Traditional Islamic Principles Of Built Environment:

Traditional Islamic Principles of Built Environment Hisham Mortada, 2003-12-16 Written with the non Muslim reader in mind this book analyses the principles and values established by Islamic tradition to govern the social and physical environments of Muslims The picture of Islam that emerges from this work is of a way of life with social ideals Relying on the Qur'an and Sunna the basic sources of Islamic law and using examples of the built environment of early Muslims in North Africa the Middle East Europe and Central Asia the author explains how following these ideals can create an urban environment that responds to social and environmental variables Islamic views on the controversial issue of modernisation are also examined This book will be of interest to people in the fields of urban planning architecture sociology anthropology housing and built environment as well as Islamic studies

The Urban Design Reader Michael Larice, Elizabeth Macdonald, 2013-05-07 The second edition of The Urban Design Reader draws together the very best of classic and contemporary writings to illuminate and expand the theory and practice of urban design Nearly 50 generous selections include seminal contributions from Howard Le Corbusier Lynch and Jacobs to more recent writings by Waldheim Koolhaas and Sorkin Following the widespread success of the first edition of The Urban Design Reader this updated edition continues to provide the most important historical material of the urban design field but also introduces new topics and selections that address the myriad challenges facing designers today The six part structure of the second edition guides the reader through the history theory and practice of urban design The reader is initially introduced to those classic writings that provide the historical precedents for city making into the twentieth century Part Two introduces the voices and ideas that were instrumental in establishing the foundations of the urban design field from the late 1950s up to the mid 1990s These authors present a critical reading of the design professions and offer an alternative urban design agenda focused on vital and lively places The authors in Part Three provide a range of urban design rationales and strategies for reinforcing local physical identity and the creation of memorable places These selections are largely describing the outcomes of mid century urban design and voicing concerns over the placeless quality of contemporary urbanism The fourth part of the Reader explores key issues in urban design and development Ideas about sprawl density community health public space and everyday life are the primary focus here Several new selections in this part of the book also highlight important international development trends in the Middle East and China Part Five presents environmental challenges faced by the built environment professions today including recent material on landscape urbanism sustainability and urban resiliency The final part examines professional practice and current debates in the field where urban designers work what they do their roles their fields of knowledge and their educational development The section concludes with several position pieces and debates on the future of urban design practice This book provides an essential resource for students and practitioners of urban design drawing together important but widely dispersed writings Part and section introductions are provided to assist readers in understanding the context of the material summary messages impacts of the writing and how they fit into the larger picture of the urban design field

