Truth And Method Bloomsbury Revelations:

Truth and Method Hans-Georg Gadamer, 2013-11-05 Truth and Method is a landmark work of 20th century thought which established Hans Georg Gadamer as one of the most important philosophical voices of the 20th Century In this book Gadamer established the field of philosophical hermeneutics exploring the nature of knowledge the book rejected traditional quasi scientific approaches to establishing cultural meaning that were prevalent after the war In arguing the truth and method acted in opposition to each other Gadamer examined the ways in which historical and cultural circumstance fundamentally influenced human understanding It was an approach that would become hugely influential in the humanities and social sciences and remains so to this day in the work of Jurgen Habermas and many others Matthew's Account of the Massacre of the Innocents in Light of its Reception History Sung J. Cho, 2021-10-21 Sung Cho addresses the seeming contradiction of Herod the Great's massacre in Matthew 2 16 18 questioning why such a tragedy had to occur why it was included in the good news of Jesus and what connection it has to ancient prophecies In creating a reception history of the Massacre of the Innocents Cho progresses through two millennia worth of interpretation and depiction to highlight key works for discussion Beginning with a close reading of Matthew 2 16 18 Cho moves to analyse depictions of the tragedy in the Early Patristic Tradition from the sixth century to the early modern period and thus to the present day complete with an examination of visual interpretations of the massacre Cho's examination provides a positive step to understanding the depths of human suffering with the help of many diverse perspectives

The Roots and Uses of Marketing Knowledge Terry Smith, 2020-01-20 Marketing theory is often developed in isolation not collaboration theoretical perspectives sometimes are ignorant of the diversity of marketing practice In The roots and uses of marketing knowledge a critical inquiry into the theory and practice of marketing the author engages with the vital conversation about how marketing knowledge is created disseminated and consumed looking beyond the traditional reification of practice in theory and verification of theory in practice The ontology of this work is anchored in subjective individual meaning the epistemological stance assumes that this meaning is socially constructed Consequently rich empirical data grounded in the context of experiential evidence is extracted from a comprehensive range of marketing constituencies academics practitioners managers consultants authors lecturers and students In its examination of the polarities hybridity and iterative flow of marketing knowledge creation and consumption this text posits a cohesive argument for a theory practice bipartite fusion not dichotomy adding valuable insights into the textual contextual and pedagogical representations of marketing knowledge The history and future of marketing knowledge is examined with the aid of instructive illustrations and insightful first hand experience Drawing on extensive qualitative research from a broad range of influential producers and vital consumers Dr Smith presents a relevant exciting marketing knowledge framework which will be a vital resource for academics students and practitioners Event Religion and European Festival Experience Sára E. Heidl, 2025-11-14 This book contributes to empirical research on festivals and presents a model of event religion for interpreting festival experiences from a religious studies perspective It features a comparison of three Hungarian case studies with different backgrounds a mindfulness festival a Catholic event and a rock metal music festival The author suggests that examining event experiences along the four dimensions of spatiotemporality symbols community and inward experience provides a conceptual framework for understanding contemporary alternative religious beliefs behaviours and experiences She also utilises religionesque as an umbrella term for the various concepts that describe religion related experiences and approaches The book will be of interest to scholars of religion sociology anthropology and others with a focus on events and festivals A World Scientific Encyclopedia Of Business

