Women Workers in Urban India Saraswati Raju, Santosh Jatrana, 2016-04-21 This volume examines the role of women workers who are joining the workforce in urban India Employment opportunities have opened up and are constantly expanding for women but this book interrogates whether their working status is breaking gender stereotypes or reaffirming them It argues that whether women are working in offices or from home contributing to the IT sector or labouring as petty producers they are unable to break out of the gendered codes that place them at the lower rungs of the occupational ladder More importantly the hierarchical social order comprising caste class and ethnic identities seems to echo in the gendered structure of the labour market as well This volume studies the intertwining of work with embedded patriarchal notions of women s places in designated spheres and the overt and covert processes of resistance that women offer in defining new roles and old ones anew Doing Justice, Doing Gender Susan Ehrlich Martin, Nancy C.

Jurik, 2006-10-27 Doing Justice Doing Gender Women in Legal and Criminal Justice Occupations is a highly readable sociologically grounded analysis of women working in traditionally male dominant justice occupations of law policing and corrections This Second Edition represents not only a thorough update of research on women in these fields but a careful reconsideration of changes in justice organizations and occupations and their impact on women s justice work roles over the past 40 years
