Undoing Monogamy The Politics Of Science And The Possibilities Of Biology:

Undoing Monogamy Angela Willey, 2016-04-28 In Undoing Monogamy Angela Willey offers a radically interdisciplinary exploration of the concept of monogamy in U S science and culture propelled by queer feminist desires for new modes of conceptualization and new forms of belonging She approaches the politics and materiality of monogamy as intertwined with one another such that disciplinary ways of knowing themselves become an object of critical inquiry Refusing to answer the naturalization of monogamy with a naturalization of nonmonogamy Willey demands a critical reorientation toward the monogamy question in the natural sciences social sciences and humanities The book examines colonial sexual science monogamous voles polyamory and the work of Alison Bechdel and Audre Lorde to show how challenging the lens through which human nature is seen as monogamous or nonmonogamous forces us to reconsider our investments in coupling and in disciplinary notions of biological bodies A Global History of Sexual Science, 1880-1960 Veronika Fuechtner, Douglas E. Haynes, Ryan M. Jones, 2018 Sex has no history but sexual science does Starting in the late nineteenth century scholars and activists all over the world suddenly began to insist that understandings of sex be based on science As Japanese and Indian sexologists influenced their German British and American counterparts and vice versa sexuality modernity and imaginings of exotified Others became intimately linked The first anthology to provide a worldwide perspective on the birth and development of the field A Global History of Sexual Science contends that actors outside of Europe in Asia Latin America and Africa became important interlocutors in debates on prostitution birth control or transvestitism Ideas circulated through intellectual exchange travel and internationally produced and disseminated publications Twenty scholars tackle specific issues including the female orgasm and the criminalization of male homosexuality to demonstrate how concepts and ideas introduced by sexual scientists gained currency throughout the modern world The New Politics of Materialism Sarah Ellenzweig, John Zammito, 2017-07-14 This collection which includes an international roster of contributors from philosophy history literature and science is the first to ask what is new about the new materialism and place it in interdisciplinary perspective The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Philosophy of Science Sharon Crasnow, Kristen Intemann, 2020-11-30 The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Philosophy of Science is a comprehensive resource for feminist thinking about and in the sciences Its 33 chapters were written exclusively for this Handbook by a group of leading international philosophers as well as scholars in gender studies women s studies psychology economics and political science The chapters of the Handbook are organized into four main parts I Hidden Figures and Historical Critique II Theoretical Frameworks III Key Concepts and Issues IV Feminist Philosophy of Science in Practice The chapters in this extensive fourth part examine the relevance of feminist philosophical thought for a range of scientific and professional disciplines including biology and biomedical sciences psychology cognitive science and neuroscience the social sciences physics and public policy The Handbook gives a snapshot of the current state of feminist philosophy of science allowing students and other newcomers to get up to speed quickly in the subfield and providing a handy reference for many different kinds of researchers How to Make Art at the End of the World Natalie Loveless, 2019-08-09 In recent years the rise of research creation a scholarly activity that considers art practices as research methods in their own right has emerged from the organic convergences of the arts and interdisciplinary humanities and it has been fostered by universities wishing to enhance their public profiles In How to Make Art at the End of the World Natalie Loveless draws on diverse perspectives from feminist science studies to psychoanalytic theory as well as her own experience advising undergraduate and graduate students to argue for research creation as both a means to produce innovative scholarship and a way to transform pedagogy and research within the contemporary neoliberal university Championing experimental artistically driven methods of teaching researching and publication research creation works to render daily life in the academy more pedagogically politically and affectively sustainable as well as more responsive to issues of social and ecological justice More Than Words John Howard, 2023-02-07 Increase intimacy connection and love with this critical Vanessa Van Edwards bestselling author of Captivate The Science of Succeeding with People science based guide to creating meaningful and lasting relationships When it comes to building a better relationship with your partner touch and connection matter so much more than the words that you say And author and therapist John Howard is here to tell us why More Than Words shows you how to deepen love and connection in any relationship based on the latest cutting edge research in interpersonal neurobiology trauma informed healing attachment theory and many more scientific fields This brilliant guide Diane Poole Heller PhD author of The Power of Attachment explains why verbal communication may not elicit the connection you seek and offers ways to practice and form new habits that can nurture love care safety comfort and passion in relationships Science shows that these techniques work but most people don't know them yet You can start using these techniques today to increase intimacy and emotional connection in your closest relationships Mindful of all the needs of the modern individual More Than Words is inclusive of LGBTQ polyamorous and other nontraditional committed relationships and ultimately looks to elevate the way we strengthen the most important bonds in our lives Hubert Harrison Brian Kwoba, 2025-05-30 The significance of Hubert Henry Harrison 1883 1927 as a journalist activist and educator lies in his innovation of radical solutions to radical injustices He witnessed staggering luxury for the few alongside crushing poverty for the many White mob violence continually haunted Black communities while imperial conquest and world wars wrought wanton destruction upon entire nations of people These conditions sparked a global political awakening to which Harrison gave voice as a leading figure in cutting edge struggles for socialism internationalism free love freethinking and free speech He did far more than cultivate the rich dark soil in which the so called Harlem Renaissance would take root Harrison also played a pivotal role in the rise of Marcus Garvey and the emergence of the largest international organization of African people in modern history Because of his fearless radicalism however he has been erased from popular memory Hubert Harrison presents a historical restoration of Harrison's numerous intellectual and political breakthroughs Offering a fresh interpretation of his contributions to social movements for economic racial and sexual liberation Brian Kwoba's richly textured narrative highlights the startling and continued relevance of Harrison's visionary thinking across generations