Storytelling, Set 2: Methodologies And Big Data Analysis Of Business Storytelling (In 5 Volumes) , 2023-10-13 This set of multi reference works is meant to be read together as the five volumes interlace one another like the laces of a shoe in the famous painting by Vincent van Gogh The question of who will wear the shoes is long debated in art history and philosophy If we take these five volumes from different points of view on the theory and practice of business storytelling then we have a crisscrossing a new and impressive dialogue for the reader This set is presented as a new way to lace up the laces of business storytelling Volume 1 aims to help and inspire leaders business owners and researchers in creating a commitment to ethical and sustainable changes and ideas and live in a world of high complexity without getting stressed but experiencing freedom instead The book combines tools case studies and theories about the ethical change management method of True Storytelling and other perspectives and views on ethics and storytelling It delves into important topics such as true storytelling sustainability and freedom storytelling and start ups in the health industry storytelling and diversity and culture storytelling and teams storytelling sustainability and the UN Goals storytelling and well being storytelling in higher education and storytelling and fundraising Book authors are experienced and successful researchers business owners leaders and consultants from Scandinavia the USA Africa and Europe Volume 2 is an endeavor into the creation of new concepts for engaging with sustainability It maintains that storytelling is important for our emplacement in nature and can be important for enacting another relationship between nature and the cultural artifice our social and material constructions of houses cities villages harbors streets and railways and our use of objects and artifacts to construct our lives Business storytelling communication is that space for social symbolic work that brings the symbolic objects of the organization the human and the natural environment into a dialogical relationship Volume 3 posits that organizations are arranged as social symbols that are arranged in institutions based on the needs of organics for example health food shelter mating leisure and labor Organics as a social symbolic object specifically humans have emotions language and culture to organize their institutions and organizations In this book readers will find that many of the authors attempt to understand the body's exclusion or attempt to bring the body back into the organization Business storytelling communication takes aim at the social symbolic work of making space to negotiate the social arrangement of organizations with its organic components Volume 4 covers a variety of methodological topics from a storytelling perspective Why a storytelling perspective Consider that a common business research goal is to convince others that what the researcher has to say matters If the researcher is a basic researcher who wishes to promote a theory the goal is to make a convincing case for the value of that theory If the researcher is an applied researcher who wishes to promote a particular application intervention or policy change the goal is likewise to make a convincing case Either way the researcher has a story to tell and the onus is on the researcher to tell the best possible story storytelling failures likely will result in a failure to convince others of the value of one's theory or application Here is where methodological issues come into play Poor methodology whether in the form of less than optimal study designs or invalid statistical analyses harms story quality In contrast high quality methods and statistics enhance story quality Moreover the larger one's methodological and statistical toolbox the greater the opportunities for researchers to tell effective stories The chapters in this book come from a wide variety of perspectives and should enhance researchers' storytelling in the following ways By opening many different methodological and statistical perspectives researchers should be more able to think of research stories that otherwise would remain unavailable or inaccessible Secondly the present chapters should aid researchers in better executing their research stories Therefore researchers and graduate students will find this book an invaluable resource Volume 5 opens a window into the world of quantum storytelling as an organizational research methodology providing numerous exemplars of work in this storytelling science that has disrupted qualitative inquiry only with the intention of providing expanded improved and generative ways of understanding and knowing the narratives that emerge from qualitative interviews and observations during organizational research studies

Paul Ricœur, Philosophical Hermeneutics, and the Question of Revelation Christina M. Gschwandtner, 2024-01-08 The topic of revelation is fundamental to any account of religious experience playing a special role in the Judeo-Christian tradition where the texts of Scripture are regarded as revealed Yet any reflection on the revealed status of a given message or text requires interpretation Paul Ricoeur one of the most important hermeneutic philosophers of the twentieth century provides crucial insights on how such interpretation might proceed and what it might mean for texts to be revealed Edited by Christina M. Gschwandtner Paul Ricoeur Philosophical Hermeneutics and the Question of Revelation brings together major scholars of Ricoeur's work on the topic of revelation showing both the role it already plays in his work and how his thinking might be taken further Several contributors trace the development of his thought in regard to the concept of revelation Others discuss the revelatory dimensions of Ricoeur's hermeneutics of the self especially for such issues as identity trauma and forgiveness Several contributions also place his work in conversation with that of other seminal thinkers on the topic of revelation such as Karl Barth and Paul Tillich

