Women And Power In The Middle East:

Women and Power in the Middle East Suad Joseph, Susan Slyomovics, 2011-10-20 The seventeen essays in Women and Power in the Middle East analyze the social political economic and cultural forces that shape gender systems in the Middle East and North Africa Published at different times in Middle East Report the journal of the Middle East Research and Information Project the essays document empirically the similarities and differences in the gendering of relations of power in twelve countries Morocco Algeria Tunisia Egypt Sudan Palestine Lebanon Turkey Kuwait Saudi Arabia Yemen and Iran Together they seek to build a framework for understanding broad patterns of gender in the Arab Islamic world Challenging questions are addressed throughout What roles have women played in politics in this region When and why are women politically mobilized and which women Does the nature and impact of their mobilization differ if it is initiated by the state nationalist movements revolutionary parties or spontaneous revolt And what happens to women when those agents of mobilization win or lose In investigating these and other issues the essays take a look at the impact of rapid social change in the Arab Islamic world They also analyze Arab disillusionment with the radical nationalisms of the 1950s and 1960s and with leftist ideologies as well as the rise of political Islamist movements Indeed the essays present rich new approaches to assessing what political participation has meant for women in this region and how emerging national states there have dealt with organized efforts by women to influence the institutions that govern their lives Designed for courses in Middle East women s and cultural studies Women and Power in the Middle East offers to both students and scholars an excellent introduction to the study of gender in the Arab Islamic world

Music and the Play of Power in the Middle East, North Africa and Central Asia Laudan Nooshin, 2016-04-29 What is it about the history geographical position and cultures of the Middle East North Africa and Central Asia that has made music such a potent and powerful agent This volume presents the first direct look at the complex relationship between music and power across a range of musical genres and countries Discourses of power in the region centre on some of the most contested social issues most notably in relation to nationhood gender and religion Individual chapters examine the ways in which music serves as a forum for playing out issues of power ideology resistance and subversion How does music become a space for promoting or conversely resisting or subverting particular ideologies or positions of authority How does it accrue symbolic power in ways that are very particular perhaps unique And how does music become a site of social control or alternatively a vehicle for agency and empowerment at times overt and at others highly subtle What is it about music that facilitates and sometimes disrupts the exercise and flows of power Who controls such flows how and for what purposes In asking such questions in the context of countries such as Afghanistan Egypt Iran Tunisia and Tajikistan the book draws on a wide range of relevant theoretical and critical ideas and many disciplines including ethnomusicology anthropology sociology politics Middle Eastern studies globalization studies gender studies and cultural and media studies The countries and areas explored share a great deal in historical and cultural terms including a legacy of colonial and neo colonial encounters and predominantly Judeo Muslim religious traditions It is hoped that the volume will contribute ultimately to a richer understanding of the role that music plays in these societies

Gender and Violence in the Middle East David Ghanim Ph.D.,2009-03-20 Gender and Violence in the Middle East argues that violence is fundamental to the functioning of the patriarchal gender structure that governs daily life in Middle Eastern societies Ghanim contends that the inherent violence of gender relations in the Middle East feeds the authoritarianism and political violence that plague public life in the region In this societal sense men as well as women may be said to be victims of the structural violence inherent in Middle Eastern gender relations The author shows that the varieties of physical violence against women for which the Middle East is notorious honor killings obligatory beatings female genital mutilation are merely eruptions of an ethos of psychological violence and the threat of physical violence that pervades gender relations in the Middle East Ghanim documents and analyzes the complementary roles of both sexes in sustaining the system of violence and oppressive control that regulates gender relations in Middle Eastern societies He reveals that women are not only victims of violence but welcome the opportunity to become perpetrators of violence in the married female life cycle of subordination followed by domination The mother in law plays a crucial role in supporting the structure of patriarchal control by stoking tensions with her daughter in law and provoking her son to commit sanctioned violence on his wife The author applies his deep analysis of gender and violence in the Middle East to illuminate the motivational profiles of male and female political suicidalists from the Middle East and the martyrological adulation that they are accorded in Middle Eastern societies

