Segura, 2025-11-14 In the super overpopulated world of twenty ninth century the remnants of civilizations cling to survival in fortified city states Among them is Iulius a historian and a member of a secret society entrusted with a daunting mission to chronicle the key events that led to civilization's collapse He hopes this history might guide future generations or perhaps extraterrestrial visitors as they seek to understand the reasons for humanity's tragic fall One day Iulius receives a long awaited coded message indicating it's time to leave the safety of city state New Vancouver and deliver his manuscript to whoever and whenever his mentor Father Thomas says Once there he will also receive a hyper memory stick containing the accumulated knowledge of humankind that he must deliver to that person to that destination But the journey ahead is fraught with danger Beyond the city's walls lies a devastated wilderness teeming with billions of desperate feral survivors who have abandoned their humanity for the sake of a single goal survival Aided by an unlikely group of companions Iulius must navigate treacherous terrain evade bloodthirsty marauders and confront his own fears all while racing to complete his chronicle before he too becomes just another casualty of the apocalyptic wasteland Red Mitten Nationalism Estée Fresco, 2022-12-15 When Canada hosted the 1976 Montreal Olympics few Canadian spectators waved flags in the stands By 2010 in the run up to the Vancouver Olympics thousands of Canadians wore red mittens with white maple leaves on the palms In doing so they turned their hands into miniature flags that flew with even a casual wave Red Mitten Nationalism investigates this shift in Canadians displays of patriotism by exploring how common understandings of Canadian history and identity are shaped at the intersection of sport commercialism and nationalism Through case studies of recent Canadian hosted Olympic and Commonwealth Games Estée Fresco argues that representations of Indigenous Peoples cultures are central to the way everyday Canadians corporations and sport organizations remember the past and understand the present Corporate sponsors and games organizers highlight selective ideas about the nation's identity and unacknowledged truths about the history and persistence of Settler colonialism in Canada haunt the commercial and cultural features of these sporting events Commodities that represent the nation from disposable trinkets to carefully curated objects of nostalgia are not uncomplicated symbols of national pride but rather reminders that Canada is built on Indigenous land and Settlers profit from its natural resources Red Mitten Nationalism challenges readers to re-evaluate how Canadians use sport and commercial practices to express their patriotism and to understand the impact of this expression on the current state of Indigenous Settler relations Natural History Dioramas Sue Dale Tunnicliffe, Annette Scheerso, 2014-12-05 This book brings together in a unique perspective aspects of natural history dioramas their history construction and rationale interpretation and educational importance from a number of different countries from the west coast of the USA across Europe to China It describes the journey of dioramas from their inception through development to visions of their future A complementary journey is that of visitors and their individual sense making and construction of their understanding from their own starting points often interacting with others e.g. teachers peers parents as well as media e.g. labels Dioramas have been hitherto a rather neglected area of museum exhibits but a renaissance is beginning for them and their educational importance in contributing to people's understanding of the natural world This volume showcases how dioramas can reach a wide audience and increase access to biological knowledge The Examiner, 1862 Marine Engineer and Motorship Builder, 1898 American Publishers' Circular and Literary Gazette, 1859 *Bibliotheca Americana.
