Global Trade and Commercial Networks Tijl

Vanneste, 2015-10-06 At the heart of this study on cross cultural trade lies a concrete case study of a network of diamond merchants operating in the early eighteenth century All the traders examined in this study are outsiders an English Catholic in Antwerp Sephardic and Ashkenazi Jews in London and Amsterdam and French Huguenots in Lisbon National Identity and Nineteenth-Century Franco-Belgian Sculpture Jana Wijnsouw, 2017-09-27 This book elaborates on the social and cultural phenomenon of national schools during the nineteenth century via the less studied field of sculpture and using Belgium as a case study The role importance of and emphasis on certain aspects of national identity evolved throughout the century while a diverse array of criteria were indicated by commissioners art critics or artists that supposedly constituted a national sculpture By confronting the role and impact of the four most crucial actors within the artistic field politics education exhibitions public commissions with a linear timeframe this book offers a chronological as well as a thematic approach Artists covered include Guillaume Geefs Eug ne Simonis Charles Van der Stappen Julien Dillens Paul Devigne Constantin Meunier and George Minne At Home in Renaissance Bruges Julie De Groot, 2022-03-29 Domestic materiality in a remarkable European city How did citizens in Bruges create a home What did an ordinary domestic interior look like in the sixteenth century And more importantly how does one study the domestic culture of bygone times by analysing documents such as probate inventories These questions seem straightforward yet few endeavours are more challenging than reconstructing a sixteenth century domestic reality from written sources This book takes full advantage of the inventory and convincingly frames household objects in their original context of use Meticulously connecting objects people and domestic spaces the book introduces the reader to the rich material world of Bruges citizens in the Renaissance their sensory engagement their religious practice the role of women and other social factors By weaving insights from material culture studies with urban history At Home in Renaissance Bruges offers an appealing and holistic mixture of in depth socio economic cultural and material analysis In its approach the book goes beyond heavy handed theories and stereotypes about the exquisite taste of aristocratic elites focusing instead on the domestic materiality of Bruges middling groups Evocatively illustrated with contemporary paintings from Bruges and beyond this monograph shows a nuanced picture of domestic materiality in a remarkable European city Relationality and the Concept of God Henry Jansen, 2025-02-10 Classical theism the dominant tradition in Christian theology has stressed the metaphysical concept of God i e God s ontological transcendence and independence from the world In this century however this concept of God has increasingly met with criticism On the basis of the Bible and new philosophical considerations it is argued that a relational concept of God better answers the fundamental concerns of the Christian faith In this book the author investigates the questions of whether one can conceive of God apart from the metaphysical attributes and whether reflection on the biblical depiction of God leads necessarily to a relational concept of God The author explores the questions by examining the relational concepts of God found in two contemporary German theologians Jürgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg and uses the divine attribute of immutability as a focus for the discussion He argues that the relational concept of God presupposes another metaphysical conception of God which raises problems as serious as those in classical theism and that the Bible itself because of its nature as a narrative text is ambiguous in many respects as far as God is concerned A truly Christian doctrine of God must take both the metaphysical and relational aspects of God into account

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2014-10-30 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyse the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari'a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Queer Jewish Groups in Europe (1972-1990s) Jan Wilkens, 2025-03-31 In the 1970s queer Jews became excited by the developments of the Gay Liberation Movement in both the US and Europe Until then they were not able to express their queerness in Jewish communities and hoped for new inclusive spaces Yet they quickly realized that the movement was not as welcoming as anticipated Thus they started to organize in February 1972 the world's first queer Jewish group became publicly visible in London with its symposium The Jewish Homosexual in Society The Jewish Gay Group began tackling the exclusion of non heteronormative Jews in British Jewish and queer communities Soon after two more queer Jewish groups formed Beit Haverim House of Friends in Paris and Sjalhomo a neologism of shalom and homosexual in Amsterdam Besides their goal of emancipation these groups brought together their members based on shared experiences as both Jewish and queer opening up much needed spaces for social encounters The groups also established a Europe wide support network that enabled international collaboration for more than a decade This study archives these groups histories and that of their network By doing so it broadens prevalent narratives of Europe s post World War II Jewry and queers the discipline of Jewish History Dichter bij God Arjan Plaisier, Ineke Cornet, 2022-07-07 Een inspirerend handboek over de spirituele kracht van liturgie Dichter bij God van Arjan Plaisier en Ineke Cornet is een inspirerend handboek om de liturgie in de kerk nieuw leven in te blazen Steeds meer protestanten zoeken inspiratie in de katholieke en anglicaanse kerk De auteurs van Dichter bij God geloven in de spirituele kracht van de liturgie Een liturgie die ons helpt in de ontmoeting van God met ons en van ons met God Volgens de auteurs heeft het protestantisme een verschraling opgelopen door de nadruk op het oor preken catechese e d Hierdoor is de aandacht voor onze zintuigen vergeten Dit boek doet handreikingen om de kerkdiensten van een nieuwe rijkdom te voorzien
