Hart, Jay P. Childers, Colene J. Lind, 2013-04-25 It's not what you say but how you say it Solving problems with words is the essence of politics and finding the right words for the moment can make or break a politician's career Yet very little has been said in political science about the elusive element of tone In Political Tone Roderick P. Hart, Jay P. Childers and Colene J. Lind analyze a range of texts from speeches and debates to advertising and print and broadcast campaign coverage using a sophisticated computer program DICTION that parses their content for semantic features like realism commonality and certainty as well as references to religion party or patriotic terms Beginning with a look at how societal forces like diversity and modernity manifest themselves as political tones in the contexts of particular leaders and events the authors proceed to consider how individual leaders have used tone to convey their messages How did Bill Clinton's clever dexterity help him recover from the Monica Lewinsky scandal How did Barack Obama draw on his experience as a talented community activist to overcome his inexperience as a national leader And how does Sarah Palin's wandering tone indicate that she trusts her listeners and is open to their ideas By focusing not on the substance of political arguments but on how they were phrased Political Tone provides powerful and unexpected insights into American politics Kintsugi Marie O'Rourke, 2024-01-30 A collection of essays that explores the complexities of family relationships and the lasting impact of a difficult childhood This is a poignant reminder that some things cannot be fixed but can still hold immense beauty and meaning Writing Fiction Janet Burroway, 2002-10 A bestseller through six editions Writing Fiction by novelists Janet Burroway and Elizabeth Stuckey French explores the elements of fiction providing practical writing techniques and concrete examples Written in a tone that is personal and non-prescriptive the text encourages writers to develop proficiency through each step of the writing process offering an abundance of exercises designed to spur writing and creativity The text also integrates diverse contemporary short stories in every chapter in the belief that the reading of inspiring fiction goes hand in hand with the writing of fresh and exciting stories Thorough and practical discussions of all the major fictional elements offer students a comprehensive guide to the craft of writing stories Topics include freewriting plot style characterization dialogue time place imagery and point of view For novice writers looking to develop proficiency The Teen-Centered Writing Club Constance Hardesty, 2008-08-30 Provides an overview of teen writing clubs and discusses the steps necessary for creating promoting and evaluating one The Geographies of African American Short Fiction Kenton Rambsy, 2022-03-25 Perhaps the brevity of short fiction accounts for the relatively scant attention devoted to it by scholars who have historically concentrated on longer prose narratives The Geographies of African American Short Fiction seeks to fill this gap by analyzing the ways African American short story writers plotted a diverse range of characters across multiple locations small towns a famous metropolis city sidewalks a rural wooded area apartment buildings a pond a general store a prison and more In the process these writers highlighted the extents to which places and spaces shaped or situated racial representations Presenting African American short story writers as cultural cartographers author Kenton Rambsy documents the variety of geographical references within their short stories to show how these authors make cultural spaces integral to their artwork and inscribe their stories with layered and resonant social histories The history of these short stories also documents the circulation of compositions across dozens of literary collections for nearly a century Anthology editors solidified the significance of a core group of short story authors including James Baldwin Toni Cade Bambara Charles Chesnutt Ralph Ellison Zora Neale Hurston and Richard Wright Using quantitative information and an extensive literary dataset The Geographies of African American Short Fiction explores how editorial practices shaped the canon of African American short fiction Dictionary of International Biography ,2007 A biographical record of contemporary achievement together with a key to the location of the original biographical notes
