This book covers the latest concepts methodologies techniques tools and perspectives essential to understanding individual time management experiences Provided by publisher Marketing Moves Philip Kotler, Dipak Jain, Suvit Maesincee, 2002

The Internet globalization and hypercompetition are dramatically reshaping markets and changing the way business is done

The problem says internationally renowned marketer Philip Kotler and his coauthors Dipak C Jain and Suvit Maesincee is that marketing has not kept pace with the markets In today s world customers are scarce not products and classic marketing needs to be deconstructed redefined and broadened to reflect this new reality Marketing Moves describes the next transformational imperative for marketing and for any organization competing in our customer ruled technology driven marketplace It calls for a fundamental rethinking of corporate strategy to enable the ongoing creation and delivery of superior value for customers in both the marketplace and the marketspace And it appoints marketing as the lead driver in shaping and implementing this new strategy The means for accomplishing this lies in a radically new marketing paradigm the authors call holistic marketing a dynamic concept derived from the electronic connectivity and interactivity among companies customers and collaborators This new paradigm combines the best of traditional marketing with new digital capabilities to build long term mutually satisfying relationships and co prosperity among all key stakeholders Outlining a framework for implementing holistic marketing that calls for integrating customer demand management internal and external resource allocation and network collaboration the authors show how holistic marketing can enable companies to Identify new value opportunities for renewing their markets Efficiently create the most promising new value offerings Deliver highest level of product quality service and speed Thought provoking and practical Marketing Moves shows how to build a
