Tourism Pat 2013 Memorandum:

Nordic Perspectives on the Responsible Development of the Arctic: Pathways to Action Douglas C. Nord, 2020-10-30 This book investigates the multifaceted nature of change in today's Nordic Arctic and the necessary research and policy development required to address the challenges and opportunities currently faced by this region. It focuses its attention on the recent efforts of the Nordic community to create specialized Centers of Excellence in Arctic Research in order to facilitate this process of scientific inquiry and policy articulation. The volume seeks to describe both the steps that lead to this decision and the manner in which this undertaking has evolved. The work highlights the research efforts of the four Centers and their investigations of a variety of issues including those related to ecosystem and wildlife management, the revitalization of resource-dependent communities, the emergence of new climate-born diseases, and the development of adequate modeling techniques to assist northern communities in their efforts at adaptation and resilience building. Major discoveries and insights arising from these and other efforts are detailed, and possible policy implications considered. The book also focuses attention on the challenges of creating and supporting multidisciplinary teams of researchers to investigate such concerns and the methods and means for facilitating their collaboration and the integration of their findings to form new and useful perspectives on the nature of change in the contemporary Arctic. It also provides helpful consideration and examples of how local and indigenous communities can be engaged in the co-production of knowledge regarding the region. The volume discusses how such research findings can be best communicated and shared between scientists, policymakers, and northern residents. It considers the challenges of building common concern not just among different research disciplines but also between bureaucracies and the public. Only when this bridge-building effort is undertaken can true pathways to action be established.

Innovation and Creativity in Tourism, Business and Social Sciences Vicky Katsoni, Carlos Costa, 2025-06-03 This book is the first volume of the proceedings of the 11th International Conference of the International Association of Cultural and Digital Tourism (IACuDiT) Focusing on Innovation and Creativity in Tourism Business and Social Sciences. The conference was held from September 3 to 5, 2024, in Naxos, Greece. The book showcases the latest research on tourism business, technology, and the social sciences and presents a critical academic discourse on ICT adoption in the social sciences, regional development, sustainability, and tourism experience. It covers smart and sustainable practices, innovations in museum interpretation and collections management, emerging and disruptive technologies, gaming, gamification, and augmented reality, and other topical aspects in business and the social sciences. The book discusses these digital transformation processes from various standpoints, including its effect on the social sciences combined with specific forms of tourism. The impact of digitalization encourages the emergence of new digital products and services based on the principle of flexibility. The book focuses on the knowledge economy and the smart destinations concepts and highlights new modes of tourism management and development. While further chapters address emerging technologies such as the Internet of Things, AI, big data, and robotics in a range of tourism practices

Thanatourism and Cinematic Representations of Risk Rodanthi

Tzanelli, 2016-04-14 In today's world the need to eliminate natural and human made disasters has been at the forefront of national and international socio political agendas The management of risks such as terrorism labour strikes protests and environmental degradation has become pivotal for countries that depend on their economy's tourist sector Indeed there is fear that the end of tourism might be nigh due to inadequate institutional foresight Yet in designing relevant policies to tackle this arts such as that of filmmaking have yet to receive due consideration This book adopts an unorthodox approach to debates about the end of tourism Through twenty first century cinematic narratives of symbolically interconnected risks it considers how art envisages the future of humanity's well being These risks include migration as an infectious disease alien incursions as racialized labour mobilities cyborg rebellion as the fear of post colonial otherness and zombie anthropophagy as the replacement of rooted identities by nomadic lifestyles Such filmic scenarios articulate the futuristic survival of community as the triumph of the technological human over otherness and provide a means to debate societal risks that weave identity politics into unequal mobilities This book will appeal to researchers and students interested in mobilities theory tourism and travel theory film studies and aesthetics globalisation studies race labour and migration Strategic Environmental

Assessment and Urban Planning Giovanni Campeol, 2020-07-06 This volume gathers a selection of research contributions on Strategic Environmental Assessment SEA including theoretical and methodological studies and real world case studies It sheds new light on the respective steps in the procedure defined in the SEA Directive from theoretical and operational standpoints intended to enhance the sustainability of plans and programmes adopted by local regional and national authorities Improving the legitimacy and transparency of decision making in the field of environmental management was one of the goals that led the European Commission EU to adopt Directive 2001/42/EC on the assessment of environmental programmes effects This book provides a multidisciplinary approach to SEA and addresses the demand for policies and strategies to strengthen resilience through concrete measures to reduce energy consumption mitigate pollution promote social inclusion and create urban identity The Report: Thailand 2012, 2011 Considering Marijuana Legalization

Jonathan P. Caulkins, Beau Kilmer, Mark A. R. Kleiman, Robert J. MacCoun, Gregory Midgette, Pat Oglesby, Rosalie Liccardo Pacula, Peter H. Reuter, 2015-01-16 Marijuana legalization is a controversial and multifaceted issue that is now the subject of serious debate In May 2014 Vermont Governor Peter Shumlin signed a bill requiring the Secretary of Administration to produce a report about various consequences of legalizing marijuana This resulting report provides a foundation for thinking about the various consequences of different policy options while being explicit about the uncertainties involved