Political Perversion Joshua Gunn, 2020-09-04 When Trump became president much of the country was repelled by what they saw as the vulgar spectacle of his ascent a perversion of the highest office in the land In his bold innovative book Political Perversion rhetorician Joshua Gunn argues that this mean spirited turn in American politics of which Trump is the paragon is best understood as a structural perversion in our common culture on a continuum with infantile and gotcha forms of entertainment meant to engender provocation and sadistic enjoyment Drawing on insights from critical theory media ecology and psychoanalysis Gunn argues that perverse rhetorics dominate not only the political sphere but also our daily interactions with others in person and online From sexting to campaign rhetoric Gunn advances a new way to interpret our contemporary political context that explains why so many of us have difficulty deciphering the appeal of aberrant public figures In this book Trump is only the tip of a sinister rapidly growing iceberg one to which we ourselves unwittingly contribute on a daily basis

The Gospel as Manuscript Chris Keith, 2020-03-20 But the Bible says is a common enough refrain in many conversations about Christianity The written verses of the four canonical Gospels are sometimes volleyed back and forth and taken as fact while the apocryphal and oral accounts of the life of Jesus are taken as mere oddities Early thinkers inside and outside the community of Jesus followers similarly described a contentious relationship between the oral and the written though they often focused on the challenges of trusting the written word over the spoken Socrates described the written word an illegitimate bastard compared to the spoken word of a teacher Nevertheless the written accounts of the Jesus tradition in the Gospels have taken a far superior position in the Christian faith to any oral tradition In The Gospel as Manuscript Chris Keith offers a new material history of the Jesus tradition s journey from voice to page showing that the introduction of manuscripts played an underappreciated but crucial role in the reception history of the gospel From the textualization of Mark in the first century CE until the eventual usage of liturgical readings as a marker of authoritative status in the second and third centuries early followers of Jesus placed the gospel as manuscript on display by drawing attention to the written nature of their tradition Many authors of Gospels saw themselves in competition with other evangelists working to establish their texts as the quintessential Gospel Reading the texts aloud in liturgical settings and further established the literary tradition in material culture Revealing a vibrant period of competitive development of the Jesus tradition wherein the material status of the tradition frequently played as important a role as the ideas that it contained Keith offers a thorough consideration of the competitive textualization and public reading of the Gospels

Scripture, Texts, and Tracings in 1 Corinthians Linda L. Belleville, B. J. Oropeza, 2019-07-17 This book advances the interpretation of 1 Corinthians by exploring the ways the apostle Paul quoted or echoed Jewish scriptures more indirectly in his letter Identification of allusions are brought to the fore as are questions of the texture of Paul's theology and his understanding of scripture Important topics in 1 Corinthians addressed here include Paul's use of the Law monotheism Christology wisdom and mystery language punishment of the incestuous man baptism for the dead eschatology and resurrection

Character Theology Tom Steffen, Ray Neu, 2024-02-21 Character Theology provides a natural universal way for the world to engage God through his chosen cast of characters As the media eras continue to change oral to print to digital virtual too many Bible scholars and consequently pastors and Bible teachers in the West and beyond lack capability to effectively communicate Scripture to Millennials Gen Z and Gen Alpha These generations find little if any relevance in the Christianity promoted by those stuck in modernity's sticky abstract systematic theology Character Theology relates sticks and transforms these generations Why Because people grasp and engage God most naturally and precisely through his interaction with biblical characters and their interaction with each other Characters communicate the Creator's characteristics The roadmap to the recovery and expansion of Christianity in the twenty first century will be through Bible characters

Inhabitation Gry Worre Hallberg, 2024-09-05 This innovative new book contributes greatly to important emerging and interdisciplinary fields of research within performance studies such as the problems of art and activism spectator engagement artistic research and an ecology of aesthetic attention and perception The author combines artistic practice and scholarly engagement with critical theory which contributes to the research environment for both researchers and practitioners in the arts This book moves beyond the former art and performance participatory paradigm into a new one which the author conceptualizes as Inhabitation Inhabitational art works move beyond both spectatorship and temporary participation and invite the audience participant to live inside the artwork It also introduces the notion of democratizing the aesthetic as a new artistic and didactic strategy carving the path towards more sustainable futures through the stimulation of ecologic connectedness unfolding in highly sensuous sensory evoking spaces

