War Tourism Bertram M. Gordon, 2018-11-15 As German troops entered Paris following their victory in June 1940 the American journalist William L Shirer observed that they carried cameras and behaved as naive tourists One of the first things Hitler did after his victory was to tour occupied Paris where he was famously photographed in front of the Eiffel Tower Focusing on tourism by German personnel military and civil and French civilians during the war as well as war related memory tourism since War Tourism addresses the fundamental linkages between the two As Bertram M Gordon shows Germans toured occupied France by the thousands in groups organized by their army and guided by suggestions in magazines such as Der Deutsche Wegleiter für Paris The German Guide for Paris Despite the hardships imposed by war and occupation many French civilians continued to take holidays Facilitated by the Popular Front legislation of 1936 this solidified the practice of workers vacations leading to a postwar surge in tourism After the end of the war the phenomenon of memory tourism transformed sites such as the Maginot Line fortresses The influx of tourists with links either directly or indirectly to the war took hold and continues to play a significant economic role in Normandy and elsewhere As France moved from wartime to a postwar era of reconciliation and European Union memory tourism has held strong and exerts significant influence across the country

Tourism Planning and Development Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, C. Michael Hall, 2019-09-19 Academically complex and challenging to apply development and planning are increasingly relevant to the growing tourism industry This collection contains critical studies on tourism development and planning and calls for proactive holistic and responsible thinking It addresses conceptual and contemporary issues in development and planning research including political trust innovation networks sustainability moral encounters enclavisation and evolutionary economics It argues that recognition of the contextual and historical dimensions around tourism development and planning is essential to help both researchers and practitioners better understand destination and place based decision making In addition it will lead to improvements in stakeholder relations and explains how tourism best works with localities and localities with tourism This book was originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies Tourism Dynamics in Everyday Places Aurélie Condevaux, Maria Gravari-Barbas, Sandra Guinand, 2021-12-30 This title offers a dynamic understanding of tourism usually defined in terms of clearly circumscribed places and temporalities to grasp its changing spatial patterns The first part looks at the before everyday places such as daily markets flea markets urban neighbourhoods that have captured the tourists interest and have progressively experienced new development in their ordinary patterns The second part investigates the after former tourist spaces moving beyond the tourism sphere and becoming places of everyday life study or work Chapters explore what this means for local societies and examine this contemporary phenomenon of former tourist attractions becoming ordinary and everyday and of ordinary places beginning to take on a tourist dimension The hybridisation of tourist practices and ordinary practices is also explored through a range of international case studies and examples written by highly regarded and interdisciplinary academics This edited volume will be of great interest to upper level students academics and researchers in tourism urban studies and land use planning Sport, Events, Tourism and Regeneration Nicholas Wise, John Harris, 2017-02-17 Investments in sport events and tourism in cities and wider regions are part of nascent regeneration strategies linked to transitioning economic bases and place images While it is important to consider physical regeneration there is a range of subsequent benefits and opportunities brought about through regeneration that considers social impacts communities and how investments and developments influence how people interact in transformed spaces This book brings together a collection focusing on the diverse range of approaches and perspectives of regeneration Twelve chapters outline and bring together critical perspectives of regeneration from scholars in different parts of the world This collection critically assesses some of the key factors impacting upon regeneration initiatives in relation to sport events and tourism By doing so this book assesses if new opportunities have arisen from developments increasing the demands and needs of locals and tourists or if transformations result in exclusion thus challenging who regeneration is for This book will be valuable reading for students and academics interested in tourism studies events planning sport and leisure studies or development studies as well as the wider social sciences FCI Phase-II Exam (Paper-1) : Assistant Grade-III (General/Depot) | 10 Mock Tests + 12 Sectional Tests (1300+ Solved Questions) EduGorilla Prep Experts, 2022-09-10 Best Selling Book in English Edition for FCI Phase II Paper 1 Exam with objective type questions as per the latest syllabus given by the FCI Compare your performance with other students using Smart Answer Sheets in EduGorilla s FCI Phase II Paper 1 Exam Practice Kit FCI Phase II Paper 1 Exam Preparation Kit comes with 10 Full length Mock Tests 12 Sectional Tests with the best quality content Increase your chances of selection by 16X FCI Phase II Paper 1 Exam Prep Kit comes with well structured and 100% detailed solutions for all the questions Clear exam with good grades using thoroughly Researched Content by experts Political Ecology of Tourism Mary Mostafanezhad, Roger Norum, Eric J. Shelton, Anna Thompson-Carr, 2016-01-08 Why has political ecology been assigned so little attention in tourism studies despite its broad and critical interrogation of environment and politics As the first full length treatment of a political ecology of tourism the collection addresses this lacuna and calls for the further establishment of this emerging interdisciplinary subfield Drawing on recent trends in geography anthropology and environmental and tourism studies Political Ecology of Tourism Communities Power and the Environment employs a political ecology approach to the analysis of tourism through three interrelated themes Communities and Power Conservation and Control and Development and Conflict While geographically broad in scope with chapters that span Central and South America to Africa and South Southeast and East Asia to Europe and Greenland the collection illustrates how tourism related environmental challenges are shared across prodigious geographical distances while also attending to the nuanced ways they materialize in local contexts and therefore demand the historically situated place based and multi scalar approach of political ecology This collection advances our understanding of the role of political economic and environmental concerns in tourism practice It offers readers a political ecology framework from which to address tourism related issues and themes such as development identity politics environmental subjectivities environmental degradation land and resources conflict and indigenous ecologies Finally the collection is bookended by a pair of essays from two of the most distinguished scholars working in the subfield Rosaleen Duffy foreword and James Igoe afterword This collection will be valuable reading for scholars and practitioners alike who share a critical interest in the intersection of tourism politics and the environment

Risk and Safety Challenges for Religious Tourism and Events Maximiliano E Korstanje,Razaq Raj,Kevin

Griffin,2018-04-25 Travellers today face many challenges from risk and safety issues Focusing in particular on risk and safety issues faced by visitors to holy sites this book looks at the unique challenges raised where annual religious festivals are commemorated with mass gatherings lasting for days and large crowds require detailed disaster management plans Beginning with a general section on risk management covering areas such as disaster management terrorism crime and security the book then delves deeper into specific issues and challenges It reviews important topics such as understanding the behaviour of crowds how to perform a risk assessment for a sacred space and travelling in what some would regard as an increasingly hostile world Mitigating risk at mass gathering events and festivals is an area that still needs further research but this book brings together current thought and provides a valuable reference for those studying religion tourism and events as well as event organizers emergency and hospital services and local authorities
