Wrong Doing Truth Telling Wrong Doing Truth Telling:

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault delivered a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that until recently remained almost unknown These lectures which focus on the role of avowal or confession in the determination of truth and justice provide the missing link between Foucault's early work on madness delinquency and sexuality and his later explorations of subjectivity in Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the twentieth century Foucault traces the early use of truth telling in ancient Greece and follows it through to practices of self examination in monastic times By the nineteenth century the avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient to satisfy the call for justice there remained the question of who the criminal was and what formative factors contributed to his wrong doing The call for psychiatric expertise marked the birth of the discipline of psychiatry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as its widespread recognition as the foundation of criminology and modern criminal justice Published here for the first time the 1981 lectures have been superbly translated by Stephen W Sawyer and expertly edited and extensively annotated by Fabienne Brion and Bernard E Harcourt They are accompanied by two contemporaneous interviews with Foucault in which he elaborates on a number of the key themes An essential companion to Discipline and Punish Wrong Doing Truth Telling will take its place as one of the most significant works of Foucault to appear in decades and will be necessary reading for all those interested in his thought

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault's early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault

Personal Identity and the European Court of Human Rights Jill Marshall, 2022-05-25 In this new and burgeoning field in legal and human rights thought this edited collection explores by reference to applied philosophy and case law how the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR has developed and presented a right to personal identity largely through interpretation of Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights Divided into three parts the collection interrogates firstly the construction of personal identity rights at the ECtHR secondly whose identity rights are protected and thirdly the limits of identity rights The collection is the first in the Routledge Studies in Law and Humanity series Contributions from nine leading and emerging legal scholars from the UK Ireland and continental Europe explore how the right has developed rights to identity and marriage LGBTI persons with disabilities religious and cultural issues and critical perspectives on the social construction and framing of the right The collection is primarily aimed at scholars and advanced students particularly of human rights law and its theory Jurisprudence and Philosophy of Law and those interested in ECtHR jurisprudence and those interested in the connection between theories of inclusion belonging and rights including human rights lawyers

Algorithmic Reason Claudia Aradau,Tobias Blanke,2022 This book outlines conceptual and methodological tools to understand how algorithmic operations shape the government of self and other It offers a global transdisciplinary perspective exploring controversies such as the Cambridge Analytica scandal in the UK predictive policing in the US and the use of facial recognition in China

Foucault and the Making of Subjects Laura Cremonesi,Orazio Irrera,Daniele Lorenzini,Martina Tazzioli,2016-10-10 Michel Foucault s account of the subject has a double meaning it relates to both being a subject of and being subject to political forces This book interrogates the philosophical and political consequences of such a dual definition of the subject by exploring the processes of subjectivation and objectivation through which subjects are produced Drawing together well known scholars of Foucaultian thought and critical theory alongside a newly translated interview with Foucault himself the book will engage in a serious reconsideration of the notion of autonomy beyond the liberal tradition connecting it to processes of subjectivation In the face of the ongoing proliferation of analyses using the notion of subjectivation this book will retrace Foucault s reflections on it and interrogate the current theoretical and political implications of a series of approaches that mobilize the Foucaultian understanding of the subject in relation to truth and power