Paradoxes of Neoliberalism Elizabeth Bernstein, Janet R Jakobsen, 2021-12-24 From the rise of far right regimes to the tumult of the COVID 19 pandemic recent years have brought global upheaval as well as the sedimentation of longstanding social inequalities Analyzing the complexities of the current political moment in different geographic regions this book addresses the paradoxical persistence of neoliberal policies and practices in order to ground the pursuit of a more just world. Engaging theories of decoloniality, racial capitalism, queer materialism, and social reproduction, this book demonstrates the centrality of sexual politics to neoliberalism, including both social relations and statecraft. Drawing on ethnographic case studies, the authors show that gender and sexuality may be the site for policies like those pertaining to sex trafficking, which bundle together economics and changes to the structure of the state. In other instances, sexual politics are crucial components of policies on issues ranging from the growth of financial services to migration. Tracing the role of sexual politics across different localities and through different political domains, this book delineates the paradoxical assemblage that makes up contemporary neoliberal hegemony. In addition to exploring contemporary social relations of neoliberal governance, exploitation, domination, and exclusion, the authors also consider gender and sexuality as forces that have shaped myriad forms of community-based activism and resistance, including local efforts to pursue new forms of social change. By tracing neoliberal paradoxes across global sites, the book delineates the multiple dimensions of economic and cultural restructuring that have characterized neoliberal regimes and emergent activist responses to them. This innovative analysis of the relationship between gender justice and political economy will appeal to interdisciplinary scholars in social and cultural studies, legal and political theorists, and the wide range of readers who are concerned with contemporary questions of social justice.

Ecosystem-Based Fisheries Management Jason S. Link, Anthony R. Marshak, 2022-01-25 By examining a suite of over 90 indicators for 9 major US fishery ecosystem jurisdictions, the authors systematically track the progress the country has made towards advancing EBFM and making it an operational reality, lessons which are applicable to oceans globally.

Empire Without End Imaobong Umoren, 2025-10-21 A powerful groundbreaking new history of Britain and the Caribbean, challenging existing thinking about British colonization and recontextualizing the twin stories of contemporary inequality in both regions. In Empire Without End, historian Imaobong Umoren delivers an incisive and captivating exploration of the deep complex ties between Britain and the Caribbean, largely underexamined until now. Spanning from the 16th century to the present, this riveting narrative redefines how we view the Caribbean, not just as a source of labor and resources for the British Empire, but as a dynamic testing ground for social and cultural experimentation. Umoren uncovers how the Caribbean shaped British societal ideals, many of which were exported back to Britain, laying the foundation for a racial caste system that still affects social, political, and economic life today. This deeply researched work goes beyond historical accounts of sugar plantations and slavery; Umoren dives deeper, exploring how religion, global migration, war, grassroots protest, and even tourism all played into the Caribbean's lasting legacy. She boldly connects the dots to modern-day issues, arguing that the shadow of British colonization lingers through neo-colonialism, continuing to shape the lives of Caribbean people. As the world confronts a collective racial reckoning, Empire Without End sheds light on the ongoing fight for reparations and justice, offering a much-needed lens on history's unfinished business. Written with clarity and packed with profound insights, Empire

Without End is a must read for anyone curious about the intertwined histories of Britain the Caribbean and America Joining the ranks of acclaimed historical titles like Black Ghosts of Empire and works by Ta Nehisi Coates this book provides a fresh urgent perspective on empire s enduring impact and the global conversation it demands today Charleston in Black and White Steve Estes,2015-07-10 Once one of the wealthiest cities in America Charleston South Carolina established a society built on the racial hierarchies of slavery and segregation By the 1970s the legal structures behind these racial divisions had broken down and the wealth built upon them faded Like many southern cities Charleston had to construct a new public image In this important book Steve Estes chronicles the rise and fall of black political empowerment and examines the ways Charleston responded to the civil rights movement embracing some changes and resisting others Based on detailed archival research and more than fifty oral history interviews Charleston in Black and White addresses the complex roles played not only by race but also by politics labor relations criminal justice education religion tourism economics and the military in shaping a modern southern city Despite the advances and opportunities that have come to the city since the 1960s Charleston like much of the South has not fully reckoned with its troubled racial past which still influences the present and will continue to shape the future Parliamentary Debates, House of the People India. Barbour,2021-10-01 Undressed Toronto looks at the life of the swimming hole and considers how Toronto turned boys skinny dipping into comforting anti modernist folk figures By digging into the vibrant social life of these spaces Barbour challenges narratives that pollution and industrialization in the nineteenth century destroyed the relationship between Torontonians and their rivers and waterfront Instead we find that these areas were co opted and transformed into recreation spaces often with the acceptance of indulgent city officials While we take the beach for granted today it was a novel form of public space in the nineteenth century and Torontonians had to decide how it would work in their city To create a public beach bathing needed to be transformed from the predominantly nude male privilege that it had been in the mid nineteenth century into an activity that women and men could participate in together That transformation required negotiating and establishing rules for how people would dress and behave when they bathed and setting aside or creating distinct environments for bathing Undressed Toronto challenges assumptions about class the urban environment and the presentation of the naked body It explores anxieties about modernity and masculinity and the weight of nostalgia in public perceptions and municipal regulation of public bathing in five Toronto environments that showcase distinct moments in the transition from vernacular bathing to the public beach the city s central waterfront Toronto Island the Don River the Humber River and Sunnyside Beach on Toronto s western shoreline Lithuania Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA,2013-08

Living the City in Africa Brigit Obrist,Veit Arlt,Elisio Macamo,2013 Research on cities worldwide still takes its cue from cities in Europe and the US which are seen as the standard model However cities in the global South are undergoing a much more rapid transformation including multiple interlinked transitions with Africa featuring the highest urbanization rates world wide Scholars therefore call for a new approach to urban studies which examines cities from a more global comparative perspective This book discusses the new approach which pays added attention to the role that societal creativity plays in processes of urbanization instead of concentrating exclusively on expert driven planning and intervention Especially in fast growing cities with weaker institutional capacity for interventions the interplay between intervention and invention between expert and societal agency becomes more tangible and all the more significant Series Swiss African Studies
