillion USD 1.1 to 1.6 billion While GDP for the industrial and services sectors were estimated to have fallen during the lockdown period by 57 and 48 percent respectively exemptions of COVID 19 restrictions for the agricultural sector limited the decline in agricultural GDP to 7 percent compared to a noCOVID situation During the lockdown period the national poverty rate is estimated to have increased by 10.9 percentage points as 1.3 million people mostly in rural areas fell into temporary poverty Poverty rates are expected to stabilize by the end of 2020 increasing only by between 0.4 and 1.1 percentage points While these figures may be encouraging they mask the impacts on poor households of the sharp poverty spike during the lockdown and the inherent complexity of poverty dynamics post lockdown Looking forward the speed and success of Rwanda s recovery will depend critically on the expansion of Rwanda s social protection programs boosting enterprises of all sizes support to the agri food system and restoration of international trade
