Free Trade and British Commerce (Classic Reprint) Augustus Mongredien, 2015-07-11 Excerpt from Free Trade and British Commerce This little work which was written in 1879 has enjoyed a wide circulation owing chiefly no doubt to some words of praise from a great orator and to the powerful propagandism of the Cobden Club We are now in 1881 and I have little to add to or to subtract from either the facts or the principles embodied in it I have however carefully revised the present edition and made a few corrections in trifling matters of detail The present position of our trade with the United States of America curiously confirms the doctrines advanced in this little book In August 1879 Mr James Howard the present member for Bedfordshire asked me my opinion as to how the United States had been paid for their large exports to us my reply was as follows 1 The Americans have been buying largely from both England and the Continent of their own Bonds and Stocks and have given prices above the marketable value of them in Europe 2 Normally the United States are exporters of gold they being producers of it About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976 Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1970 Catalogue of Printed Books in the Library of the British Museum ... British Museum.
