Writings Richard S Homer 1994 2014:

The Writings of Richard S. Homer 1994-2014 Jack Homer, 2015-12-22 Richard Homer 1929 2015 was a beloved husband father grandfather and physician generous and kind a gentle man of great learning wit and love of life After retiring from private practice he devoted himself to study and writing on a wide variety of topics This collection of his writings 525 pages is in 4 sections Memoirs Speeches Letters SAGE Society Presentations and Cal State Northridge Class Papers

Reading Poetry, Writing Genre Silvio Bär, Emily Hauser, 2018-12-27 This ground breaking volume connects the situatedness of genre in English poetry with developments in classical scholarship exploring how an emphasis on the interaction between English literary criticism and Classics changes sharpens or perhaps even obstructs views on genre in English poetry Genre has classical roots both in the etymology of the word and in the history of genre criticism which begins with Aristotle In a similar vein recent developments in genre studies have suggested that literary genres are not given or fixed entities but subjective and unstable as well as historically situated and that the reception of genre by both writers and scholars feeds back into the way genre is articulated in specific literary works Classical scholarship literary criticism and genre form a triangle of key concepts for the volume approached in different ways and with different productive results by contributors from across the disciplines of Classics and English literature Covering topics from the establishment of genre in the Middle Ages to the invention of female epic and the epyllion and bringing together the works of English poets from Milton to Tennyson to Josephine Balmer the essays collected here argue that the reception and criticism of classical texts play a crucial part in generic formation in English poetry

The Stories of Similes in Greek and Roman Epic Deborah Beck, 2023-07-20 Just as the story of an epic poem is woven from characters and plot so too the individual similes within an epic create a unique simile world Like any other story it is peopled by individual characters happenings and experiences such as the shepherd and his flocks a storm at sea or predators hunting prey The simile world that complements the epic mythological story is re imagined afresh in relation to the themes of each epic poem As Deborah Beck argues in this stimulating book over time a simile world takes shape across many poems composed over many centuries This evolving landscape resembles the epic story world of battles voyages and heroes that comes into being through relationships among different epic poems Epic narrative is woven from a warp of the mythological story world and a weft of the simile world They are partners in creating the fabric of epic poetry

Women Writing Antiquity Helena Taylor, 2024-04-15 Women Writing Antiquity argues that the struggle to define the female intellectual in seventeenth century France lay at the centre of a broader struggle over the definition of literature and literary knowledge during a time of significant cultural change As the female intellectual became a figure of debate France was also undergoing a shift away from the dominance of classical cultural models the transition towards a standardized modern language the development of a national literature and literary canon and the emergence of the literary field This book explores the intersection of these phenomena analyzing how a range of women constructed the female intellectual through their reception of Greco Roman culture Women Writing Antiquity offers readings of known and less familiar works from a diverse corpus of translators novelists poets linguists playwrights essayists and fairy tale writers including Marie de Gournay Madeleine de Scud ry Madame de Villegieu Antoinette Deshouli res Marie Jeanne L H ritier and Anne Dacier Challenging traditionally formalist and source text orientated approaches the study reframes classical reception in terms of authorial self fashioning and professional strategy and explores the symbolic value of Latin literacy to an author s projected identity These writers used reception of Greco Roman culture to negotiate the value attributed to different genres the nature of poetics the legitimacy of varied modes of authorship the qualities and properties of French and even how and by whom these topics might be debated Women Writing Antiquity combines a new take on the literary history of the period with a retelling of the history of the figure of the learned woman Transcript of the Enrollment Books New York (N.Y.). Board of Elections,1905 Wild Spaces, Open Seasons Kevin Sharp,2016-10-26 Wild Spaces Open Seasons traces the theme of hunting and fishing in American art from the early nineteenth century through World War II Describing a remarkable group of American paintings and sculpture the contributors reveal the pervasiveness of the subjects and the fascinating contexts from which they emerged In one important example after another the authors demonstrate that representations of hunting and fishing did more than illustrate subsistence activities or diverting pastimes The portrayal of American hunters and fishers also spoke to American ambitions and priorities In his introduction noted outdoorsman and author Stephen J Bodio surveys the book s major artists who range from society painters to naturalists and modernists Margaret C Adler then explores how hunting and fishing imagery in American art reflects traditional myths some rooted in classicism others in the American appetite for tall tales Kory W Rogers in his discussion of works that valorize the dangers hunters faced pursuing their prey shows how American artists constructed new rituals at a time when the United States was rapidly transforming from a frontier society into a modern urban nation Shirley Reece Hughes looks at depictions of families pairs and parties of hunters and fishers and how social bonding reinvigorated American society at a time of social political and cultural change Finally Adam M Thomas considers themes of exploration and hunting as integral to conveying the individualism that was a staple of westward expansion In their depictions of the hunt or the catch American artists connected a dynamic and developing nation to its past and its future Through the examination of major works of art Wild Spaces Open Seasons brings to light an often overlooked theme in American painting and sculpture The New Peplum Nicholas Diak,2018-01-12 Peplum or sword and sandal films an Italian genre of the late 1950s through the 1960s featured ancient Greek Roman and Biblical stories with gladiators mythological monsters and legendary quests The new wave of historic epics known as neo pepla is distinctly different embracing new technologies and storytelling techniques to create an immersive experience unattainable in the earlier films This collection of new essays explores the neo peplum phenomenon through a range of topics including comic book adaptations like Hercules the expansion of genre boundaries in Jupiter

Ascending and John Carter depictions of Romans and slaves in Spartacus and The Eagle and Centurion as metaphors for America's involvement in the Iraq War

The Oxford Handbook of Taboo Words and Language Keith Allan, 2018-11-08

This volume brings together experts from a wide range of disciplines to define and describe tabooed words and language and to investigate the reasons and beliefs behind them. In general, taboo is defined as a proscription of behaviour for a specific community, time, and context. In terms of language, taboo applies to instances of language behaviour, the use of certain words in certain contexts. The existence of linguistic taboos and their management lead to the censoring of behaviour and as a consequence to language change and development. Chapters in this volume explore the multiple types of tabooed language from a variety of perspectives such as sociolinguistics, anthropology, philosophy, psychology, historical linguistics, and neurolinguistics, and with reference to fields such as law, publishing, politics, and advertising. Topics covered include impoliteness, swearing, censorship, taboo in deaf communities, translation of tabooed words, and the use of taboo in banter and comedy.
