Towelhead Alicia Erian, 2008-07-15 Sent to live with her strict Lebanese father in Texas upon the outbreak of the Gulf War Arab American teen Jasira endures racial taunts from her new classmates and enters into a dangerously exploitative relationship with a bigoted Army reservist Reissue 75 000 first printing A Warner Independent film directed by Alan Ball releasing August 2008 starring Aaron Eckhart Toni Collette Maria Bello General Fiction Modern Arab American Fiction Steven Salaita, 2011-04-13 Within the spectrum of American literary traditions Arab American literature is relatively new Writing produced by Americans of Arab origin is mainly a product of the twentieth century and only started to flourish in the past thirty years While this young but thriving literature varies widely in content and style it emerges from a common community and within a specific historical political and cultural context In Modern Arab American Fiction Salaita maps out the landscape of this genre as he details rather than defines the last century of Arab American fiction Exploring the works of such best selling authors as Rabih Alameddine Mohja Kahf Laila Halaby Diana Abu Jaber Alicia Erian and Randa Jarrar Salaita highlights the development of each author's writing and how each has influenced Arab American fiction He examines common themes including the Israel Palestine conflict the Lebanese Civil War of 1975-90 the representation and practice of Islam in the United States social issues such as gender and national identity in Arab cultures and the various identities that come with being Arab American Combining the accessibility of a primer with in depth critical analysis Modern Arab American Fiction is suitable for a broad audience those unfamiliar with the subject area as well as scholars of the literature

Alan Ball Thomas Fahy, 2013-08-23 Alan Ball Conversations features interviews that span Alan Ball's entire career and include detailed observations and insights into his Academy Award winning film American Beauty and Emmy Award winning television shows Six Feet Under and True Blood Ball began his career as a playwright in New York and his work soon caught the attention of Hollywood television producers After writing for the sitcoms Grace Under Fire and Cybill Ball turned his attention to the screenplay that would become American Beauty The critical success of this film opened up exciting possibilities for him in the realm of television He created the critically acclaimed show Six Feet Under and after the series finale he decided to explore the issue of American bigotry toward the Middle East in his 2007 play All That I Will Ever Be and the film Towelhead which he adapted and directed in the same year Ball returned to television once again with the series True Blood an adaptation of the humorous entertaining and erotic world of Charlaine Harris's vampire novels In 2012 Ball announced that he would step down as executive producer of True Blood in part to produce both a new television series and his screenplay What's the Matter with Margie New Body Politics Therí A. Pickens, 2014-02-05 In the increasingly multi racial and multi ethnic American landscape of the present understanding and bridging dynamic cross cultural conversations about social and political concerns becomes a complicated humanistic project How do everyday embodied experiences transform from being anecdotal to having social and political significance What can the experience of corporeality offer social and political discourse And how does that discourse change when those bodies belong to Arab Americans and African Americans Ther A Pickens discusses a range of literary cultural and archival material where narratives emphasize embodied experience to examine how these experiences constitute Arab Americans and African Americans as social and political subjects Pickens argues that Arab American and African American narratives rely on the body s fragility rather than its exceptional strength or emotion to create urgent social and political critiques The creators of these narratives find potential in mundane experiences such as breathing touch illness pain and death Each chapter in this book focuses on one of these everyday embodied experiences and examines how authors mobilize that fragility to create social and political commentary Pickens discusses how the authors focus on quotidian experiences complicates their critiques of the nation state domestic and international politics exile cultural mores and the medical establishment New Body Politics participates in a vibrant interdisciplinary conversation about cross ethnic studies American literature and Arab American literature Using intercultural analysis Pickens explores issues of the body and representation that will be relevant to fields as varied as Political Science African American Studies Arab American Studies and Disability Studies

