Visibility, and Race in American Film and Television Melanie Kohnen, 2015-11-06 This book traces the uneven history of queer media visibility through crucial turning points including the Hollywood Production Code era the AIDS crisis of the 1980s the so called explosion of gay visibility on television during the 1990s and the re imagination of queer representations on TV after the events of 9 11 Kohnen intervenes in previous academic and popular accounts that paint the increase in queer visibility over the past four decades as a largely progressive development She examines how and why a limited and limiting concept of queer visibility structured around white gay and lesbian characters in committed relationships has become the embodiment of progressive LGBT media representations She also investigates queer visibility across film TV and print media and highlights previously unexplored connections such as the lingering traces of classical Hollywood cinema s queer tropes in the X Men franchise Across all chapters narratives and arguments emerge that demonstrate how queer visibility shapes and reflects not only media representations but the real and imagined geographies histories and people of the American nation The Law in Graphic Narratives Giuseppe Martinico, Gianpaolo Maria Ruotolo, 2024-09-03 Comics manga and anime can offer an interesting perspective from which to explore representations of the law in popular culture This book offers a better understanding of the juridical subtexts of such cultural artefacts by bringing together scholars in legal theory and comparative and international law While the contributions in the first part of the volume unpack the relationships between normative systems law and morality above all in graphic narratives by Marvel Daredevil and DC heroes Batman the second part of the volume looks at the role played by law and lawyers in different legal systems through case studies such as She Hulk. This collection extends research into comics beyond Anglo American culture which is still hegemonic in this literature and makes it possible to read the legal phenomena dealt with in the pop culture products analysed through a lens other than that of Anglo American law.

Film Directors and Emotion Darragh Greene, Graham Price, 2020-05-06

Cinema is an affective medium. Films move us to feel wonder, joy and love as well as fear, anger and hatred. Today we are living through a new age of sensibility when emotion is given priority over reason. Yet there is a counter cultural current in contemporary American cinema that offers a more nuanced treatment of emotion. Both aesthetically and eidetically this new cinema of affect allows viewers to make up their own minds about what they feel and think. This book focuses on key films by important auteur directors: David Fincher, Bryan Singer, Christopher Nolan, Kathryn Bigelow, Richard Linklater, Barry Jenkins, Greta Gerwig and Pete Docter who are to the forefront of this new cinema. It explores how they anatomize affect and how it functions in the creation or degradation of character and society.
