Handbook of Sustainability in Tourism and Hospitality in Indonesia Putu Diah Sastri Pitanatri, Tourism Development in Post-Soviet Nations

Susan L. Slocum, Valeria Klitsounova, 2020-01-23 Former communist countries face unique issues in developing and marketing tourism businesses, communities and attractions because of centralized policies that discouraged international influences. While Soviet economies relied on state policies to facilitate community development, the success of capitalism lies in access to a variety of resources such as the environment, fiscal services, infrastructure and market knowledge at the local level. Moreover, communal societies potentially possess social capital that can provide unique economic development opportunities. This book incorporates a regional perspective that widens the tourism development debate to include theoretical analyses, applied research and case studies that document the broader successes and challenges that affect tourism stakeholders and addresses the necessary elements that facilitate a comprehensive tourism development strategy in emerging and transitioning former communist countries.
