Schmitter,Laurence Whitehead,1986-10 An array of internationally noted scholars examines the process of democratization in Southern Europe and Latin America The authors provide new interpretations of both current and historical efforts of nations to end periods of authoritarian rule and to initiate transition to democracy efforts that have met with widely varying degrees of success and failure Extensive case studies of individual countries a comparative overview and a synthesis conclusions offer important insights for political scientists students and all concerned with the prospects for democracy In Volume 3 despite the unique contexts of transitions in individual countries significant points of comparison emerge such as the influence of foreign nations and the role of agents outside the government These analyses explore both intra and interregional similarities and differences Transitions from Authoritarian Rule Guillermo A. O'Donnell,1986-09 An array of internationally noted scholars examines the process of democratization in southern Europe and Latin America They provide new interpretations of both current and historical efforts of nations to end periods of authoritarian rule and to initiate transition to democracy efforts that have met with widely varying degrees of success and failure Extensive case studies of individual countries a comparative overview and a synthesis conclusions offer important insights for political scientists students and all concerned with the prospects for democracy The historical example of Italy after Mussolini as well as the more recent cases of Greece Portugal Spain and Turkey suggest factors that may make a transition relatively secure Transitions from Authoritarian Rule Guillermo O'Donnell,Philippe C. Schmitter,Laurence Whitehead,1986 Transitional Justice Neil J. Kritz,1995 Foreword Nelson Mandela Transitions from Authoritarian Rule: Tentative conclusions and uncertain democracies Guillermo A O'Donnell,Philippe C Schmitter,Laurence Whitehead,1986 Rethinking Arab Democratization Larbi Sadiki,2009-02-12 Rethinking Arab Democratization unpacks and historicizes the rise of Arab electoralism narrating the story of stalled democratic transition in the Arab Middle East It provides a balance sheet of the state of Arab democratization from the mid 1970s into the 21st century In seeking to answer the question of how Arab countries democratize and whether they are democratizing at all the book pays attention to specificity highlighting the peculiarities of democratic transitions in the Arab Middle East To this end it situates the discussion of such transitions firmly within their local contexts but without losing sight of the global picture namely the US drive to control and democratize the Arab World The book rejects exceptionalism foundationalism and Orientalism by showing that the Arab World is not immured from the global trend towards political liberalization But by identifying new trends in Arab democratic transitions highlighting their peculiarities and drawing on Arab neglected discourses and voices the book pinpoints the contingency of some of the arguments underlying Western theories of democratic transition when applied to the Arab setting Oxford Studies in Democratization is a series for scholars and students of comparative politics and related disciplines Volumes concentrate on the comparative study of the democratization process that accompanied the decline and termination of the cold war The geographical focus of the series is primarily Latin America the Caribbean Southern and Eastern Europe and relevant experiences in Africa and Asia The series editor is Laurence Whitehead Official Fellow Nuffield College University of Oxford Swapo's Struggle for Namibia, 1960-1991 Lauren Dobell,1998 Civil Society in Democratization Peter J. Burnell,Peter Calvert,2004 Featuring a broad range of perspectives on the democratic process this collection of essays explores the development of civil society and how civil societies manage democratic change around the world Establishing Democracies Mary Ellen Fischer,2021-01-07 Balancing historical and contemporary cases this comparative text examines the crucial question of what promotes or prevents the successful founding of democratic systems The country case studies are placed in context by a substantial introduction surveying theories of democracy and democratic transition and by a conclusion assessing the cases and suggesting common patterns in the establishment of successful democracies Balancing historical and contemporary cases this comparative text examines the crucial question of what promotes or prevents the successful founding of democratic systems Underscoring lessons learned from successful regime change and assessing current efforts to establish democracies whose ultimate fate is yet uncertain this book will enable students to evaluate the chances of success for societies making the transition from an authoritarian or communist regime The case studies are placed in context by a substantial introduction surveying theories of democracy and democratic transition and a conclusion comparing the cases and suggesting common patterns in the establishment of successful democracies Created for upper level students this book can be used as a primary text to be supplemented by theoretical readings or as a source of additional case studies Extensive notes provide a wealth of suggestions for further reading and research
