Recentring Tourism Geographies in the 'Asian Century' Harnng Luh Sin, Mary Mostafanezhad, Joseph M. Cheer, 2022-04-19 This book considers what the transition into the Asian Century means for some of the most urgent issues in the world today such as sustainable development human rights gender equality and environmental change The book critiques Anglo Western centrism in tourism theory and calls on tourism scholars to make radical shifts toward more inclusive epistemology and praxis From the British Century of the 1800s to the American Century of the 1900s to the contemporary Asian Century tourism geographies are deeply entangled in broader shifts in geopolitical power In the shadow of the COVID 19 pandemic the significance of shifts in tourism geographies and the themes addressed in this volume are more urgent than ever That the world faces increasing turmoil is abundantly clear Yet amidst the disruption to the everyday it is hope and compassion but also political economic restructuring that is needed to reset the tourism industry in more sustainable equitable and ethical directions In no uncertain terms the pandemic has forever changed the tourism industry as the world once knew it This book therefore sets out to collectively build on the momentum of the inclusive scholarship that Critical Tourism Studies Asia Pacific is renowned for while also asking readers to pause and reflect on the possibilities and challenges of tourism in a post pandemic Asian Century The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

Owners of Learning Jennifer Hays, 2016 This book describes the Nyae Nyae Village Schools an innovative and unique mother tongue education initiative set in north eastern Namibia Inspired by the optimism of Independence the project was designed in close consultation with the Ju hoansi community in the early 1990s Drawing upon their traditional knowledge transmission strategies and initiated in a supportive political environment the project exemplified best practice During the following two decades the Village Schools have transitioned from a donor supported project to government schools and have received much attention and support from donors civil society organisations researchers and others However the students still do not seem to succeed in the mainstream schools Why is this Based on long term field work in the region including interviews with Nyae

Nyae residents over several years and work with involved organisations the book addresses this question Contextualising the Village Schools within post Independence Namibia southern African history and the global indigenous rights movement it examines the enormous paradoxes that schooling presents for the Nyae Nyae community Owners of Learning is the English translation of the Ju hoansi word for teacher and it serves to highlight a fundamental question to whom does education belong