Women, Power and Politics in 21st Century Iran Tara Povey,2016-02-17 This book examines the women s movement in Iran and its role in contesting gender relations since the 1979 revolution Looking at examples from politics law employment environment media and religion and the struggle for democracy this book demonstrates how material conditions have important social and political consequences for the lives of women in Iran and exposes the need to challenge the dominant theoretical perspectives on gender and Islam A truly fascinating insider s look at the experiences of Iranian women as academics political and civil society activists this book counters the often inaccurate and misleading stereotyping of Iranian women to present a vibrant and diverse picture of these women s lives A welcome and unique addition to the vibrant and growing literature on women Islam development democracy and feminisms

Reconstructing Gender in Middle East Fatma Muge Gocek,Balaghi Shiva,1995-06-15 Employing a broad interdisciplinary perspective on gender relations Reconstructing Gender in the Middle East questions long standing stereotypes about the traditional subordination of women in the region With essays on gender construction in Iran Turkey Israel Morocco Egypt Lebanon and the Occupied Territories this collection offers a wide ranging exploration of tradition identity and power in different parts of the Middle East Seeking to overcome monolithic Western notions of women s life in the traditional society the essays in Part I reexamine the assumption that such societies leave little room for female participation Part II focuses on the reconstruction of identities by women in Iran Turkey Israel and the Occupied Territories The authors examine the complex variables that contribute to the development of identities including gender class and ethnicity in various Middle Eastern societies questioning whether certain identities are more important to women than others These essays also look at the issue of group identity formation versus the autonomy of the individual Part III looks at the relationship between gender and power in everyday life in Lebanon Israel Egypt and Morocco showing how power relations are constantly contested and renegotiated among family members and members of a community between nations and between men and women With its collection of enlightened and diverse contemporary perspectives on women in the Middle East Reconstructing Gender in the Middle East is an important work that will have significant impact on the way we look at gender in traditional societies

Women and Media in the Middle East Naomi Sakr, 2004-09-24 Is today's changing media landscape in the Middle East empowering women This is the first book to address the dynamics of media ecology and women's advancement in the contemporary Middle East The book spans both the region and media forms from Iran's women's press via Maghrebi women filmmakers and Egyptian political films Palestinian TV and Hezbollah's TV station Al Manar It takes as its starting point the diverse experiences and multi-layered identities of women and treats media institutions and practices as part of wider power relations in society By analysing media production consumption and texts it reveals where and how gender boundaries have been erected or crossed

Women, Power, and Ethnicity Patricia S.E. Darlington, Becky Michele Mulvaney, 2014-06-03 Powerful women aren't just men walking around in dresses As women continue to assume positions of social leadership in increasing numbers the dynamics of the social construction of power need to be examined Have women adopted traditionally male patterns of behavior in an effort to gain and maintain power in business industry politics academics etc And if not what kind of power are women practicing The authors of Women Power and Ethnicity Working Toward Reciprocal Empowerment endeavored to find out by conducting a research study on how women from various racial and ethnic backgrounds compare and contrast the attributes associated with existing power paradigms traditional empowerment personal authority with an alternate model of power reciprocal empowerment Reciprocal empowerment is a discursive and behavioral style of interaction grounded in reciprocity initiated by people who feel a sense of personal authority Reciprocal empowerment enables people with mutual self-interests to rise above obstacles based on social and political structures and to use personal authority to discuss and act on issues openly and honestly in order to effect change Using a qualitative methodology Women Power and Ethnicity includes the results of surveys and interviews with women from seven different ethnic groups in the United States to determine if the concept of reciprocal empowerment resonates with them The answer Yes Women Power and Ethnicity is organized by surveys and interview findings on women from seven cultural groups living in the United States African Asian Caribbean European Latin Middle Eastern Native American Each chapter includes analyses of ethnographic findings surveys and interviews concise historical information effects of immigration where applicable tables and diagrams direct quotes and
