Foundation and Application of Moral Philosophy Hendrik Opdebeeck, 2000 Paul Ricoeur 1913 prominent French philosopher is one of the most versatile thinkers of our time Moreover he is known to be an extremely gifted lecturer who is able to set forth ethical issues very lucidly His erudition and profundity are also evident in the two texts that are central to this book i e The Problem of the Foundation of Moral Philosophy and Can Forgiveness Heal These lectures constitute a remarkable effort on the part of Ricoeur to find an original and more radical foundation of ethics than can be expressed in any law He demonstrates quite convincingly why the law is not the primary category of ethics He further deals with the question of what might be the evangelical orientation of ethics Finally he sheds light on the specific role of forgiveness The two lectures by Ricoeur which have been translated here from French into English and to which an introduction and three multi disciplinary commentaries have been added not only elucidate a fundamental question in the field of ethics but in a more general sense they are also fine examples of philosophical reasoning The Ethics and Religious Philosophy of Etty

philosophical traditions Strawser investigates questions in the philosophy of love together with Spinoza and thinkers such as Saadia Gaon Maimonides Leone Ebreo Tullia d Aragona and Ren Descartes He shows how Spinoza deepens our understanding of amorous perfectionism and how this reading of Spinoza s philosophy of love serves as both a corrective to problematic readings such as those found in Isaac Bashevis Singer and Emmanuel Levinas and a counter to speciesism With careful examination of Spinoza s writings Strawser demonstrates that the goal of his philosophy is best understood as the love of other people who are to be helped and united with in friendship Ultimately Spinoza s philosophy of love calls for collective nobility

Mystical Theology and Continental Philosophy David Lewin, Simon D. Podmore, Duane Williams, 2017-05-18 Exploration of the interface between mystical theology and continental philosophy is a defining feature of the current intellectual and even devotional climate But to what extent and in what depth are these disciplines actually speaking to one another or even speaking about the same phenomena This book draws together original contributions by leading and emerging international scholars delineating emerging debates in this growing and dynamic field of research and spanning mystical and philosophical traditions from the ancient to the medieval modern and contemporary At the heart of which lies Meister Eckhart perhaps the single most influential Christian mystic for modern times The book is organised around significant historical and contemporary figures who speak across the intersections of philosophy and theology offering new insights into key interlocutors such as Pseudo Dionysius Augustine Isaac Luria Eckhart Hegel Heidegger Marion Kierkegaard Deleuze Laruelle and i ek Designed both to contribute to current trends in mystical theology and philosophy and elicit dialogue and debate from further afield this book speaks within an emerging space exploring the retrieval of the mystical within a post secular context

Past, Present, and Future Possibilities for Philosophy and History of Education Stefan Ramaekers, Naomi Hodgson, 2018-08-17 On the occasion of the retirement of Paul Smeyers this book considers the state and status of the philosophy and history of education today Over the last 20 years the conditions in which research takes place have changed considerably They have done so in ways that are often less than favourable to disciplines such as history and philosophy of education and the space and time for the practices that constitute these disciplines of reading of writing of collegiality is increasingly under pressure During this time the Research Community on the History and Philosophy of Educational Research has convened annually to bring its critical lenses to bear on these emergent conditions and to suggest ways that educational research might or ought to be done otherwise As co founder and co convenor of the Research Community this volume explores and recounts Paul Smeyers development of Wittgensteinian scholarship and its legacy in education his formative role in the development of philosophy of education as an international field his many international collaborations the useless educational philosophical deepening of concepts and the wider educational philosophical import of this This gives rise to consideration of the failure of these fields to halt the changes in the governance and status of the university that threatens them and those practices that remain and that are emerging in academia that we wish to protect to pass on to the next generation of researchers in these fields A Theory of Political Poverty Elia R.G.

