Reading Images and Seeing Words, 2021-11-01 The simultaneously tautological and oxymoronic nature of word image relations has become a subject of massive debate in the post modern period This is not only because of the increasing predominance of word image messages within our modern media saturated culture but also because intellectual disciplines are becoming increasingly sensitized to the essentially hybrid nature of the way we construct meaning in the world The essays in this volume offer an exemplary insight into both aspects of this phenomenon Focussing on both traditional and modern media theatre fiction poetry graphic art cinema the essays of Reading Images and Seeing Words are deeply concerned to show how it is according to signifying codes rhetoric poetics metaphor that meaning and knowledge are produced Not the least value of this collection is the insight it gives into the multiple models of word image interaction and the rich ambiguity of the tautological and oxymoronic relations they embody

Affaires de Famille Marie-Claire Barnet, Edward Welch, 2007 What are families like in contemporary France And what begins to emerge when we consider them from the point of view of recent theoretical perspectives faulty cohesion fake coherence carefully planned or subversive deconstruction loss of love confidence or credibility or even utter chaos and alarming confusion Which media revamp old stereotypes generate alternative reinterpretations and imply more ambiguous answers Uneasy contradictions and ambiguities emerge in this bilingual collection of approaches and genre studies The family plot seems to thicken as family ties appear to loosen Has the family been lost from sight or is it being reinvented in our collective imaginary This book proposes a new series of perspectives and questions on an old and familiar topic exploring the state and status of the family in contemporary literature culture critical and psychoanalytic theory and sociology

Monomania Marina Van Zuylen, 2018-05-31 This book is about the obsessive strategies people use to keep the arbitrary out of their lives it is about the fanaticism and intolerance linked to their ideas of perfection and permanence Those readers who have brushed against the dangers of the id e fixe who have come close to surrendering to something or someone diabolically seductive or coercive will recognize in these characters their own encounter with a dangerously systematized world From the introduction Monomania explores the cultural prominence of the id e fixe in Western Europe during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Marina van Zuylen revives the term monomania to explore the therapeutic attributes of obsession She introduces us to artists and collectors voyeurs and scholars hypochondriacs and melancholics whose lives are run by debilitating compulsions that may become powerful weapons against the tyranny of everyday life In van Zuylen s view there is a productive tension between disabling fixations and their curative powers she argues that the id e fixe has acted as a corrective for the multiple disorders of modernity The authors she studies Charles Baudelaire Sophie Calle Elias Canetti George Eliot Gustave Flaubert and Thomas Mann among them embody or set in motion different manifestations of this monomaniacal imperative Their protagonists or alter egos live more intensely more meaningfully because of the compulsive pressures they set up for themselves Monomania shows that transforming life into art or at least into the artful drives out the anxiety of the void and puts in its place something so orderly and meaningful that it can take on the aura of a religion

Life as Creative Constraint Anna Kemp, 2021-08-15 Life as Creative Constraint is the first book to focus on the extraordinary life writing of the French experimental writing group the Oulipo The Oulipo s enthusiasm for literary games and formal gymnastics has seen its work caricatured as lifeless impressively virtuoso but more interested in form than content and ultimately disengaged from the world This book examines a broad corpus of work by Georges Perec Marcel B nabou Jacques Roubaud and Anne F Garr ta to show that despite the group s early devotion to the radical impersonality of mathematics later generations of oulipians have brought the group s fascination with systems games and constraints to bear on autobiography Far from being lifeless oulipian constraints and concepts provide the tools that allow writers to engage critically and creatively with lived experience and mine the potential of the autobiographical genre The games played by these writers are not simply pastimes or cunning writing techniques but modes of survival self examination self invention and relating to the world and to others As the title of Georges Perec s masterpiece suggests they are a mode d emploi for life
