Traitor John Stratton:

Traitor Duncan Falconer, 2010-06-03 After a surveillance mission in Sevastopol goes badly wrong Stratton finds himself doing penance at MI16 the government's clandestine organisation that creates weapons equipment for special forces and the secret service But Sevastopol has started something In the North Sea a team of hijackers take over the giant Morpheus oil platform They are demanding two billion dollars Inside twenty four hours Or the bodies will start falling With the SBS overstretched and its surveillance team locked down there is only one option Stratton and a team of unproven operatives from MI16 Stratton knows he has to redeem himself and he also has his own agenda One of the men on the rig is an old friend And Stratton intends to save him But one of Stratton's team is not what they appear to be A traitor With a deadly agenda of their own And Morpheus is just the beginning This is the incendiary sixth thriller in the Stratton series by the UK's leading ex SF professional A History of Ireland Thomas Mooney, 1845 Imperial Co-histories Julie F. Codell, 2003

This book explores the creation of imperial identities in Britain and several of its colonies South Africa India Australia Wales and the ways in which the Victorian press around the world shaped and reflected these identities The concept of co histories borrowed from Edward Said and Frantz Fanon helps explain how the press shaped the imperial and national identities of Britain and of the colonies into co histories that were thoroughly intertwined and symbiotic Exploring a variety of press media this book argues that the press was a site of resistance and revision by colonized authors and publishers as well as a force of colonial authority for the British government editors and publishers who projected a view of the empire to their British colonial and colonized readers Topics include The Journal of Indian Art and Industry produced by the British art schools in India women's periodicals Indian writers in the British press The Imperial Gazetteer published in Scotland the rise of telegraphic news agencies the British press's images of China seen through exhibitions of its art the Tory periodical Blackwood's Magazine and the Imperial Press Conference of 1909 University (Pell Records) Devon, 1837 Issues of the Exchequer Frederick Devon, England.
