Valise En Carton Linda Suza:

Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds Canadiana ,1985 Portugal's Global Cinema Mariana Liz, 2017-11-30 Portuguese cinema has become increasingly prominent on the international film festival circuit proving the country s size belies its cultural impact From the prestige of directors Manoel de Oliveira Pedro Costa and Miguel Gomes to box office hit La Cage Doree aspects of Portuguese national cinema are widely visible although the output is comparatively small compared to European players like the UK Germany and France Considering this strange discrepancy prompts the question how can Portuguese cinema be characterised and thought about in a global context Accumulating expertise from an international group of scholars this book investigates the shifting significance of the nation Europe and the globe for the way in which Portuguese film is managed on the international stage Chapters argue that film industry professionals and artisans must navigate complex globalised systems that inform their filmmaking decisions Expectations from multi cultural audiences as well as demands from business investors and the criteria for critical accolades put pressure on Portuguese cinema to negotiate for example how far to retain national identities on screen and how to interact with popular and art film tropes and labels Exploring themes typical of Portuguese visual culture including social exclusion and unemployment issues of realism and authenticity and addressing Portugal s postcolonial status this book is a valuable study of interest to the ever growing number of scholars looking outside the usual canons of European cinema and those researching the ongoing implications of national cinema s global networks