Pusterla, Francesca Pusterla Piccin, 2025-10-09 This book presents an innovative and thought provoking argument regarding the foundations of politics and its ethical implications exploring the difference between what politics is and or can be and what it is not and or cannot be It distinguishes between two fundamental forms of political poverty namely ontological poverty and theoretical poverty Ontological poverty depicts the negative foundation upon which the political relies an absence that paradoxically underpins the political existence In contrast theoretical poverty emerges when this ontological datum is self delusively denied by politics itself leading to the loss of political properties of politics or political poverty and the resulting dehumanisation of the political subject Drawing on Aristotelian logic the volume discloses the aporetic condition of political ontology deploying phenomenological inquiry through deconstruction Through close readings of Kafka Agamben Derrida Levinas and Schmitt among others it maps the porous threshold between the political and the non political illuminating how this tension between being and becoming is conditional to politics itself and simultaneously the site of its potential impoverishment In this context theoretical poverty is recognised as the prodromic moment when politics ceases to carry its own name severing its ties to the ethical and ontological relations that sustain it This work makes a significant contribution to contemporary debates in political philosophy political theory political ontology and ethics It will particularly appeal to scholars engaged with continental philosophy and literary theory It opens a new avenue of inquiry into the political foundations by questioning what politics is and what it risks not becoming Philosophy of Mind and Phenomenology

Daniel O. Dahlstrom, Andreas Elpidorou, Walter Hopp, 2015-08-11 This volume identifies and develops how philosophy of mind and phenomenology interact in both conceptual and empirically informed ways The objective is to demonstrate that phenomenology as the first personal study of the contents and structures of our mentality can provide us with insights into the understanding of the mind and can complement strictly analytical or empirically informed approaches to the study of the mind Insofar as phenomenology as the study or science of phenomena allows the mind to appear this collection shows how the mind can reappear through a constructive dialogue between different ways phenomenological analytical and empirical of understanding mentality Phenomenology of Intersubjectivity Nam-In Lee, 2022-05-25 Dieser Band beleuchtet die mannigfaltigen Aspekte von Intersubjektivität und bringt verschiedene Philosophen miteinander in einen fachlichen Dialog Der Autor setzt sich mit den verschiedenen Ebenen und Dimensionen von Husserls Phänomenologie der Intersubjektivität auseinander und vergleicht diese mit Ideen von Scheler Heidegger Merleau Ponty Schutz Buber und Habermas Einen direkten Bezug stellt Nam in Lee zwischen den Positionen von Husserl und Levinas zur Phänomenologie der Intersubjektivität her und bringt sie in einen fruchtbaren Austausch miteinander Darüber hinaus regt der Band auch einen interkulturellen philosophischen Dialog zwischen Philosophen an deren Denken vorrangig westlich beziehungsweise fernöstlich geprägt ist wie etwa Husserl und Konfuzius Scheler und Mencius oder Hutcheson und Chong Yak Yong Philosophy at the Boundary of Reason Patrick L. Bourgeois, 2001-01-01 Frederick Douglass and the Philosophy of Religion Timothy J. Golden, 2021-12-06 Frederick Douglass and the Philosophy of Religion An Interpretation of Narrative Art and the Political addresses Douglass's narrative method and the reformed epistemology of analytic theism within the context of Incarnational theology Timothy J Golden argues that in this context Douglass's use of narrative maintains a robust moral social and political engagement and thus a closer connection to an authentic Christian theology in a way that analytic theism does not To show this contrast Golden presents existential and phenomenological interpretations of Douglass reading him alongside Kierkegaard Kafka and Levinas Golden concludes the book with reflection on how Douglass's Incarnational theology connects to his future philosophical and theological work which understands consciousness subjectivity as saturated in time understood as history Golden argues that the resulting view of consciousness helps to overcome abstraction in a variety of philosophical subfields including jurisprudence and gender studies Labyrinths of Language Franson Manjali, 2022-10-04 Thirteen essays in the book explore and investigate diverse contemporary philosophically current themes and issues The title is derived from Wittgenstein's statement that language is a labyrinth of paths and it studiously avoids any conclusive claim on its central motif What people both users and theorists do with language rather than what it is is the running theme The book critically presents the views of a wide range of philosophically and analytically oriented authors including de Saussure Levinas Lévi Strauss Wittgenstein Derrida Bakhtin Benjamin Kafka Heidegger Blanchot Jean-Luc Nancy Barthes and Deleuze Only two essays diverge from the main concern with language the one on the discourse of death and another on the philosophy of image One essay involves an analysis of the cultural and political discourse in a contemporary Malayalam novel The concluding essay attempts to develop a postcolonial field of language studies with reference to the works of the 18th century British jurist and linguist Sir William Jones and the subsequent philological tradition whose political consequences are only beginning to be understood
