Tuhami Portrait Of A Moroccan:

Tuhami Vincent Crapanzano,1980 Tuhami is an illiterate Moroccan tilemaker who believes himself married to a camel footed she demon A master of magic and a superb story teller Tuhami lives in a dank windowless hovel near the kiln where he works Nightly he suffers visitations from the demons and saints who haunt his life and he seeks with crippling ambivalence liberation from A isha Qandisha the she demon In a sensitive and bold experiment in interpretive ethnography Crapanzano presents Tuhami s bizarre account of himself and his world In so doing Crapanzano draws on phenomenology psychoanalysis and symbolism to reflect upon the nature of reality and truth and to probe the limits of anthropology itself Tuhami has become one of the most important and widely cited representatives of a new understanding of the whole discipline of anthropology Tuhami Vincent Crapanzano,1986 Tuhami ,1985 Remembering Nayeche and the Gray Bull Engiro Mustafa Kemal Mirzeler,2014-01-01 Since the 1990s Mirzeler has travelled to East Africa to apprentice with storytellers Remembering Nayeche and the Gray Bull Engiro is both an account of his experience listening to these storytellers and of how oral tradition continues to evolve in the modern world Channeling Moroccanness Becky L. Schulthies,2020-12-01 Honorable Mention 2022 L Carl Brown AIMS Book Prize in North African Studies What does it mean to connect as a people through mass media This book approaches that question by exploring how Moroccans engage communicative failure as they seek to shape social and political relations in urban Fez Over the last decade laments of language and media failure in Fez have focused not just on social relations that used to be and have been lost but also on what ought to be and had yet to be realized Such laments have transpired in a range of communication channels from objects such as devotional prayer beads and remote controls to interactional forms such as storytelling dress styles and orthography to media platforms like television news religious stations or WhatsApp group chats Channeling Moroccanness examines these laments as ways of speaking that created Moroccanness the feeling of participating in the ongoing formations of Moroccan relationality Rather than furthering the discourse about Morocco s conflict between liberal secularists and religious conservatives this ethnography shows the subtle range of ideologies and practices evoked in Fassi homes to calibrate Moroccan sociality and political consciousness The Sacred and Its Scholars Thomas A. Idinopulos,Edward A. Yonan,1996 This volume of essays is devoted to a careful examination of the importance of methodology in the study of primary religious data The essays focus on the Sacred as an ultimate object of descriptive analysis and critical scrutiny on the part of a select number of North American and European methodologists in the study and teaching of the history of religions and its allied disciplines The central question to which the contributors respond are these What is the Sacred Is it a being or a concept of a being is it a mental state or an objective reality or something else entirely Can the Sacred be described as an empirical fact or as a formal rule for religious inquiry If the Sacred is a valid category in the study and teaching of religion then what can be said about the antithesis of the sacred namely the profane or the secular This volume probes these questions with great care in order to justify a number of ways the Sacred can be construed as an indispensable notion for the study and teaching of religion

Dialogue as a Trans-disciplinary Concept Paul Mendes-Flohr, 2015-06-16 This volume of essays constitutes a critical evaluation of Martin Buber's concept of dialogue as a trans disciplinary hermeneutic method So conceived dialogue has two distinct but ultimately convergent vectors The first is directed to the subject of one's investigation one is to listen to the voice of the Other and to suspend all predetermined categories and notions that one may have of the Other dialogue is first and foremost the art of unmediated listening One must allow the voice of the Other to question one's pre established positions fortified by professional emotional intellectual and ideological commitments Dialogue is also to be conducted between various disciplinary perspectives despite the regnant tendency to academic specialization In recent decades an increasing number of scholars have come to share Buber's position to foster cross disciplinary conversation if but to garner as Max Weber argued useful questions upon which he would not so easily hit upon from his own specialized point of view Accordingly the objective of this volume is to explore the reception of Buber's philosophy of dialogue in some of the disciplines that fell within the purview of his own writings Anthropology Hasidism Religious Studies Psychology and Psychiatry

Stuck Moving Peter Benson, 2023-04-11 AUTHOR'S NOTE This book is unconventional A self conscious experiment in form that draws together two vernaculars anthropological thought and the pop culture of my youth It is a fraught exercise I write as a White guy about angst and alienation in the privileged spaces of anthropology and higher education I appreciate the irony I hope nonetheless that my experiences with and critical perspectives on social conventions the culture of liberalism and ableism in academia might be useful I seek to expand possibilities of anthropological representation while challenging epistemological aesthetic and professional norms in my discipline It bothers me that anthropology can be so sanctimonious I take aim at the ableist conceit that anthropologists are non characters studying a messy world Much of my life has been a mess My work has been undertaken amid struggles with pregnancy loss bipolar disorder and drug addiction I have deep regrets about my participation in an exploitative field I have deep regrets about many things I have hurt people and been hurt by people I hope my stories and reflections add to what others have already written about a more open honest and self deprecating anthropology
