True Devotion In Search Of Authentic Spirituality:

True Devotion Allan Chapple, 2014-12-01 This book is about how God's Word shapes and rules our devotion to him. What is the best way of talking about this Spirituality is what many people call it but this is not the ideal word. It can mean a great many things, some of them very far removed from anything the Bible teaches. Piety is another possibility but this is sometimes used in a rather negative way. Preferable is Devotion. When we speak of a couple being devoted to each other we mean that their relationship is strong, loyal and loving, which is how we should relate to God. All three words are used in this book. In each case it is talking about how we relate to God, that is how we express and exercise personal relationship with him. The aim is to examine what the Bible teaches about knowing God and living with him. Why True Devotion? For two reasons we must be truly devoted to God; our relationship with him must be real and deep and we must be devoted to him truly; our devotion must be grounded in and governed by the truth by the teaching of the Bible. This book draws on both the Scriptures and the writings of Christians of the past. Part 1 unpacks Gospel Spirituality as responsive, paradoxical and relational. Part 2 critiques The Mystical Way, discussing experience of God and his voice, prayer, the inward journey and the testimony of mystics and reformers. Part 3 looks for The Way Ahead, focussing on meditation and concluding with a call to a Christ-centred responsive spirituality. ALLAN CHAPPLE is senior lecturer in New Testament at Trinity Theological College, Perth, WA. He has pastored churches in Western Australia and England and was founding Director of the Perth Centre for Applied Christian Studies, then founding Principal of Trinity Theological College.

A Perfect Redeemer William Perkins, 2024-08-01 William Perkins explains how to find true satisfaction by resting in Christ's sufficiency. This book is part of the Puritan Treasures for Today Series.

The Search for Authentic Spirituality in Modern Russian Philosophy Tat'iana ĬUr'evna Kochetkova, 2007 This book offers an original look at the developing quest for self-realization that inspired the Russian Cultural Renaissance at the turn of the twentieth century, also called the Silver Age, from its origins in Vladimir Solov'ev's theory of Divine Humanity to its present-day manifestations. This work should appeal to scholars interested in Russian Orthodoxy, Russian philosophy, contemporary philosophy and religious studies. Cultural Renaissance at the turn of the twentieth century, also called the Silver Age, from its fin de siècle inception until the present day. Following the historical periods under consideration, the study breaks into three parts: the first is concerned with the quest for transcendence in Vladimir Solov'ev's theory of Divine Humanity; the second considers the way in which Solov'ev's Silver Age philosophical and poetic followers utilized and developed his ideas about self-realization; finally, the third considers contemporary discussions regarding the possibility of transcendence and self-realization. This book goes beyond mere historical philosophical curiosity; it is an attempt to understand the idea of self-realization in a global context.
