Tough Minded Christianity Legacy Of John Warwick Montgomery:

Tough-minded Christianity William A. Dembski, Thomas Schirrmacher, 2009-03 Popular academic authors and scholars from John Ankerberg and J I Packer to Ravi Zacharias pay written tribute to the immensely influential work of living apologetics legend John Warwick Montgomery Tough-Minded Christianity William A. Dembski, Thomas Schirrmacher, 2009-03-01 Tough Minded Christianity is a collection of essays about the great work of John Warwick Montgomery 1931 a living legend in the field of Christian apologetics who has earned eleven degrees in philosophy theology law and librarianship debated historic atheists including Madalyn Murray O Hair and influenced the work of bestselling authors such as Josh McDowell Contributors to this volume include J I Packer Ravi Zacharias John Ankerberg Erwin Lutzer Vernon Grounds Gary Habermas and among others Paige Patterson who writes in the foreword that John Warwick Montgomery did the intellectual heavy lifting that undergirded the conservative renewal of the Southern Baptist Convention

Mapping Apologetics Brian K. Morley, 2015-02-10 How and why do people believe This comprehensive guide provides an overview of Christian apologetic approaches and thinkers in a way that even the nonspecialist can understand and practically apply Even handed and respectful of each apologist and their contribution this book provides the reader with a formidable array of defenses for the faith The History of Apologetics Zondervan, 2020-06-16 ECPA Christian Book Award 2021

Finalist Biography Memoir Explore Apologetics through the Lives of History's Great Apologists The History of Apologetics follows the great apologists in the history of the church to understand how they approached the task of apologetics in their own cultural and theological context Each chapter looks at the life of a well known apologist from history unpacks their methodology and details how they approached the task of defending the faith By better understanding how apologetics has been done readers will be better able to grasp the contextualized nature of apologetics and apply those insights to today's context The History of Apologetics covers forty four apologists including Part One Patristic Apologists Part Two Medieval Apologists Part Three Early Modern Apologists Part Four 19th C Apologists Part Five 20th C American Apologists Part Six 20th C European Apologists Part Seven Contemporary Apologists The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies Gospel Witness David M. Gustafson, 2019-02-14 In light of our increasingly post Christian Western contexts David Gustafson offers a mission oriented ecclesiology that moves from missional theory to practices of missional engagement Introducing God's human drama as a way to explain the gospel within

God's redemptive story he outlines specific ways for pastors and church leaders to shape a gospeling culture within their congregations Gustafson expertly lays the foundations of and approaches to evangelism that are seminal and apt for the church today The Debaters of This Age Steven H Propp, 2019-02-05 It is June 2018 as an unusual group of scholars professors lecturers and students gather in a California hotel They are all attendees of an Apologetics conference intended to join qualified representatives of Christian Deist and Atheist thought for a two week no holds barred debate and discussion of their respective positions that will ultimately be included in a book published after the conference Evangelical Christianity is represented by advocates of Evidentialist and Presuppositionalist approaches to Apologetics Catholicism liberal Christianity and Deism are also well supported The Atheist perspective is advocated by a polemical author and a college professor notorious for attacking the views of his Christian students As the participants argue over controversial issues such as cosmology evolution The Bible historical evidence for Jesus the resurrection biblical prophecies and the problem of evil intellectual fireworks result But what will result when such a volatile and eclectic group is placed face to face for more than two weeks The Debaters of this Age is the tale of what happens inside a California hotel in 2018 when a group of intellectuals gather to vigorously discuss the religious issues of our time Apologetics in 3D Peter S. Williams, 2021-09-03 This collection of papers and other materials from English philosopher Peter S Williams develops a holistic vision for Christian apologetics centered around a biblical understanding of spirituality Grounded in two decades of practical experience here is a vision of apologetics that's interested in communicating through beauty and goodness as well as logic and arguments

