Human-Animal Relations in Tourism, Leisure and Development Carlos Monterrubio, Xavier López-Medellín, Katherine Dashper, Helen Wadham, 2025-04-17 Humans and animals have developed multiple and complex interactions in the fields of tourism leisure and development However much of the existing research on how humans and animals interact in these fields has emerged from within the context of developed countries As a result little has been documented about human animal interactions in the socioeconomic cultural and environmental contexts of countries in the Global South Specifically the diversity and complexity of interspecies relationships in tourism leisure and local development in Latin America have been largely ignored in Anglo Saxon literature This has resulted in a limited partial and hegemonic understanding and debate about human animal relationships globally dominated by certain regions of the world This book addresses this gap by documenting multiple and complex relationships between humans and animals in the fields of tourism leisure and local development in countries in Latin America
