Joachim Deeg, Hans-Georg Klingemann, Gordon L. Phillips, 2012-12-06 In 1988 we presented our Guide to Bone Marrow Transplantation The reception has been enthusiastic and we have received a flood of critical comments suggestions and requests to provide an update in due time Although several books on marrow transplantation have recently been published their scope and goal have generally been different Hence we have decided to prepare a second edition of the Guide Our aim was to maintain a short concise text which nevertheless would incorporate changes that have occurred over the past four or five years We have streamlined the description of pretransplant considerations by condensing two sections into one Treatment Planning and Timing of Transplantation This also facilitated the review of controversial indications for marrow transplantation for example in patients with acute myelogenous leukemia in first chemotherapy induced remission We have updated the chapter dealing with conditioning regimens and have expanded the section on donor selection in particular in regard to the current level of tissue typing and the identification of unrelated volunteer donors In the chapter on collection processing and infusion of marrow we have incorporated recent developments for example the use of closed systems for marrow harvesting and processing and the use of solid phase separation of stem cells Code of Federal Regulations, 1973 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries
