explored through in depth case studies The volume offers a multifaceted view on how language commodifies and is commodified in tourism settings and considers language practices and discourse as a way of constructing identities boundaries and places It also reflects on academic practice and economic dynamics in a field that is characterised by social inequalities and injustice and tourism as the world s largest industry enacting dynamic communicative social and cultural transformations The book will appeal to both undergraduate and postgraduate students of tourism studies linguistics literature cultural history and anthropology as well as researchers and professionals in these fields

Language and Intercultural Communication in Tourism Bal Krishna Sharma, Shuang Gao, 2021-11-25 This collection critically examines tourism as a site of intercultural communication drawing on the analytical tools afforded by the discipline toward better understanding contemporary tourism discourses and the broader societal structures of power and ideologies in which they are situated The volume interrogates culture and interculturality in tourism in detailed analyses of discursive details in tourism interactions and focuses on the notion of culture as a process or phenomenon engaged in or enacted on by individuals Drawing on discourse analytic and ethnographic approaches the book brings together perspectives from the lived experiences of residents hosts and ethnographers to explore the extent to which linguistic and cultural differences are constructed identities negotiated and power relations maintained and perpetuated in tourism encounters The volume draws on insights from those working across a range of geographic contexts and explores the interplay of these issues in English as well as other languages and language varieties used in tourism interactions With its focus on critical approaches to understanding language and culture this book will appeal to students and scholars in intercultural communication applied linguistics sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology discourse analysis and tourism studies

The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage Claudia Elena Stoian, 2015-11-25 The Discourse of Tourism and National Heritage A Contrastive Study from a Cultural Perspective presents an in depth research study in the field of online tourism promotion It focuses on the national online promotion of UNESCO World Heritage Sites on two different types of websites institutional and commercial from three countries Romania Spain and Great Britain The book analyses the way in which each country combines various modes to create a virtual brochure with a promotional message from both institutional and commercial positions In doing this it studies the organization of the websites and their webpages as well as the lexico grammatical and visual features of their promotional messages The theoretical framework used is Systemic Functional Linguistics Halliday 1985 1994 Kress and van Leeuwen 1996 2006 Halliday and Matthiessen 2004 The results are compared in relation to the types of websites and to the countries in which they were produced These are further interpreted from a cultural perspective showing that the findings can be accounted for by cultural variability in particular the dimension of context Hall 1976 1990 2000

Research Companion to Language and Country Branding Irene Theodoropoulou, Johanna Tovar, 2020-11-16 Research Companion to Language and Country Branding brings together entirely new interdisciplinary research conducted by scholars working on various sociolinguistic semiotic anthropological and discursive analytical aspects of country branding all over the world Branding is a process of identity construction whereby countries gain visibility and put themselves on the world map as distinctive entities by drawing on their history culture economy society geography and their people Through branding countries aim not only at establishing their uniqueness but also and perhaps most importantly at attracting tourism investments high quality human capital as well as at forging financial military political and social alliances Against this backdrop this volume explores how countries and regions imagine and portray others and themselves in terms of gender ethnicity and diversity today as well as the past In this respect the book examines how branding differs from other related policies and practices such as nation building banal nationalism and populism This volume is an essential reference for students researchers and practitioners with an interest in country nation and place branding processes

Global Russian Cultures Kevin M. F. Platt, 2019-01-15 Is there an essential Russian identity What happens when Russian literature is written in English by such authors as Gary Shteyngart or Lara Vapnyar What is the geographic home of Russian culture created and shared via the internet Global Russian Cultures innovatively considers these and many related questions about the literary and cultural life of Russians who in successive waves of migration have dispersed to the United States Europe and Israel or who remained after the collapse of the USSR in Ukraine the Baltic states and the Central Asian states The volume's internationally renowned contributors treat the many different global Russian cultures not as displaced elements of Russian cultural life but rather as independent entities in their own right They describe diverse forms of literature music film and everyday life that transcend and defy political geographic and even linguistic borders Arguing that Russian cultures today are many this volume contends that no state or society can lay claim to be the single or authentic representative of Russianness In so doing it contests the conceptions of culture and identity at the root of nation building projects in and around Russia

Political Economy and Sociolinguistics David Block, 2018-02-08 Shortlisted for the BAAL Book Prize 2019 This book explores how political economy intersects with sociolinguistics specifically how neoliberalism inequality and social class mediate language in society issues After the preface in which the author sets the scene for the content of the book Chapter 1 is an extensive though selective review of sociolinguistics research which has been framed as political economic in orientation The chapter concludes that such research generally contains little in the way of thorough and in depth coverage of the key ideas and conceptual frameworks said to undergird it With this consideration in mind Chapters 2 3 and 4 are organised around in depth discussions of respectively political economy as a general disciplinary frame neoliberalism as the variegated variety of capitalism dominant in the world today and stratification inequality and social class as phenomena intrinsic to capitalism which in the neoliberal era have come to the fore as key issues Drawing directly on the background provide in Chapters 2 4 Chapters 5 and 6 explore two distinct political economy informed lines of research on the one hand the neoliberal citizen and on the other hand discursive class warfare The book ends with an epilogue

addressing issues arising around political economy in sociolinguistics Teaching English for Tourism Michael Ennis, Gina Petrie, 2019-07-04 Teaching English for Tourism initiates a sustained academic discussion on the teaching and learning of English to tourism professionals or to students who aspire to build a career in the tourism industry Responding to a gap in the field this is the first book of its kind to explore the implications of research in English for tourism Eft within the field of English for specific purposes This edited volume brings together teachers and researchers of Eft from diverse national and institutional contexts focusing on connecting current research in Eft contexts to classroom implications It considers a wide range of themes related to the teaching of Eft including theoretical concepts methodological frameworks and specific teaching methods The book explores topics relating to the impact of changing technologies the need for cultural understanding and support for writing development among others Teaching English for Tourism explores this growing area of English for specific purposes and allows for researchers and practitioners to share their findings in an academic context This unique book is ideal reading for researchers post graduate students and professionals working in the fields of English language teaching and learning Language in the Media Sally Johnson, Astrid Ensslin, 2018-10-18 Examining the ways in which the media represents language related issues and how it shapes and constructs what people think language is this book offers a multilingual survey of the construction of language in and by the media Tackling the big issues of identity gender youth citizenship politics and ideology across a range of mediums including television radio newspapers magazines and the internet Language in the Media brings together an international team of experts to examine how the media gives language distinctive forms and values This is an essential text for students and researchers of sociolinguistics or language and communication At a time when trust in the mainstream media is at an all time low and world leaders are using new media to deride so called fake news this classic text offers insight and critical analysis into the key issues surrounding the relationship between language the media and its audience Labour Policies, Language Use and the 'New' Economy Kellie Gonçalves, 2020-09-09 This book provides an in depth analysis of language and tourist mobility within an adventure tourism context It uses a critical and ethnographic approach contributing to poststructuralist perspectives of social life that are currently undergoing considerable changes on social political cultural and linguistic levels Drawing upon an array of data sources collected over five years on two continents it examines and compares the way language and communication e g speech written texts visual resources are used within the production of place making practices in two of the world s top adventure tourism destinations Interlaken Switzerland and Queenstown New Zealand It centres on issues such as cross cultural discourses transcultural texts and semiotic landscapes Sociolinguistics from the Periphery Sari Pietikäinen, Alexandra Jaffe, Helen Kelly-Holmes, Nikolas Coupland, 2016-06-02 This leading team of scholars presents a fascinating book about change shifting political economic and cultural conditions ephemeral sometimes even seasonal multilingualism and altered imaginaries for minority and indigenous languages and their users The authors refer to this network of interlinked changes as the new conditions surrounding small languages S mi Corsican Irish and Welsh in peripheral sites Starting from the conviction that peripheral sites can and should inform the sociolinguistics of globalisation the book explores how new modes of reflexivity more transactional frames for authenticity commodification of peripheral resources and boundary transgression with humour all carry forward change These types of change articulate a blurring of binary oppositions between centre and periphery old and new and standard and non standard Such research is particularly urgent in multilingual small language contexts where different conceptualisations of language s boundaries and speakers impact on individuals social cultural and economic capital and opportunities

