Badiou and the German Tradition of Philosophy Jan Völker, 2019-02-07 The oeuvre of Alain Badiou has gained international success and recognition but most of the secondary literature focuses on internal problems of Badiou s philosophy rather than its position within a broader philosophical genealogy This book unites philosophers from Germany Slovenia the UK Australia and France to trace the relation between elements of Badiou s philosophy and the German philosophical tradition namely the three significant movements of German Idealism Phenomenology Marxism and the Frankfurt School This is a discussion that has not yet been established although the parallels and decisive differences between poststructuralist French philosophy and German philosophy are apparent Through these paradigms Badiou s reception of German Idealism Marxism Adorno and the Critical Theory and Heideggerian phenomenology the authors shed light onto Badiou s inheritance of and engagement with these specific traditions but also highlight the links between these philosophies to open up new questions for contemporary continental thought With an original chapter from Alain Badiou himself looking back at his influences and antagonisms within the German tradition this book is essential for readers interested in the exploration of Badiou s legacy It illustrates the continuation of poststructuralist philosophy Critical Theory and the Frankfurt School assessing the place of classic continental philosophy to tackle how we might benefit from these intellectual exchanges today

La Négritude Dr Wacyf H Ghali, 2024-08-09 La N gritude An African Social Humanism seeks to tackle accounts of African society particularly sub Saharan Africa from its roots through modern times La N gritude meaning Blackness in French was coined as a term in the 1930s initially as a strategy for political resistance against French colonialism As the resistance matured its namesake developed to refer to being proud to be Black proud of being a Negro the true and correct word for defining an African Black man s ethnicity Instead of being disrespectful the word became meaningful and beautiful in terms of what it portrayed Because of the effects of slavery and colonialism the traditional Negro African society transformed into a modern society so different from the old one that many expressed a loss of identity culturally politically and economically This study attempts to redefine and reidentify sub Saharan Negro African society using the traditional values that existed before or during the era of colonialism

Its goal is to instill a sense of security and unity among the people with the understanding that adding changes from outside Negro Africa could allow positive growth and development without fear of destroying the African character and personality
