Literature and Social Media Bronwen Thomas,2020-01-31 From Instapoetry to BookTube contemporary literary cultures and practices are increasingly intertwined with social media In this lively and wide ranging study Bronwen Thomas explores how social media provides new ways of connecting with and rediscovering established literary works and authors while also facilitating the emergence of unique and distinctive forms of creative expression The book takes a 360 approach to the subject combining analysis of current forms and practices with an examination of how social media fosters ongoing collaborative discourse amongst both informal and formal literary networks and demonstrating how the participatory practices of social media have the potential to radically transform how literature is produced shared and circulated The first study of its kind to focus specifically on social media Literature and Social Media provides a timely and engaging account of the state of the art while interrogating the rhetoric that so often accompanies discussion of the new in this context

Social Media and Morality Lisa S. Nelson,2018-05-31 Is social media changing who we are We assume social media is only a tool for our modern day communications and interactions but is it quietly changing our identities and how we see the world and one another Our current debate about the human behaviors behind social media misses the important effects these social networking technologies are having on our sense of shared morality and rationality There has been much concern about the loss of privacy and anonymity in the Information Age but little attention has been paid to the consequences and effects of social media and the behavior they engender on the Internet In order to understand how social media influences our morality Lisa S Nelson suggests a new methodological approach to social media and its effect on society Instead of beginning with the assumption that we control our use of social media this book considers how the phenomenological effects of social media influences our actions decisions and ultimately who we are and who we become This important study will inform a new direction in policy and legal regulation for these increasingly important technologies
