Crime Fiction as World Literature Louise Nilsson, David Damrosch, Theo D'haen, 2017-02-23 While crime fiction is one of the most widespread of all literary genres this is the first book to treat it in its full global is the first book to treat crime fiction in its full global and plurilingual dimensions taking the genre seriously as a participant in the international sphere of world literature In a wide ranging panorama of the genre twenty critics discuss crime fiction from Bulgaria China Israel Mexico Scandinavia Kenya Catalonia and Tibet among other locales By bringing crime fiction into the sphere of world literature Crime Fiction as World Literature gives new insights not only into the genre itself but also into the transnational flow of literature in the globalized mediascape of contemporary popular culture

On Being Stuck Laraine Herring, 2016-05-17 Writer's block If you are a writer you know it can be a haunting terrifying force a wolf at the door a vast conspiracy something that keeps you up at night spinning your wheels going nowhere But what if we've been thinking about writer's block all wrong What if by paying attention to its qualities and inquiring into its hidden gifts we can release that power On Being Stuck is an empowering guide to working with your blocks and finding the friend within the beast Using deep inquiry writing prompts body and breath exercises and a range of interdisciplinary approaches On Being Stuck will help you uncover the gifts hidden within your creative blocks while also deepening your relationship to your work and reawakening your creative process

Creative Writing in Post-Secondary Education Lisa Martin, 2025-02-20 A blend of memoir and scholarly review this book explores the kinds of thinking creative writing as a distinctly practical subject makes possible within post secondary education Taking the idea that creative writing should be grounded in practice Lisa Martin explores how the nature of the subject gives permission to think specifically locally from one's own position and in a necessarily limited way without having one's thinking discounted as lacking rigour as a result Modelling the deep and essential connection between practice and research in the field this book considers post secondary creative writing in its three key aspects artistic practice pedagogical practice and practice led research in order to articulate the distinctive contributions creative writing makes to what thinking means and whose thinking gets included Drawing on Martin's own artistic practice as well as more than a decade of pedagogical experience in creative writing this book braids together disciplinary history research informed autobiographical analysis of artistic practice and pedagogy and scholarly research in adjacent fields such as creativity studies and educational psychology Connecting creative writing's central commitment to artistic practice and local material embodied thinking with the development of learner centred pedagogies Creative Writing in Post Secondary Education is timely important and will spark spirited discussion within a debate that has been simmering since the inception of creative writing
