Massood, this collection offers discussions of the American film industry from previously unexplored vantage points. Rather than follow a chronological format as with most film histories, this Companion offers a multiplicity of approaches to historiography and is arranged according to often underdeveloped or overlooked areas in American film, including topics such as alternate archives, hidden labor histories, style, racialized technologies, cinema's material cultures, spectators and fans, transnational film production, intermedial histories, history in and about films, and the historical afterlives of cinema. An exciting collection for serious film studies students and scholars interested in new perspectives and fresh approaches to thinking about and doing American film history. Telling Tales Out of School Dale Davis, 2008-02

He is gradually honed into a teaching machine under the tough tutelage of a domineering principal, an eclectic group of faculty misfits, and a horde of unconcerned students. Telling Tales Out of School is a must have for anyone that has ever taught or thought of teaching. Not only will Dale Davis wit keep you laughing, you'll also fall in love with all of the colorful characters.
