Reclaiming Democracy Albena Azmanova,Mihaela Mihai,2015-03-02 Democracy is in shambles economically and politically The recent economic meltdown in Europe and the U S has substituted democratic deliberation with technocratic decisions In Athens Madrid Lisbon New York Pittsburgh or Istanbul protesters have denounced the incapacity and unwillingness of elected officials to heed to their voices While the diagnosis of our political economic illness has been established remedies are hard to come What can we do to restore our broken democracy Which modes of political participation are likely to have an impact And what are the loci of political innovation in the wake of the crisis It is with these questions that Reclaiming Democracy engages We argue that the managerial approach to solving the crisis violates a right to politics that is a right that our collective life be guided by meaningful politics by discussion of and decision among genuinely alternative principles and policies The contributors to this volume are united in their commitment to explore how and where this right can be affirmed in a way that resuscitates democracy in the wake of the crisis Mixing theoretical reflection and empirical analysis the book offers fresh insights into democracy s current conundrum and makes concrete proposals about how the right to politics can be protected

Democracy, Peace, Development Johan Galtung,Paul D. Scott,2008 The Education of Radical Democracy Sarah Amsler,2015 The Education of Radical Democracy explores why radical democracy is so necessary difficult and possible and why it is important to understand it as an educative activity The book draws on critical social theory and critical pedagogy to explain what enables and sustains work for radical democratization and considers how we can begin such work in neoliberal societies today Exploring examples of projects from the nineteenth century to the present day the book sheds light on a wealth of critical tools research studies theoretical concepts and practical methods It offers a critical reading of the crisis of hope in neoliberal capitalist societies focusing on the problem of the contraction of possibilities for democratic agency resistance to domination and practices of freedom It argues that radically democratic thinking practice and forms of social organization are vital for countering and overcoming systemic hegemonies and that these can be learned and cultivated This book will be of interest to academics practitioners researchers and students in education and critical theory and to those interested in the sociology philosophy and politics of hope It also invites new dialogues between theorists of neoliberal power and political possibility those engaged in projects for radical democratization and teachers in formal and informal educational settings More Power Than We Know David T. Dellinger,1975 Disorienting Democracy Clare Woodford,2021-06-30 The book aims to present a new and accessible way of interpreting and supplementing Jacques Rancie s work in response to the growing inequality in Western democracy and offers solutions to general readers activists and policy makers alike

Towards Democracy Complete in Four Parts, Vol. 1 of 4 (Classic Reprint) Edward Carpenter,2015-07-11 Excerpt from Towards Democracy Complete in Four Parts Vol 1 of 4 Edward Carpenter was born at Brighton England August 29 1844 He was educated at Brighton College and a Trinity Hall Cambridge taking his degree as tenth wrangler in the mathematical tripos in 1868 For some time fellow and lecturer at Trinity Hall he seemed contented to follow the conventional course adapting himself quietly to the system of compromises and contradictions supposed to represent the ideals of Christianity and civilization He was duly ordained and held a curacy under the Rev Frederick D Maurice But a nature so elemental in its need for light air and truth could not long be confined in a mould Carpenter began to realize that he could not do his could not do his daily living satisfactorily either In 1874 he relinquished his orders and fellowship and left Cambridge For some years he lectured in connection with the University Extension Movement in northern towns incidentally studying social and economic conditions and coming close to the raw human material which feeds those busy grimy manufacturing centres He contracted the habit of thinking and also the habit of dreaming About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Towards Democracy.