Enduring Polygamy Bruce Whitehouse, 2023-04-14 Why hasn't polygamous marriage died out in African cities as experts once expected it would Enduring Polygamy considers this question in one of Africa's fastest growing cities Bamako the capital of Mali where one in four wives is in a polygamous marriage Using polygamy as a lens through which to survey sweeping changes in urban life it offers ethnographic and demographic insights into the customs gender norms and hierarchies kinship structures and laws affecting marriage and situates polygamy within structures of inequality that shape marital options especially for young Malian women Through an approach of cultural relativism the book offers an open minded but unflinching perspective on a contested form of marriage Without shying away from questions of patriarchy and women's oppression it presents polygamy from the everyday vantage points of Bamako residents themselves allowing readers to make informed judgments about it and to appreciate the full spectrum of human cultural diversity

Modern Sentimentalism Lisa Mendelman, 2019-12-17 Modern Sentimentalism examines how American female novelists reinvented sentimentalism in the modernist period Just as the birth of the modern woman has long been imagined as the death of sentimental feeling modernist literary innovation has been understood to reject sentimental aesthetics Modern Sentimentalism reframes these perceptions of cultural evolution Taking up icons such as the New Woman the flapper the free lover the New Negro woman and the divorcee this book argues that these figures embody aspects of a traditional sentimentality while also recognizing sentiment as incompatible with ideals of modern selfhood These double binds equally beleaguer the protagonists and shape the styles of writers like Willa Cather Edith Wharton Anita Loos and Jessie Fauset Modern sentimentalism thus translates nineteenth century conventions of sincerity and emotional fulfillment into the skeptical self-conscious modes of interwar cultural production Reading canonical and under examined novels in concert with legal briefs scientific treatises and other transatlantic period discourse and combining traditional and quantitative methods of archival research Modern Sentimentalism demonstrates that feminine feeling far from being peripheral to twentieth century modernism animates its central principles and preoccupations

Animate Literacies Nathan Snaza, 2019-08-16 In Animate Literacies Nathan Snaza proposes a new theory of literature and literacy in which he outlines how literacy is both constitutive of the social and used as a means to define the human Weaving new materialism with feminist queer and decolonial thought Snaza theorizes literacy as a contact zone in which humans nonhuman animals and nonvital objects such as chairs and paper all become active participants In readings of classic literature by Kate Chopin Frederick Douglass James Joyce Toni Morrison Mary Shelley and others Snaza emphasizes the key roles that affect and sensory experiences play in literacy Snaza upends common conceptions of literacy and its relation to print media showing instead how such understandings reinforce dehumanizations linked to dominant imperialist heterosexist and capitalist definitions of the human

The path toward disrupting such exclusionary humanist frameworks Snaza contends lies in formulating alternative practices of literacy and literary study that escape disciplined knowledge production Sociology of Sexualities Kathleen J.