Urban and Architectural Heritage Conservation within Sustainability Dr. Kabila Hmood, 2019-07-03 Urban and Architectural Heritage within Sustainability is interested in the cities of the future which must tie together the past present and future through an advanced connective chain that meets all humans requirements in any era This book attempts to answer many questions such as what is urban conservation How do cities of historical depth deal with modern planning policies and our conservation policies rehabilitation restoration and preservation of historical cities and heritage buildings How can we explain sustainable heritage and sustainability Comprised of four sections this book includes six chapters by noted experts and researchers Section 1 covers heritage conservation and rehabilitation of architectural and urban heritage Section 2 investigates current retrofitting strategies and interventions in heritage buildings through the viewpoint of energy efficiency Section 3 redefines what identity is and explores how new places and spaces offer an eyrie of cultural values And Section 4 establishes heritage significant values and assesses sustainable heritage conservation options Urban Form and Life in Tripoli, Libya Adel Remali, Huyam Abudib, 2022-10-14 This book charts the city of Tripoli's rapid economic environmental and physical transformation investigating how these new developments have failed to incorporate the cultural and historic values of the urban fabric As a result the city is juxtaposed between traditional and modern urban forms Urban Form and Life in Tripoli Libya Maintaining Cultural Heritage seeks to address this imbalance and argues for greater understanding of local culture and heritage and how this can be enhanced and preserved in future city developments It explores the challenges of enabling growth and development to accommodate an increasing population and their changing requirements whilst sustaining the unique cultural and individual characteristics of place It traces the evolution of urban form and evaluates street quality and life within the city centre of Tripoli which represents one of the most central valued and iconic environments in Libya It interprets the early urban structure covering the traditional old town and the colonial urban developments which includes the Italian Quarter and the Garden City Through the case study city the book presents a wider approach for understanding how design can be informed by a deeper knowledge of the structural mechanisms of evolution and change in built form It will appeal to academics researchers and students interested in urban history Islamic architecture and cultural studies New Islamic Urbanism Stefan Maneval, 2019-12-04 Since the dawn of the oil era cities in Saudi Arabia have witnessed rapid growth and profound societal changes As a response to foreign architectural solutions and the increasing popularity of Western lifestyles a distinct style of architecture and urban planning has emerged Characterised by an emphasis on privacy expressed through high enclosures gates blinds and tinted windows New Islamic Urbanism constitutes for some an important element of piety For others it enables alternative ways of life indulgence in banned social practices and the formation of both publics and counterpublics Tracing the emergence of New Islamic Urbanism this book sheds light on the changing conceptions of public and private space in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries in the Saudi city of Jeddah It challenges the widespread assumption that the public sphere is exclusively male in Muslim contexts such as Saudi Arabia where women s public visibility is limited by the veil and strict rules of gender segregation Showing that the rigid segregation regime for which the country is known serves to constrain the movements of men and women alike Stefan Maneval provides a nuanced account of the negotiation of public and private spaces in Saudi Arabia

Cultural Heritage in the Arabian Peninsula Karen Exell,Trinidad Rico,2016-04-22 Heritage projects in the Arabian Peninsula are developing rapidly Museums and heritage sites are symbols of shifting national identities and a way of placing the Arabian Peninsula states on the international map Global i e Western heritage standards and practices have been utilised for the rapid injection of heritage expertise in museum development and site management and for international recognition The use of Western heritage models in the Arabian Peninsula inspires two key areas for research which this book examines the obscuring of indigenous concepts and practices of heritage and expressions of cultural identity and the tensions between local community concepts of heritage and identity and the new national identities being constructed through museums and heritage sites at a state level

Strategic Rebuilding and Affordable Housing in the Muslim World Akel Ismail Kahera,Sultan Barakat,Suzanne Ghadanfar,2025-03-24 To tackle the paucity of adequate housing in the Muslim World Strategic Rebuilding and Affordable Housing in the Muslim World brings together a cohort of essays that deal with the the latest approaches policy discussions attendant research methodologies and recommendations The volume s multidisciplinary contributors academics practitioners architects planners researchers urbanists economists offer valuable insights and critical analysis on strategic rebuilding of affordable and adequate housing as well as the continuous improvement of living conditions Each chapter broadens our understanding of the house as a source of stability and security for individuals or families because one s house is the center of emotional life with its ability to provide serenity safety and self worth Therefore weaving the many aspects of this argument together the contributors of this volume purport a point of view that is carefully well thought out to expand the focus from just addressing individual and family needs to looking at the wider community benefits Furthermore adequate housing will increasingly become the focus of re settlement urban renewal and re investment primarily to deal with the homeless conditions that already exist the influx of refugees and internally displaced people IDP s as the result of natural disasters earthquakes and floods and the collateral damage caused by war

Architecture Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs explores Rafiq Hariri's patronage and his posthumous legacy to demonstrate how religious architecture becomes a site for power struggles in contemporary Beirut By tracing the 150 year long history of the Muhammad al Amin Mosque Lebanon's principal Sunni mosque and the subsequent development of the site as a commemoration venue this account offers a unique illustration of how architecture religion and power become discursively and visually entangled Set in a multi confessional society marked by social inequalities and political fragmentation this interdisciplinary study analyses how architectural practice and urban reconfigurations reveal a nascent personality cult communal mourning and the consolidation of political territory in relation to constantly shifting circumstances Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H. Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books