BLENDING LOCAL CULTURE AND ENGLISH IN TOURISM BRANDING Samsudin,Srikandini Narulita,Saidah,Dwi Nur Cahyani Sri Kusumaningtyas,Kenya Permata Kusumadewi,Afore Tahir Harefa,Zulfariati,Supriadin,Cicilia Deandra Maya Putri,Sri Ninta Tarigan,Zulidyana,Aditya Ridho Fatmawan,Dewi Nuryanti,2025-08-15 Tourism is not merely an industry of movement and destinations it is a dynamic arena where languages identities and cultures constantly interact In this increasingly globalized world English has emerged as a dominant lingua franca in international tourism yet it is the local culture that gives each destination its unique charm and authenticity This book Blending Local Culture and English in Tourism Branding seeks to explore the intersection between global communication and local identity within the realm of tourism The chapters in this volume offer theoretical insights practical strategies and critical reflections on how English can be integrated with local cultural values in tourism branding communication and education From digital storytelling to eco tourism narratives and from multilingual interactions to curriculum development the contributors of this collaborative book bring diverse perspectives grounded in academic rigor and cultural sensitivity

Neoliberalism and the Political Economy of Tourism Jan Mosedale,2016-03-10 Tourism has become increasingly shaped by neoliberal policies yet the consequences of this neoliberalisation are relatively under explored This book provides a wide ranging inquiry into the particular manifestations of different variants of neoliberalism highlighting its uneven geographical development and the changing dynamics of neoliberal policies in order to explain and evaluate the effects of neoliberal processes on tourism Covering a variety of different aspects of neoliberalism and tourism the chapters investigate how different types of tourism are used as part of more general neoliberalisation agendas how neoliberalism differs according to the geographic context the importance of discourse in shaping neoliberal practices and the different approaches of putting the neoliberal ideology into practice Aiming to initiate debates about the connections between neoliberalism and tourism and advance further research avenues this book makes a timely contribution which discusses the relationships between markets nation states and societies from a social science perspective Neoliberalism is considered as a political economic ideology as variants of the global neoliberal project as discourse and practices through which neoliberalism is enacted

The Structure of Multimodal Documents Tuomo Hiippala,2015-06-05 This book develops a new framework for describing the structure of multimodal documents how language image layout and other modes of communication work together to convey meaning Building on recent research in multimodal analysis functional linguistics and information design the book examines the textual visual and spatial aspects of page based multimodal documents and employs an analytical model to describe and interpret their structure using the concepts of semiotic modes medium and genre To demonstrate and test this approach the study performs a systematic longitudinal analysis of a corpus of multimodal documents within a single genre an extensively annotated corpus of tourist brochures produced between 1967 2008 The book provides multimodal discourse analysts with methodological tools to draw empirically based conclusions about multimodal documents and will be a valuable resource for researchers planning to develop and study multimodal corpora

Mediterranean Heritage in Transit Lucia Abbamonte, 2016-02-29 It is mainly within and around Mediterranean itineraries that the European Union seeks its intangible cultural heritage an important component of both individual and collective identities This volume brings together many different strands of analysis helping to shed light on the multifaceted entities that constitute the socio semiotic landscape of the Mediterranean It views this vibrant scenario from a cross cultural perspective and investigates the domains of national identities and stereotypes advertising and social media TV series myths and festivals landscapes culture bound terms migrating words and food More specifically some chapters revolve around issues of intra inter group identities in the context of itineraries of recent or historical migrations and how such variegated identities are re shaped by and through the media in a dynamic interplay of symbols and clichés In the same vein gender issues are also addressed in a dimension suspended between tradition and modernity with a special focus on Turkish women The multi dimensional Turkish culture and landscape are also voiced through an example of blended American Turkish children's literature Other chapters explore the language of tourism in the diverse multimodal representations and textualizations of the tourist experience in Mediterranean destinations mainly expressed through social media The contemporary appreciation of the Mediterranean Diet as a global cultural heritage is also explored through the magnifying lens of such media Given the variety of perspectives and methodological approaches adopted by the contributors this volume offers useful insights to students and practitioners of discourse analysis alike From an educational perspective the book which also includes practical worksheets can be used in first and second level degrees in Foreign Languages Communication Political Sciences Media and Cultural Studies as well as specific courses in linguistics multimodal studies critical discourse analysis and corpus linguistics The underlying rationale of the book is its concentration on the prominent role of English in representing the Mediterranean heritage despite the fact that it is a non Mediterranean language At the same time the volume bridges the gap between academic research and class practice at the university level Generic Integrity and Innovation in Tourism Texts in English Sabrina Francesconi, 2012 The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Tourism Melanie Smith, Greg Richards, 2013-01-17 The Routledge Handbook of Cultural Tourism explores and critically evaluates the debates and controversies in this field of Tourism It brings together leading specialists from a range of disciplinary backgrounds and
