Translation, Linguistics, Culture Nigel Armstrong, 2005-05-11 This book takes a linguistic approach to translation issues looking first at the structural view of language that explains the difficulty of translation and at theories of cultural non equivalence A subsequent chapter on text types readership and the translator s role completes the theoretical framework The linguistic levels of analysis are then discussed in ascending order from morpheme up to sentence while a summarising chapter considers various translation types and strategies again considered in relation to text type author and reader

Translation, Linguistics, Culture Nigel Armstrong, 2005-01-01 This book takes a linguistic approach to translation issues looking first at the structural view of language that explains the difficulty of translation and at theories of cultural non equivalence A subsequent chapter on text types readership and the translator s role completes the theoretical framework The linguistic levels of analysis are then discussed in ascending order from morpheme up to sentence while a summarising chapter considers various translation types and strategies again considered in relation to text type author and reader

Translation and Religion Lynne Long, 2005-05-20 This volume addresses the methods and motives for translating the central texts of the world s religions and investigates a wide range of translation challenges specific to the unique nature of these writings Translation theory underpins the methodology for the analysis of a variety of scriptures and brings important and sensitive issues of translation to the fore

Translation, Humour and Literature Delia Chiaro, 2010-09-23 Translation studies and humour studies are disciplines that have been long established but seldom looked at in conjunction This volume uses literature as the common ground and examines issues of translating humour within a range of different literary traditions It begins with an analysis of humour and translation in every day life including jokes and cross cultural humour and then moves on to looking at humour and translation in literature through the ages Despite growing interest and a history of collaborative study there has been little translation studies scholarship published in this area This collection features a comprehensive introduction by the editor which covers strategies and techniques for translating humour as well as the pragmatics involved The book will appeal to scholars and postgraduates in translation and interpreting studies and humour studies

Semiotics and Visual Communication II Evripides Zantides, 2018-04-18 The chapters in this book consist of selected papers that were presented at the 2nd International Conference and Poster Exhibition on Semiotics and Visual Communication at the Cyprus University of Technology in October 2015 They investigate the theme of the Conference Culture of Seduction the seduction of culture and look at Seduction as in deception not sexual enticement but as a mechanism of attraction and appeal which has often been the case in many communication strategies and approaches used by mass and popular culture Seduction has historic and increasing agency in visual communication the urgency to entice viewers is ever more powerful in difficult economic times in an increasingly hyper real world and designers are led to become exceedingly complicit in its strategies The contributions here cover a range of approaches from theoretical aspects of seduction in verbal and nonverbal communication public spaces design and meaning seductive strategies and advertising design as well as fashion representations and packaging design Translating Milan Kundera Michelle Woods,2006-01-01

Michelle Woods uses new archival research to view the wider cultural scope of the translation issue involving the controversies surrounding Milan Kundera's novels She focuses on the language of the novels his lost works writing as translation interpretation and censorship Hermeneutics and the Problem of Translating Traditional Arabic Texts

Alsayed M. Aly Ismail,2017-08-21 This book focuses on the problematic issues arising when translating and interpreting classical Arabic texts which represent a challenging business for many scholars especially with regards to religious texts Additionally the reception of these interpretations and translations not only informs the perception of Muslims and their awareness of the outside world but also impacts the vision and perception of non Muslims of Islam and the Muslim world Consequently this book reconsiders the concepts of understanding and interpretation and their nexus in the mechanism of translation and proposes a novel hermeneutic method of translating interpreting and understanding traditional and classical Arab texts Handling the issues of understanding from a hermeneutical perspective is shown here to remove the possibility of translation and interpretation rendering a distorted translated text Drawing on the powerful interpretive theories of Hans Georg Gadamer and Martin Heidegger the hermeneutic method of translation starts from a premise that the meaning of a classical text cannot be deduced solely by linguistic analysis of its words but requires in depth investigation of the invisible contextual elements that control and shape its meaning Traditional texts are seen in this model as travelling texts whose meaning is transformed across time and space The hermeneutic method of translation allows the translator to identify those elements from the real world that informed a classical text at the time of its writing so that it can be adapted and made relevant to its contemporary context Traditional texts can enlighten our minds and cultivate our souls religious texts can elevate our behavior and thinking and help refine our confused contemporary lives When texts become isolated from their world they lose this lofty goal of enlightenment and elevation Audiovisual Translation Jorge Díaz Cintas,Josélia

Neves,2015-06-18 This book is an edited collection of papers dealing with some of the main issues in audiovisual translation AVT today As the title indicates it proposes to take stock of where the discipline stands and to speak of the opportunities and challenges that an ever changing environment poses to those involved in the field whether in teaching researching or working professionally within the industry The selection of papers provides a detailed overview of the multidisciplinary richness that characterizes the field

Theatrical Translation and Film Adaptation Phyllis Zatlin,2005-01-01 Translation and film adaptation of theatre have received little study This text draws on experiences of theatrical translators and on movie versions of plays from various countries It looks into such concerns as the translation of bilingual plays and the choice between subtitling and dubbing of film English Language Teaching in Moroccan Higher Education Hassan Belhiah,Ikbal

Zeddari,Nourddine Amrous,Jamal Bahmad,Nourdin Bejjit,2020-04-15 This book explores the global spread of English and its ramifications for the status of English in Morocco It sheds light on motivational issues in English language teaching and learning in Moroccan higher education and examines various teaching practices in terms of teaching effectiveness assessment and evaluation written feedback English Arabic translation and undergraduate supervision In addition to identifying critical issues in the discipline of English studies and the main challenges facing English departments from historical institutional and pedagogical perspectives it suggests strategies for addressing and overcoming them