The Atheist Muslim Ali A. Rizvi, 2016-11-22 In much of the Muslim world religion is the central foundation upon which family community morality and identity are built The inextricable embedment of religion in Muslim culture has forced a new generation of non believing Muslims to face the heavy costs of abandoning their parents religion disowned by their families marginalized from their communities imprisoned or even sentenced to death by their governments Struggling to reconcile the Muslim society he was living in as a scientist and physician and the religion he was being raised in Ali A Rizvi eventually loses his faith Discovering that he is not alone he moves to North America and promises to use his new freedom of speech to represent the voices that are usually quashed before reaching the mainstream media the Atheist Muslim In The Atheist Muslim we follow Rizvi as he finds himself caught between two narrative voices he cannot relate to extreme Islam and anti Muslim bigotry in a post 9 11 world The Atheist Muslim recounts the journey that allows Rizvi to criticize Islam as one should be able to criticize any set of ideas without demonizing his entire people Emotionally and intellectually compelling his personal story outlines the challenges of modern Islam and the factors that could help lead it toward a substantive progressive reformation

Little Odessa Joseph Koenig, 2012-06-19 DIVIn the grimy hell of Brighton Beach a stripper needs smarts to survive divDIV divDIVIn the waning years of the Soviet Union only the very young or very old are allowed to immigrate to the United States Places like Brooklyn s Brighton Beach or as residents call it Little Odessa are flooded with teenage strivers eager to shake their accents and take what America has to offer Kate Piro is as ambitious as they come but her pluck only gets her as far as Times Square s Starlight Club where she dances naked under the stage name M Anita Supreme divDIV divDIVAfter being assaulted by a drunken Nigerian diplomat Kate meets a kindly cop who falls hard for the headstrong stripper He wants to save her or at least sleep with her but Kate doesn t need his help She s determined to get out of Brighton Beach even though every man she meets drags her deeper into a cesspit of sleaze vice and murder div Men in Color Josep M. Armengol, 2011-01-18

Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world

Race and the Suburbs in American Film Merrill Schleier, 2021-07-01 This book is the first anthology to explore the connection between race and the suburbs in American cinema from the end of World War II to the present It builds upon the explosion of interest in the suburbs in film television and fiction in the last fifteen years concentrating exclusively on the relationship of race to the built environment Suburb films began as a cycle in response to both America's changing urban geography and the re segregation of its domestic spaces in the postwar era which excluded African Americans Asian Americans and Latinx from the suburbs while buttressing whiteness By defying traditional categories and chronologies in cinema studies the contributors explore the myriad ways suburban spaces and racialized bodies in film mediate each other Race and the Suburbs in American Film is a stimulating resource for considering the manner in which race is foundational to architecture and urban geography which is reflected promoted and challenged in cinematic representations

Movies, Miniseries, and Multiculturalism Lillian Comas-Díaz, Rehman Abdulrehman, Danny Wedding, 2025-07-28 Movies, Miniseries, and Multiculturalism invites readers on a journey to understand culture using stories from film and television Highlighting hundreds of compelling examples this thought provoking book explores issues of cultural identity prejudice social justice and the challenges and opportunities associated with life in the increasingly multicultural societies of our globalized world Perfect for students of multicultural psychology socially conscious professionals and film and television buffs it offers insightful reflections and discussion questions that deepen the understanding of cultural diversity Human behavior is shaped by culture's and this book shows how films and television can enlighten us foster personal growth and increase cultural awareness all while being entertaining

Salaam, with Love Sara Sharaf Beg, 2022-01-04 This heartfelt and humorous YA contemporary follows Dua who spends the month of Ramadan making unexpected discoveries about family faith and first love Beg beautifully crafts a comforting tale filled with fun characters and excellent Muslim representation Aamna Qureshi author of The Lady or the Lion A love letter to Islam capturing all the wonderful nuances of faith and culture Adiba Jaigirdar author of Hani and Ishu's Guide to Fake Dating Being crammed into a house in Queens with her cousins is not how Dua envisions her trip to New York City But here she is spending the holy month of Ramadan with extended family she hasn't seen in years Dua struggles to find her place in the conservative household and to connect with her aloof engaged to be married cousin Mahnoor And as if fasting the whole day wasn't tiring enough she must battle her hormones whenever she sees Hassan the cute drummer in a Muslim band who has a habit of showing up at her most awkward moments After just a month Dua is surprised to find that she's learning a lot more than she bargained for about her faith relationships her place in the world and cute drummers

