With Pen And Voice A Critical Anthology Of Nineteenth Century African American Women:

With Pen and Voice Shirley Wilson Logan, 1995 O woman woman upon you I call for upon your exertions almost entirely depends whether the rising generation shall be any thing more than we have been or not O woman woman your example is powerful your influence great Maria W Stewart An Address Delivered Before the Afric American Female Intelligence Society of Boston 1832 Here in the only collection of speeches by nineteenth century African American women is the battle of words these brave women waged to address the social ills of their century While there have been some scattered references to the unique roles these early race women played in effecting social change until now few scholars have considered the rhetorical strategies they adopted to develop their powerful arguments In this chronological anthology Shirley Wilson Logan highlights the public addresses of these women beginning with Maria W Stewart s speech at Franklin Hall in 1832 believed to be the first delivered to an audience of men and women by an American born woman In her speech she focused on the plight of the Northern free black Sojourner Truth spoke in 1851 at the Akron Ohio Women s Rights Convention not only for the rights of black women but also for the rights of all oppressed nineteenth century women Frances Ellen Watkins Harper struggled with the conflict between universal suffrage and suffrage for black men Anna Julia Cooper chastised her unique audience of black Episcopalian clergy for their failure to continue the tradition of the elevation of womanhood initiated by Christianity and especially for their failure to support the struggling Southern black woman Ida B Wells s rhetoric targeted mob violence directed at Southern black men Her speech was delivered less than a year after her inaugural lecture on this issue following a personal encounter with mob violence in Memphis Fannie Barrier Williams and Victoria Earle Matthews advocated social and educational reforms to improve the plight of Southern black women These speeches all delivered between 1832 and 1895 are stirring proof that despite obstacles of race and gender these women still had the courage to mount the platform in defense of the oppressed Introductory essays focus on each speaker s life and rhetoric considering the ways in which these women selected evidence and adapted language to particular occasions purposes and audiences in order to persuade This analysis of the rhetorical contexts and major rhetorical tactics in the speeches aids understanding of both the speeches and the skill of the speakers A rhetorical timeline serves as a point of reference Historically grounded this book provides a black feminist perspective on significant events of the nineteenth century and reveals how black women of that era influenced and were influenced by the social problems they addressed A government which can protect and defend its citizens from wrong and outrage and does not is vicious A government which would do it and cannot is weak and where human life is insecure through either weakness or viciousness in the administration of law there must be a lack of justice and where this is wanting nothing can make up the deficiency Frances Ellen Watkins Harper Duty to Dependent Races National Council of Women of the United States Washington D C 1891 The Portable Nineteenth-Century African American Women Writers Hollis Robbins, Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2017-07-25 A landmark collection documenting the social political and artistic lives of African American women throughout the tumultuous nineteenth century Named one of NPR's Best Books of 2017 The Portable Nineteenth Century African American Women Writers is the most comprehensive anthology of its kind an extraordinary range of voices offering the expressions of African American women in print before during and after the Civil War Edited by Hollis Robbins and Henry Louis Gates Jr this collection comprises work from forty nine writers arranged into sections of memoir poetry and essays on feminism education and the legacy of African American women writers Many of these pieces engage with social movements like abolition women's suffrage temperance and civil rights but the thematic center is the intellect and personal ambition of African American women The diverse selection includes well known writers like Sojourner Truth Hannah Crafts and Harriet Jacobs as well as lesser known writers like Ella Sheppard who offers a firsthand account of life in the world famous Fisk Jubilee Singers Taken together these incredible works insist that the writing of African American women writers be read remembered and addressed For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

African American Rhetoric(s) Elaine B Richardson, Ronald L Jackson, 2007-02-12 African American Rhetoric's Interdisciplinary Perspectives is an introduction to fundamental concepts and a systematic integration of historical and contemporary lines of inquiry in the study of African American rhetorics Edited by Elaine B Richardson and Ronald L Jackson II the volume explores culturally and discursively developed forms of knowledge communicative practices and persuasive strategies rooted in freedom struggles by people of African ancestry in America Outlining African American rhetorics found in literature historical documents and popular culture the collection provides scholars students and teachers with innovative approaches for discussing the epistemologies and realities that foster the inclusion of rhetorical discourse in African American studies In addition to analyzing African American rhetoric the fourteen contributors project visions for pedagogy in the field and address new areas and renewed avenues of research The result is an exploration of what parameters can be used to begin a more thorough and useful consideration of African Americans in rhetorical space
