

I. CROWN OF SORROW

Kaltar is old ... very old. His bones seem to have been dumped haphazardly into his skin which hangs in loose, wrinkled folds. His eyes speak of ancient secrets and magic lore long forgotten. Now, the dark eyes glitter with fierce intensity as he scans the group before him.

Eight adventurers, some known for physical prowess, others for mental acuity, shift uncomfortably under his relentless scrutiny. The glade the group occupies glimmers in the moonlight, dew sparkling like diamonds. Everyone feels the presence of an ancient host, but no one, save Kaltar, knows its identity or intent. One adventurer, a rather short, merry-faced youngster, leans to his companion. "Why are we waiting here, shivering in this godforsaken place?" Kaltar calls on him with no explanation, and now he stands there and stares at us. Besides, this place speaks of evil things." His companion opens his mouth to answer, but snaps it shut when he sees Kaltar glaring at him.

The wizard raises his arms in a command of silence. He speaks, "I have called you here to raise a challenge." The adventurers lean forward expectantly, excitement boiling in their hearts. "Five hundred years ago, the Fellowship of Wizards governed this land. The wizards in this fellowship ruled justly and all the citizens abided by their decisions. The wizards occupied the city of Arghan, which once boasted the greatest beauty and wisdom to be found anywhere in the world. Treasured far beyond anything in Arghan was the Crown of the Emperor."

An audible gasp went up from the adventurer's circle. "I thought the crown was merely a fairy tale," mutters a dark, wiry man. Kaltar hears him and shouts indignantly.

"A fairy tale? The Crown gave power and reason to the Fellowship! It was the source of learning, of all knowledge present, past, and future. It WAS the Fellowship." Kaltar's head bows and his voice lowers. "The right to wear the Crown was shared by all in the Fellowship. Each wizard wore the great Crown until the constatable Atarix shifted in the sky, and then he passed it on to his brother. The words of the Crown were spoken by the reigning wizard to the Fellowship ... thus we all received its wisdom and power. Then, on a watched, cursed night, the most heinous of all possible events happened. Tarnon, Wizard of Thunder, refused to give up the Crown." A tear traces its way down Kaltar's weathered cheek. Behind the adventurers, the invisible host mutters and sighs, then takes up a high, keening chant that raises the hairs on the adventurers' heads. The wall gradually subsides, and Kaltar continues.

"Civil war broke out among the Wizards. All our codes of honor were ignored. Horrible monsters were called up with evil magic to consume brother and sister, and great fires destroyed much of Arghan. Tarnon fled with the Crown into his laboratories and sealed himself inside forever. It has been five hundred years since the evil first began, and the Crown still awaits its freedom." Kaltar pauses significantly. "As you know, Arghan is still infested with the monsters called up from the war. A magic wall contains them ... it was erected by the Fellowship when we came to our senses and repented of our destruction. We are barred from entering the gates of the city until the Crown has been recovered."

The invisible host moves forward, completely encircling the enthralled adventurers. Kaltar seems to swell in size and power, his rich voice resonating in the glade. "This, then, is the challenge. You have been called to find the Crown of the Emperor. Your path will be filled with unpredictable terrors, and my own magic prevents me or any wizard from helping you. Few will return to the Gates of Arghan. Those that return with the Crown will receive a reward of great enchantment ... you will rival the heroes of old with your strength and speed. However, you must return quickly ... the more swiftly you accomplish your mission, the greater the reward. I am impatient for the Crown."

The adventurers look at each other grimly, but each sees excitement and a certain eagerness in the others' eyes. One person, a woman renowned for her great wisdom, asks quietly, "And who will wear the Crown once it is returned to the Fellowship? Will it not simply restart the evil war?"

Kaltar answers. "I will wear the crown. I have been appointed by the Fellowship of Wizards to bear responsibility for the Crown. Should I fail, I will be condemned to that peculiar and eternal hell of wizards." He shudders visibly, then asks simply, "Who will go?" In answer, all eight companions stand. "You are brave. Go then, and search for this, the Crown of the Emperor."

Suddenly, the Crown appears, shimmering brightly in the air. Gold filigree of masterly workmanship is studded with brilliant jewels. A single, great crystal is embedded in the base, and prisms of rainbow light chase each other from end to end. Behind the light, the invisible host appears briefly, the robes of many wizards brightening and waning like candles, the sad faces flickering in the reflected light of the Crown.

"Go now," says Kaltar. "Complete your quest quickly, with honor and bravery. We await you."

QUICKSTART: Sections of this rulebook appear in shaded areas. If you choose to read these first, you will find that they provide an overview of WIZARD'S CROWN and a quick entry in the game.

To help you begin play, the game includes eight characters ready for your commands. You may choose to play with this party of adventurers until you want to create new characters of your own.

To help you during combat, the game includes a quick combat mode. You may choose to have the computer quickly resolve combat and display results until you are ready to fight a detailed tactical battle.

II. INTRODUCTION

A. THE GAME: AN OVERVIEW

WIZARD'S CROWN is a game of adventures and encounters. The objective is to locate and retrieve a wizard's crown. You create a party of eight characters, each with personal attributes and professions that determine the skills he will have available for his actions.

The adventurers travel, setting out from the inn, following clues and searching through towns and ruins. There are opportunities to enter buildings and other places in which dangerous and delightful events take place.

Be aware that monsters may appear almost anywhere. When they do, you may fight a detailed tactical battle. Or if you prefer, you may choose to fight quick combat, in which the computer resolves the entire battle in a few seconds.

After a battle, the characters take loot from the monsters, equipment (sometimes magical) to be used or sold later on. From their adventures, the characters acquire experience which they then use to increase their skills.

While in battle, a character may receive injuries that weaken him for future battles. By returning your party to the inn, you make it possible to give a wounded character rest and recuperation before you send the party off on further adventures.

B. LOADING THE GAME

Apple II+, IIe, IIfx: Boot the WIZARD'S CROWN disk.

Commodore 64: Boot the WIZARD'S CROWN disk. Type LOAD "" and press <RETURN>. When READY appears, type RUN and press <RETURN>.

Atari: Remove any cartridges from your Atari. Insert the front side of the Game Disk into Drive #1 and boot the disk. If you own an Atari 800XL, you must hold down the OPTION key until booting is completed.

Note: Like the Apple, the Atari supports two drives.
