Tourism And Sustainability Development Globalisation And New Tourism In The Third World:

Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2003-12-08 Tourism and Sustainability explores and challenges the notions of development sustainability globalisation and power and their relationship to contemporary tourism in the third world

Tourism and Sustainability Martin Mowforth, Ian Munt, 2015-12-22 By January 2015 the world's richest 80 people had as much wealth as the poorest 50 per cent of the world's population. It is a global unevenness through which the barriers to migration of Third World migrants to wealthy First World nations go ever higher while the barriers to travel in the reverse direction are all but extinct. So how exactly does tourism contribute to narrowing this glaring inequality between the rich and poor? Are ever expanding tourism markets a smoke-free socioculturally sensitive form of human industrialisation? Is alternative tourism really a credible lever for reducing global inequality and eliminating poverty? Tourism and Sustainability critically explores the most significant universal geopolitical norms of the last half century: development, globalisation and sustainability, and through the lens of new forms of tourism demonstrates how we can better get to grips with the rapidly changing new global order. The fourth edition has been extensively revised and updated and benefits from the addition of new material on climate change and tourism. Drawing on a range of examples from across the Third World, Mowforth and Munt expertly illustrate the social, economic and environmental conditions that continue to affect the tourism industry. With the first edition hailed by Geoffrey Wall as one of the most significant books produced on tourism since the turn of the millennium, Tourism and Sustainability remains the essential resource for students of human geography, environmental sciences and studies, politics, development studies, anthropology and business studies, as well as tourism itself.

Tourism, Poverty and Development Andrew Holden, 2013-07-18 Poverty alleviation is high on the global policy agenda, its importance being emphasised by its place as the first of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals. As a potentially significant source of economic growth in developing countries, tourism may also play a major role in poverty reduction and alleviation under the right circumstances. The incorporation of tourism into development policy and Poverty Reduction Strategies has special poignancy for those Least Developed Countries where natural resources exist to support a tourism industry and there are limited development alternatives. This book offers a holistic, explicit and detailed introduction to the relationship of poverty and tourism within the context of developing countries. The book is divided into distinct sections progressing from an evaluation of the key concepts of poverty, tourism and development to the causal factors of poverty, to the mechanisms of how tourism is being implemented in policy and practice to reduce poverty, and finally to an analysis of the relationship between tourism to poverty alleviation in the future. The adopted analytical approach of the key themes is multi-disciplinary, incorporating tourism studies, human geography, political economy, economics, development and environmental studies. It integrates examples and original case studies from varying geographical developing regions including Africa, South Asian and East Asia and the Pacific to lend practical insights into tourism's role in poverty alleviation The text will be of particular interest to higher education students from tourism studies geography political economy environmental and development studies and sociology backgrounds It will also be of relevance to government and policy makers alongside those who have a more general interest in poverty alleviation The Wiley

Tourism, Philanthropy and School Tours in Zimbabwe Kathleen Smithers, 2024-08-05 This book explores the phenomena of school tours and tourism It explores tensions of authenticity and artificiality in the school site being both a place of community learning and a spectacle for tourism consumption Through the example of a school in Matabeleland North Zimbabwe the book examines the act of a school tour whose main aim is to providing fund for the school It offers a unique interdisciplinary lens that examines both the school as a tourism destination and as a site of learning By drawing on these two fields the book provides insights into the tensions inherent in a school that is also a tourism destination This book will demonstrate to readers the tensions present in tourism partnerships with schools that include some source of philanthropic funding and unpack the complexities of tourism that draws on stereotypical cultural images It explores these tensions through the lens of school leaders students teachers and tourism personnel The book provides a major and unique contribution to the field of tourism studies and education It will be of interest to students and researchers interested in tourism studies sociology education philanthropy development studies and the Global South Non-Profit Organisations,

Volume III Alkis Thrassou, Demetris Vrontis, Leonidas Efthymiou, Yaakov Weber, S. M. Riad Shams, Evangelos Tsoukatos, 2024-08-12 This four volume book examines through multiple and cross discipline perspectives the science and practice of not for profit organisations These organisations have drawn considerable attention and witnessed extensive growth as they engage in delivering public services to society And are increasingly pressured to balance business with social goals inherent idiosyncratic features with management creativity structural limitations with operational flexibility and ethical boundaries with pragmatism all with scarce resources but abundant determination The first volume explores the opportunities and challenges of non profit organisations in the contemporary environment elucidating current and future issues in the field setting strategic directions and presenting sector wide examples and best practices The second volume explores contextual aspects relating to the economy and industries The third volume presents social and ethical aspects as well as matters of sustainability accountability and the overall wellbeing of society The fourth and final volume examines structures and models with an emphasis on technology Travel Journalism F. Hanusch,E. Fürsich,2014-09-29 Contributors from diverse backgrounds explore a range of issues in relation to the media and journalism s role in ascribing meaning to tourism practices This fascinating account offers a thoroughly international and interdisciplinary perspective on an increasingly important field of journalism scholarship Slum Tourism Fabian Frenzel,Ko Koens,Malte Steinbrink,2012 This multidisciplinary collection is unique both in its conceptual and empirical breadth Routledge Handbook of Ecotourism David A. Fennell,2021-09-21 This handbook presents a timely broad ranging and provocative overview of the essential nature of ecotourism The chapters will both advance the existing central themes of ecotourism and provide challenging and divergent observations that will thrust ecotourism into new areas of research policy and practice The volume is arranged around four key themes sustainability ethics and identity change conflict and consumption and environment and learning with a total of 28 chapters The first section focuses on sustainability as a core ecotourism criterion with a primary focus on some of the macro sustainability issues that have an impact on ecotourism Foremost among these topics is the linkage to the UN s Sustainable Development Goals which have relevance to ecotourism as one of the greenest or most responsible forms of tourism The chapters in the second section provide a range of different topics that pull ecotourism research into new directions including a chapter on enriching indigenous ecotourism through culturally sensitive universalism The third section includes chapters on topics ranging from persons with disabilities as a neglected body of research in ecotourism to ecotourism as a form of luxury consumption The final section emphasises the link between ecotourism and learning about the natural world including a deeply theoretical chapter on rewilding Europe With contributions from authors around the world this handbook gives a global platform to local voices in both developed and emerging country contexts The multidisciplinary and international Routledge Handbook of Ecotourism will be of great interest to researchers students and practitioners working in tourism and sustainability Tourism and Geographies of Inequality Fabian Frenzel,Ko Koens,2016-02-08 Slum tourism is a controversial pastime on the rise globally This volume provides a collection of studies that shed light on the phenomenon from historical geographical sociological political and anthropological perspectives Based on unique and in depth research from across the globe the collection forms an indispensable resource for Scholars and Students of tourism and the geographies of inequality Connecting slum tourism to debates over the ethics and aesthetics of travel volunteering second homes and cross border mobilities the case studies provide ample ground for an understanding of slum tourism as transversal terrain in which the questions of global equity came to the fore This book was published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Computational Science and Its Applications – ICCSA 2025 Workshops Osvaldo Gervasi,Beniamino Murgante,Chiara Garau,Yeliz Karaca,Maria Noelia Faginas Lago,Francesco Scorza,Ana Cristina Braga,2025-08-06 The fourteen volume set LNCS 15886 15899 constitutes the papers of several workshops which were held in conjunction with the
