Tourist Experience Contemporary Perspectives Advances In Tourism:

Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, Philip R. Stone, 2010-10-04 To consume tourism is to consume experiences. An understanding of the ways in which tourists experience the places and people they visit is therefore fundamental to the study of the consumption of tourism. Consequently, it is not surprising that attention has long been paid in the tourism literature to particular perspectives on the tourist experience, including demand factors, tourist motivation, typologies of tourists, and issues related to authenticity, commodification, image, and perception. However, as tourism has continued to expand in both scale and scope, and as tourists' needs and expectations have become more diverse and complex in response to transformations in the dynamic socio-cultural world of tourism, so too have tourist experiences. Tourist Experience provides a focused analysis into tourist experiences that reflect their ever-increasing diversity and complexity and their significance and meaning to tourists themselves. Written by leading international scholars, it offers new insights into emergent behaviours, motivations, and sought meanings on the part of tourists based on five contemporary themes determined by current research activity in tourism: experience, dark tourism, experiences, experiencing, poor places, sport tourism, experiences, writing the tourist experience, and researching tourist experiences. Methodological approaches. The book critically explores these experiences from multidisciplinary perspectives and includes case studies from a wide range of geographical regions. By analyzing these contemporary tourist experiences, the book will provide further understanding of the consumption of tourism. Advances in Tourism, Technology and Systems António Abreu, Dália Liberato, Elisa Alén González, Juan Carlos García Ojeda, 2020-11-19 This book features a collection of high quality research papers presented at the International Conference on Tourism Technology Systems ICOTTS 2020 held at the University of Cartagena in Cartagena de Indias, Colombia from 29th to 31st October 2020. The book is divided into two volumes and it covers the areas of technology in tourism and the tourist experience, generations and technology in tourism, digital marketing applied to tourism and travel, mobile technologies applied to sustainable tourism, information technologies in tourism, digital transformation of tourism business, e-tourism and tourism 2.0, big data and management for travel and tourism, geotagging and tourist mobility, smart destinations, robotics in tourism, and information systems and technologies. The Celebration of Death in Contemporary Culture Dina

Khapaeva, 2017-03-06 The Celebration of Death in Contemporary Culture investigates the emergence and meaning of the cult of death. Over the last three decades, Halloween has grown to rival Christmas in its popularity. Dark tourism has emerged as a rapidly expanding industry. Corpse chic and skull style have entered mainstream fashion, while elements of gothic horror, torture, porn, and slasher movies have streamed into more conventional genres. Monsters have become pop culture heroes, vampires, zombies, and serial killers now appeal broadly to audiences of all ages. This book breaks new ground by viewing these phenomena as aspects of a single movement and documenting its development in contemporary Western culture. This book links the mounting demand for images of violent death with dramatic changes in death-related social rituals. It offers a conceptual framework that connects observations of fictional worlds including The Twilight Saga The Vampire Diaries and the Harry Potter series with real world sociocultural practices analyzing the aesthetic intellectual and historical underpinnings of the cult of death It also places the celebration of death in the context of a longstanding critique of humanism and investigates the role played by 20th century French theory posthumanism transhumanism and the animal rights movement in shaping the current antihumanist atmosphere This timely thought provoking book will appeal to scholars of culture film literature anthropology and American and Russian studies as well as general readers seeking to understand a defining phenomenon of our age Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism Honggen Xiao, 2014-06-11 Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism is an innovative and engaging collection which presents unique approaches and critical insights into the policy development and management practices of tourism and hospitality in modern China This volume consists of nine independent research reports overarching the consequences of tourism from economic sociocultural community and humanistic perspectives The book addresses generic issues such as tourism demand mega events leisure tourist experience cultural representation community development and quality of life through tourism as well as strategies and techniques specific to the tourism and hospitality industries Contemporary Perspectives on China Tourism draws on methodological traditions of anthropology business communication and media studies geography linguistics and literature sociology and critical tourism studies Seven of the nine chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue on Methodological Innovations in China Tourism Research of the Journal of China Tourism Research Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, 2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist
