

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 Purpose of the CT Study Instruction Manual

The purpose of this instruction manual is to help you complete original and revised CT studies for your treatment plant using the CT Template.

1.2 What Systems Can Use the New Automated CT Study Template?

The Template is primarily intended for small and medium size treatment plants. The template is designed for treatment plants with no more than 10 disinfection zones, each zone consisting of no more than 10 treatment units. If your plant does not meet these requirements, your CT study will need to be completed manually.

1.3 How Is This Instruction Manual Organized?

Table 1-1 gives a summary of the chapters in this manual and what they cover.

Table 1-1: CT Study Template Guidance Manual Chapters

Chapter	Topics
1	Introduction This chapter describes who is eligible to use the new Template and discusses how to use this guidance manual.
2	CT Studies and the CT Study Approval Letter This chapter details the concepts used in the preparation of a CT Study and the subsequent approval process. A firm understanding of the background presented here is critical to the preparation of an accurate CT Study.
3	Describing Your Treatment Plant This chapter presents the guidelines you will use follow in writing a narrative description and preparing a plant schematic.
4	Describing Your Disinfection Zones This chapter takes you through the steps involved with customizing the Template to accurately reflect the number of disinfection zones and treatment units in your treatment plant. This chapter outlines the information you must enter to characterize your disinfection process.
5	Evaluating Your Disinfection Protocol Chapter 5 describes the Calculator worksheet of the CT Study Template and the information you must provide to determine whether your disinfection process provides adequate disinfection.
6	Submitting Your CT Study Report This chapter presents the steps involved with submitting your complete CT Study Report to the TCEQ.

Writing Instruction Manuals:

Writing Plain Instructions Marc Achteleg, 2012 Users want manuals that are easy to read with short sentences simple words and unambiguous instructions Unfortunately writing plain language is much more difficult than writing overblown instructions that only an expert can understand Writing complex texts is simple writing simple texts is complex This book shows you how to write simple user assistance rather than complex user annoyance As it s a book about stating your message clearly it also states its own messages clearly It s free of boring theory and free of highbrow grammar terms and gives you clear recommendations and catchy examples that you can easily remember and apply to your own work Topics covered General technical writing principles that make your texts plain simple and easy to understand On the topic level Rules for writing Concept topics Task topics and Reference topics On the paragraph level Rules for writing the standard elements that form a topic such as headings subheadings procedures lists tables warnings notes tips examples cross references and links On the sentence level Rules for building plain and unambiguous sentences On the word level Recommendations for using simple words Spelling and punctuation FAQ Grammar and word choice FAQ Standard terms and phrases Audience technical writers developers marketing professionals product managers

Letter-writing Manuals and Instruction from

Antiquity to the Present Carol Poster, Linda C. Mitchell, 2007 Once nearly as ubiquitous as dictionaries and cookbooks are today letter writing manuals and their predecessors served to instruct individuals not only on the art of letter composition but also in effect on personal conduct Poster and Mitchell contend that the study of letter writing theory which bridges rhetorical theory and grammatical studies represents an emerging discipline in need of definition In this volume they gather the contributions of eleven experts to sketch the contours of epistolary theory and collect the historic and bibliographic materials from Isocrates to email that form the basis for its study