Getting at Jesus Peter S. Williams, 2019-01-29 Portraying themselves as challenging blind religious dogma with evidence led skepticism the neo atheist movement claims that the New Testament contains unreliable tales about a mythical figure who far from being the resurrected Lord of life may not even have lived This comprehensive critique documents the falsehood of these neo atheist claims correcting their historical and philosophical mistakes to show how we can get at the truth about the historical Jesus Understanding Jesus Peter S Williams, 2014-08-08 Examines the Gospel accounts of Jesus life the claims of Jesus life and ministry Peter S Williams brings a philosopher's Jesus and argues that understanding the spirituality of Jesus is the path to our own spiritual enlightenment Williams takes issue with new atheist discussions of faith and historical Jesus studies before guiding Christian understanding of Jesus The Cross Is Not Enough Ross Clifford, Philip Johnson, 2012-01-01 If Christ had not risen from the dead if God's plan for redemption had ended at the cross what would our faith look like Have we become so fixated on the cross that we have lost an understanding of the centrality of the resurrection And if we ignore the resurrection what effect does that have on our worldview our evangelism and our Christian practice In The Cross Is Not Enough Ross Clifford and Philip Johnson explore how the resurrection of Christ has been understood in times past and restore this linchpin doctrine to its rightful place as the basis of our hope our worldview and the way we live our lives They compare Christianity's unique understanding of resurrection to other world religions and explore why the resurrection connects so readily with the human psyche Pastors teachers students and anyone involved in ministry will benefit from this insightful and engaging treatment of Christianity s most important doctrine Fighting the Good Fight, 3rd and Enlarged Edition John Warwick Montgomery, 2020-10-27 John Warwick Montgomery is considered to be one of the foremost living apologists for classical biblical Christianity A renaissance scholar with a flair for controversy he lives in France England and the United States His international activities have brought him into personal contact with some of the most exciting events of our time not only was he in China In June 1989 but he was In Fiji during its 1987 bloodless revolution was involved in assisting East Germans to escape during the time of the Berlin Wall and was in Paris during the revolutionary days of May 1968 He has had personal contact with world leaders such as President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and English Prime Minister Tony Blair He has been centrally involved in evangelical and Lutheran church affairs such as the Wenham conference on the authority of Scripture and the inerrancy controversies in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod His public debates with atheist Madalyn Murray O Hair Bishop James Pike death of God advocate Thomas Altizer and situation ethicist Joseph Fletcher are historic His wife is the internationally celebrated orchestral harpist Lanalee de Kant Dr Montgomery is the author or editor of more than fifty books in five languages He holds ten earned degrees Including a Master of Philosophy in Law from the University of Essex England a Ph D from the University of Chicago a Doctorate of the University in Protestant Theology from the University of Strasbourg France and the higher doctorate in law LL D from the University of Cardiff Wales He is an ordained Lutheran clergyman an English barrister an avocat au Barreau de Paris France and is admitted to practise as a lawyer before the Supreme Court of the United States He obtained acquittals for the Athens 3 missionaries on charges of proselytism at the Greek Court of Appeals in 1986 and won the leading religious liberty cases of Larissis v Greece and Bessarabian Orthodox Church v Moldova before the European Court of Human Rights Professor Montgomery s autobiography offers an opportunity for the reader to meet one of the most fascinating figures in the contemporary church to understand how he attained his influence in so many diverse areas of modern life and to comprehend the Christ centered philosophy of life that has motivated all of his activities This autobiography manifests the author s willingness to speak frankly about those with whom he has agreed and disagreed and is lightened with his well known sense of humour Readers have a remarkable and unique treat in store for them Fighting the Good Fight John Warwick Montgomery, 2016-01-22 John Warwick Montgomery is considered to be one of the foremost living apologists for classical biblical Christianity A renaissance scholar with a flair for controversy he lives in France England and the United States His international activities have brought him into personal contact with some of the most exciting events of our time not only was he in China In June 1989 but he was In Fiji during its 1987 bloodless revolution was involved in assisting East Germans to escape during the time of the Berlin Wall and was in Paris during the revolutionary days of May 1968 He has had personal contact with world leaders such as President Anwar Sadat of Egypt and English Prime Minister Tony Blair He has

A Thematic Access-Oriented Bibliography of Jesus's Resurrection Michael J.

Alter,2019-12-31 The keystone of Christianity is Jesus s physical bodily resurrection Present day scholars can be significantly challenged as they forage through voluminous documents on the resurrection of Jesus The literature measures well over seven thousand sources in English language books alone This makes finding specific sources that are most relevant for specific scholarly purposes an arduous task Even when a specific book is relevant finding the parts of the book that are most relevant to the resurrection rather than other topics often requires additional effort A Thematic Access Oriented Bibliography of Jesus s Resurrection addresses these challenges in several ways First the bibliography organizes more than seven thousand English sources into twelve main categories and then thirty four subcategories which are designed to help you find the most relevant literature quickly and efficiently Embedded are pro and con arguments which support efficient access through brief annotations and then annotate the diversity and complexity of the field of religion by including sources that represent a diverse range of views theistic e g Christian Jewish Muslim etc agnostic and nontheistic The objective of this bibliography is to provide convenient access to relevant sources from a variety of perspectives allowing you to browse or find the one source accurately and with ease