Trusting in Higher Education Paul Gibbs, Peter Maassen, 2022-02-07 This multidisciplinary book brings together scholars from Norway and the UK to discuss the notion of trust within the structures and forms of higher education located in two distinctive localities The meaning of trust is multi variant and nuanced but is omnipresent in the literature on higher education ranging from student engagement to policy exhortations A key feature of this book is the effort to integrate the term trust conceptually functionally and phenomenological more generally as well as within the context of higher education Practice from within Norway and the UK is used to illustrate and expose relevant similarities and varieties in trust and the possible lack of it within the sector The book thus faces the complexity of trust and its distinctive manifestation through a number of analytical lenses and realities

An Architecture of Place Randall S. Lindstrom, 2024-06-25 Challenging mainstream architecture's understandings of place this book offers an illuminating clarification that allows the idea's centrality in all aspects of everyday design thinking to be rediscovered or considered for the first time Rigorous but not dense practical but not trivialising the book unfolds on three fronts First it clearly frames the pertinent aspects of topology the philosophy of place importantly differentiating two concepts that architecture regularly conflates place and space Second it rejects the ubiquitous notion that architecture makes place and instead reasons that place is what makes architecture and the built environment possible that place calls for and to architecture and that architecture is thus invited to listen and respond Finally it turns to the matter of designing responses that result not just in more places of architecture demanding little of design nor merely in architecture with some sense of place demanding little more but rising above those responses that constitute an architecture of place demanding the greatest vigilance but offering the utmost freedom Opening up a term regarded as so common that its meaning is seldom considered the author reveals the actual depth and richness of place its innateness to architecture and its essentiality to practitioners clients educators and students including those in all spatial disciplines

You Never Step into the Same Pulpit Twice Ronald J. Allen, 2022-06-23 This volume develops an approach to preaching that brings together two important forces One is process theology and the other is a homiletic of conversation based on mutual critical correlation In this approach the preacher does not unilaterally announce the Word of God but is the leader of an exciting conversation involving the biblical text process theology the congregation and voices from the larger world The preacher seeks to help the congregation identify God's invitations towards inclusive well being and to imagine how to respond in ways that are consistent with those invitations that promote inclusive well being The book begins with a crisp and clear summary of the worldview of process theology highlighting its distinctive views on how God operates in the world through invitation and on the interrelationship of all things The work then outlines an approach to biblical exegesis informed by process perspectives and sketches a method for bringing the biblical voice into dialogue with voices from tradition contemporary theology and the congregation and preacher The volume suggests shaping the sermon to honor process theology and conversation The volume concludes by noticing how perspectives from process and conversation help the preacher embody the sermon in engaging ways

Liturgy, Theurgy, and Active Participation Kjetil Kringlebotten, 2023-09-08 Providing a metaphysical grounding for liturgical participation this book argues that active participation in the liturgy must be understood principally as our participation in God's act particularly in the act of Christ and only secondarily as our ritual involvement Utilizing Neoplatonist philosophy Kjetil Kringlebotten proposes that this should be understood in terms of theurgy which is the human participation in divine action which finds its consummation in the incarnation of Christ Without the incarnation all acts will remain extrinsic and imposed but acts can become real and intrinsic precisely because the incarnation makes possible true union with the divine a metaphysical union in distinction without confusion because this union is not extrinsic Through union with Christ as the one common focus of the divine human relation we can have true union with God and may offer true worship In order to make sense of active participation then we need to understand theology in theurgic terms where theurgy is understood not as a mechanical coercion of God but as a participation in His act in creation and through Christ as the true theurgist the master theurgist Whose work transforms our act and the liturgy
