Chiengkul,2017-05-08 This book adopts a neo Marxist and Gramscian approach to studying the political economy of the agricultural and food system in Thailand 1990 2014 The author argues that hegemonic forces have many measures to co opt dissent into hegemonic structures and that counter hegemony should be seen as an ongoing process over a long period of time where predominantly counter hegemonic forces constrained by political economic structural conditions may at times retain some hegemonic elements Contrary to what some academic studies suggest the author argues that localist inspired social movements in Thailand are not insular and anti globalisation society relations mobilising opposition creating alternatives and change and continuity This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies Peasants Negotiating a Global Policy Space Ingeborg Gaarde, 2017-02-24 With members in more than 80 countries of the world the global peasant movement La V a Campesina has planted itself firmly on the international scene With a focus on agency the capacity to act this book explores the opportunities and challenges for mobilised peasants to engage directly in the global policy processes within the Committee on World Food Security

Handbook of Land and Water Grabs in Africa John Anthony Allan, 2013 Four other themes will be addressed: politics, economics, the environment and the history of land investments in sub-Saharan Africa A Companion to Moral Anthropology Didier Fassin, 2015-01-20 A Companion to Moral Anthropology is the first collective consideration of the anthropological dimensions of morals, morality and ethics Original essays by international experts explore the various currents, approaches and issues in this important new discipline examining topics such as the ethnography of moralities, the study of moral subjectivities and the exploration of moral economies Investigates the central legacies of moral anthropology, the formation of moral facts and values, the context of local moralities and the frontiers between moralities, politics, humanitarianism Features contributions from pioneers in the field of moral anthropology as well as international experts in related fields such as moral philosophy, moral psychology, evolutionary biology and neuroethics Human Rights and the Food Sovereignty Movement Priscilla Claeys, 2015-01-09 Our global food system is undergoing rapid change Since the global food crisis of 2007-2008 a range of new issues have come to public attention such as land grabbing, food prices volatility, agrofuels and climate change Peasant social movements are trying to respond to these challenges by organizing from the local to the global to demand food sovereignty As the transnational agrarian movement La Via Campesina celebrates its 20th anniversary this book takes stock of the movement's achievements and reflects on challenges for the future It provides an in-depth analysis of the movement's vision and strategies and shows how it has contributed not only to the emergence of an alternative development paradigm but also of an alternative conception of human rights The book assesses efforts to achieve the international recognition of new human rights for peasants at the international level, namely the right to food sovereignty and peasants' rights It explores why La Via Campesina was successful in mobilizing a human rights discourse in its struggle against neoliberalism and also the limitations and potential pitfalls of using the human rights framework The book shows that to inject subversive potential in their rights-based claims rural social activists developed an alternative conception of rights that is more plural, less statist, less individualistic and more multi-cultural than dominant conceptions of human rights Further, they deployed a combination of institutional (from above) and extrainstitutional (from below) strategies to demand new rights and reinforce grassroots mobilization through rights