Rehabilitating Inerrancy in a Culture of Fear Carlos R. Bovell,2012-02-20

The notion that the Bible is inerrant in everything it teaches is something those with conservative upbringings are conditioned to take for granted However after being exposed to scholarship in biblical studies and other disciplines some draw the unexpected conclusion that inerrancy as a doctrine is in dire need of serious revamping Unfortunately inerrantist politics and culture are making the constructive restorative process impossible to initiate In Rehabilitating Inerrancy in a Culture of Fear Carlos Bovell offers a synoptic overview of the issues to be addressed if inerrancy is to survive as a viable bibliological option Racism Thomas Schirrmacher, 2014-01-28 Are white people more intelligent than black people Are Jews devious and grabby Intolerance and violence through racism includes slavery national socialism in Germany apartheid in South Africa or the genocides in Rwanda and Bosnia But racism is not only wrong theologically it is not only against the dignity of humans that guarantees their human rights but newer genetic research also proves that the whole classification into races is without foundation Biologically speaking all humans belong to one race E g when you need a blood transfusion you should not look for a blood donor from your race but someone with the same blood group transcending all races The Koran and the Bible Thomas Schirrmacher, 2018-05-10 Two world religions two books which span the globe the Bible and the Koran Both have been and still are disseminated in the millions every year And the contents of these two books continue to write world history Still in their origin style and message the two books could hardly be more different This study of the two books does not have its center in the dogmatic differences of the two religions Rather it has to do with different understandings respecting Holy Scripture as God's Word It is from different understandings of how God reveals himself that most other differences between the two religions originate With that said this book also makes an important contribution to understanding the problem of fundamentalism in both religions Advocate of Love Thomas Schirrmacher, 2018-05-10 Evangelicals comprise a movement that spans practically all denominations and even confessions worldwide Now Evangelicals are found on both sides of the old ditch between established mainline churches and free churches between Reformed theology and more recent developments and between traditional structures and all sorts of revivalist movements That is reason enough to take the Reformer who already embodied represented and unified all of these trends in himself during the 16th century as a role model Martin Bucer 1491-1551 was a leading illustration of the attempt to use Scripture to find what is common at a time when Christianity was beginning to experience the fragmentation we see today and to win back erring brothers in a friendly and sustainable manner For a long time Bucer was the least known of the great Protestant Reformers But in his lifetime he was as well known as Luther and Calvin He achieved this status without establishing a denomination or confession but was forgotten in an age of separatism in Christianity which did not provide space for reformers who loved unity Culture of Shame / Culture of Guilt Thomas Schirrmacher, 2018-05-10 Until now theology has hardly paid sufficient attention to the difference between cultures that are primarily guilt oriented and those that are primarily shame oriented Thomas Schirrmacher's work is noteworthy for the way he informs the reader not only as it relates to missionary theology and activity It goes on to inform the reader on this important topic as it relates to educational theory ethics and counseling from the points of view of both cultural anthropological and theology The work demonstrates that a total contrast between shame and guilt orientations does not correspond to the Biblical message nor is it derived from the tradition of the Occident and from churches of Reformation origin. Rather, shame was already considered in and integrated into these perspectives. The work is particularly challenging insofar as it calls for closer attention to be paid to the significance of the undisputed differences between shame-oriented and guilt-oriented cultures for the Christian doctrine of sin and also of reconciliation with God through Christ.

Prof. Dr. Ulrich Eibach, Professor for Systematic Theology, Bonn, Germany; Prof. Dr. theol. Dr. phil. Thomas Schirrmacher, PhD, ThD, DD, is professor of the sociology of religion at the State University of the West in Timisoara, Romania; Distinguished Professor of Global Ethics and International Development at William Carey University in Shillong, Meghalaya, India; as well as president and professor of ethics at Martin Bucer European Theological Seminary and Research Institutes with branches in Bonn, Berlin, Zurich, Innsbruck, Prague, Istanbul, and Sao Paulo. Schirrmacher has held guest professorships and has given special lectures at universities on all continents. Schirrmacher is chair of the Theological Commission of the World Evangelical Alliance (WEA), director of the International Institute for Religious Freedom, Bonn, Cape Town, Colombo, and Ambassador for Human Rights of WEA. The WEA represents churches with 600 million members altogether. He also is a member of the board of the International Society for Human Rights. Schirrmacher regularly testifies in the German parliament and other parliaments in Europe as well as in the EU in Brussels, the OSCE in Vienna, and other international bodies. He has written 102 books; three of his newest books are Fundamentalism, Racism, and Human Trafficking. He has earned four doctorates in missiology and ecumenical theology in cultural anthropology in ethics and in sociology of religion and received two honorary doctorates from the USA and India.

Philosophical Essays on Divine Causation Gregory E. Ganssle, 2021-12-30. This book discusses various aspects of God's causal activity. Traditional theology has long held that God acts in the world and interrupts the normal course of events by performing special acts. Although the tradition is unified in affirming that God does create, conserve, and act, there is much disagreement about the details of divine activity. The chapters in this book fruitfully explore these disagreements about divine causation. The chapters are divided into two sections. The first explores historical views of divine causal activity from the Pre-Socratics to Hume. The second section addresses a variety of contemporary issues related to God's causal activity. These chapters include defenses of the possibility of special acts of God, proposals of models of divine causation, and analyses of divine conservation. Philosophical Essays on Divine Causation will be of interest to researchers and graduate students working in philosophy of religion, philosophical theology, and metaphysics.