Afropessimism Frank B. Wilderson III, 2020-04-07 Wilderson's thinking teaches us to believe in the miraculous even as we decry the brutalities out of which miracles emerge Fred Moten Praised as a trenchant funny and unsparing work of memoir and philosophy Aaron Robertson Literary Hub Frank B Wilderson's Afropessimism arrived at a moment when protests against police brutality once again swept the nation Presenting an argument we can no longer ignore Wilderson insists that we must view Blackness through the lens of perpetual slavery Radical in conception remarkably poignant and with soaring flights of memoir Afropessimism reverberates with wisdom and painful clarity in the fractured world we inhabit Wilderson's ambitious book offers its readers two great gifts First it strives mightily to make its pessimistic vision plausible Second the book depicts a remarkable life lived with daring and sincerity Paul C Taylor Washington Post Not Hollywood Sherry B.

Ortner,2013-02-27 The pioneering anthropologist Sherry B Ortner combines her trademark ethnographic expertise with critical film interpretation to explore the independent film scene in New York and Los Angeles since the late 1980s Not Hollywood is both a study of the lived experience of that scene and a critical examination of America as seen through the lenses of independent filmmakers Based on interviews with scores of directors and producers Ortner reveals the culture and practices of indie filmmaking including the conviction of those involved that their films unlike Hollywood movies are telling the truth about American life These films often illuminate the dark side of American society through narratives about the family the economy and politics in today s neoliberal era Offering insightful interpretations of many of these films Ortner argues that during the past three decades independent American cinema has functioned as a vital form of cultural critique

Almost Brown Charlotte Gill,2023-06-06 An award winning writer retraces her dysfunctional biracial globe trotting family s journey as she reckons with ethnicity and belonging diversity and race and the complexities of life within a multicultural household Almost Brown is that rarest of things a memoir that is both deeply intimate and intellectually ambitious Susan Orlean author of The Library Book Charlotte Gill s father is Indian Her mother is English They meet in 1960s London when the world is not quite ready for interracial love Their union results in a total meltdown of familial relations a lot of immigration paperwork and three children all in varying shades of tan Together they set off on a journey from the United Kingdom to Canada to the United States in an elusive pursuit of life liberty and happiness a dream that eventually tears them apart Almost Brown is an exploration of diasporic intermingling involving two eccentric parents from worlds apart and their half brown children as they experience the paradoxes and conundrums of life as it s lived between race checkboxes Their intercultural experiment features turbans and tube socks chana masala and Cherry Coke Over time Gill s parents drift apart because they just aren t compatible But as she too finds herself distancing from her father Why is she embarrassed to walk down the street with him and not her mom she doesn t know if it s because of his personality or his race Is this her own unconscious bias favoring one parent over the other in the racial tug of war that plagues our society Almost Brown looks for answers to questions shared by many mixed race people What am I What does it mean to be a person of color when the concept is a societal invention and really only applies halfway if you are half white Eventually after years of silence Gill and her father reclaim a space for forgiveness and love In a funny turbulent and ultimately heartwarming story Gill examines the brilliant messiness of ancestry diversity and the idea of race a historical concept that still informs our beliefs about ethnicity today Black Turtle Randel McGirr,2006-03 Pastor John Wilson has quite an agenda set for the small desert town of Liberty He hopes to assert his influence on the local public school district He desires to change the way a local tradition the Goat Roping Contest is celebrated He also wants to keep the local desert safe from terrorists in search of uranium and so he organizes parishioners to keep a vigilant watch for suspicious activity The good pastor s ambitions could impact the lives of even those outside of his flock if he has his way Patrick James and Sawyer are boys who live in Liberty Patrick was sent to live with his uncle who is a teacher in Liberty because he got into too much trouble in the city and was too much for his mother to handle Almost immediately he and a classmate James find themselves in a lot of trouble with their teacher and with the school counselor who just happens to be a member of Pastor Wilson s church Sawyer s mother recently joined Pastor Wilson s congregation and he is anxious that her recently acquired religious fervor could spell the end of all the fun in his life All three boys hope to participate in the upcoming annual Goat Roping Contest but they fear that Pastor Wilson might keep them from enjoying the event Will Pastor Wilson win this small town culture war or will the boys be able to enjoy all that Liberty has to offer Join friends Sawyer James and Patrick along with several other friends as they live through and are impacted by this political battle quietly unfolding around them
