Toward A Global Idea Of Race Barrows Lectures:

Scorsese and Religion Christopher B. Barnett, Clark J. Elliston, 2019-09-16 Scorsese and Religion concerns the religious vision of the great American filmmaker Martin Scorsese Not only will this volume explore the foundation of Scorsese's interest in religion namely his relation to the Catholic Church but it will also highlight the religious breadth of Scorsese's corpus Ultimately this book demonstrates that Scorsese's cinematic representation of reality brings together various religious influences Catholicism existentialism Buddhism etc and topics such as violence morality nihilism and so on The overarching claim is that Scorsese who indeed once claimed that his whole life had been movies and religion cannot be properly understood without reflecting on the ways in which his religious interests are expressed in and through his art

Can "White" People Be Saved? Love L. Sechrest, Johnny Ramírez-Johnson, Amos Yong, 2018-11-06 White normativity as a way of being in the world has been parasitically joined to Christianity and this is the ground of many of our problems today Written by a world class roster of scholars this volume develops language to describe the current realities of race and racism challenging evangelical Christianity to think more critically and constructively about race ethnicity migration and mission in relation to white supremacy

Plantation Pedagogy Bayley J. Marquez, 2024-02-06 Plantation pedagogy is a form of teaching that draws on human space relations in an attempt to transform Black and Indigenous peoples as well as land This mode of education and the formal institutions that encompassed it were integrally tied to enslavement settlement and their inherent violence toward land and people Positioned at a meeting point where Black and Native studies engage each other this work analyzes the teaching of slavery and settlement in order to understand our interconnected histories and theorize our political struggles and our futures

Toward a Global Idea of Race Denise Ferreira Da Silva, In this far ranging and penetrating work Denise Ferreira da Silva asks why after more than five hundred years of violence perpetrated by Europeans against people of color is there no ethical outrage Rejecting the prevailing view that social categories of difference such as race and culture operate solely as principles of exclusion Silva presents a critique of modern thought that shows how racial knowledge and power produce global space Looking at the United States and Brazil she argues that modern subjects are formed in philosophical accounts that presume two ontological moments historicity and globality which are refigured in the concepts of the nation and the racial respectively By displacing historicity's ontological prerogative Silva proposes that the notion of racial difference governs the present global power configuration because it institutes moral regions not covered by the leading post Enlightenment ethical ideals namely universality and self determination By introducing a view of the racial as the signifier of globality Toward a Global Idea of Race provides a new basis for the investigation of past and present modern social processes and contexts of subjection Denise Ferreira da Silva is associate professor of ethnic studies at University of California San Diego
