ECCWS2015-Proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security 2015 Dr Nasser Abouzakhar, 2015-07-01 Complete proceedings of the 14th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Hatfield UK Published by Academic Conferences and Publishing International Limited A scholarly contribution to educational praxis M.A. Mokoena, J.M. (Ona) Janse van Rensburg, M. Erasmus, E. Mentz, C.B. Zulu, A. Cronje, E.K. Materechera, W.T. Dudu, A.T. Kanyimba, S.P. Raath, C. Kruger, A. Loubser, A.E. Pienaar, A. Klopper, S. Ellis, N.T. Petersen, J. de Beer, J. Varughese, A. Seugnet Blignaut, C. Els, 2016-12-31 This publication contains original research targeting scientific specialists in the field of education through research endeavours grounded on a philosophical basis as well as being embedded in the empirical The research methodology of each chapter emanates from applicable philosophical assumptions in the form of an applicable theoretical and conceptual framework The latter forms a firm basis for the application of sound empiricism The content of this book adds to the body of scholarly knowledge in education In his evaluation of the book Acting Executive Dean Faculty of Education and Training Professor Akpovire Oduaran made the following remarks To a large extent the ideas put together in this book have come from data generated not just from literature found in books and journals but actual interactions with educators and the learning environment So then what the reader is offered in this volume is the articulation of ideas that have been interrogated structured and presented in surprisingly simplistic and yet incisive and academically enriching content that can match the standards of scholarship that is available in the Western World Yet what makes this book so welcome relevant and timely is the fact that it is built around Afrocentric theories and practices such as one may find in imported literature

Osseous Projectile Weaponry Michelle C. Langley, 2017-01-27 This volume presents the current state of knowledge on the osseous projectile weaponry that was produced by Pleistocene cultures across the globe Through cross cultural and temporal comparison of manufacturing methods design use methods and associated technology chapters in this volume identify and discuss differences and similarities between these Pleistocene cultures The central research questions addressed in this volume include a how did osseous weaponry technology develop and change through time and can these changes be tied to environmental and or social influences b how did different Pleistocene cultures design and adapt their osseous weaponry technology to their environment as well as changes in that environment and c can we identify cultural interaction between neighboring groups through the analysis of osseous weapons technology and if so can we use these items to track the movement of peoples and or ideas across the landscape Through addressing these three central research questions this volume creates an integrated understanding of osseous technology during a vital period in Modern Human cultural development which will be useful for students and advanced researchers alike Construction in 5D: Deconstruction, Digitalization, Disruption, Disaster, Development Theo C. Haupt, Mariam Akinlolu, Fredrick Simpeh, Christopher Amoah, Zakheeya Armoed, 2022-06-21 This book gathers the latest advances innovations and applications in built environment as presented by international researchers at the 15th Built Environment Conference held in Durban South Africa on September 27 28 2021 and organized by the Association of Schools of Construction of Southern Africa ASOCSA The overarching theme of the conference was Construction in 5D Deconstruction Digitalization Disruption Disaster Development with contributions focusing on current trends innovations opportunities and challenges policies and procedures legislation and regulations practices and case studies in both the public and private sectors The volume will contribute to the existing body of knowledge relative to the science and practice of construction not only in South Africa but wherever the products of construction are produced even in these new challenging times of fear and uncertainty Nadira: We Belong To The Earth Nadira Omarjee, 2023-05-31 This book illustrates the ways in which the personal is political in the advancement of decolonising scholarship It explores the intimacies of coloniality entrenched in the narcissism of coloniality enabling the system through extraction subjugation and violence Pushing back against the narcissism of coloniality which is framed by the master slave dialectic or internalised oppression requires uhuru and ubuntu which are agentic strategies employed in reclaiming ontology and epistemology Uhuru insists on a decolonisation of self whereas ubuntu is determined by African radical communitarianism demanding new ways of knowing and seeing whilst re-examining epistemicides of the enslaved indentured and colonised Fanonian theory is used as a framework for understanding the colonial authority's management of the colonised determining the unhappiness quintessential in the colonial condition Freirian concepts of conscientisation and criticality are used as a form of resistance disrupting the system of racial capitalism and the coloniality of gender Subsequently flipping the classroom to resist the coloniality of knowledge allows scholars to connect with community encouraging engaged scholarship from the personal political perspective making the classroom a radical space for addressing trauma and healing whilst bridging art activism and scholarship Therefore the classroom is situated against the blind spots of the banking model with male dominated decolonial work silencing the feminist perspective Consequently uhuru and ubuntu promote voice agency and resistance as a pedagogical praxis paramount for the development of a decolonial feminist pedagogy ECCWS 2018 17th European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security V2 Audun Jøsang, 2018-06-21 Beyond Christian Hip Hop Erika D. Gault, Travis Harris, 2019-11-18 Christians and Christianity have been central to Hip Hop since its inception This book explores the intersection of Christians and Hip Hop and the multiple outcomes of this intersection It lays out the ways in which Christians and Hip Hop overlap and diverge The intersection of Christians and Hip Hop brings together African diasporic cultures lives memories and worldviews Moving beyond the focus on rappers and so called Christian Hip Hop each chapter explores three major themes of the book identifying Hip Hop irreconcilable Christianity and boundaries There is a self-identified Christian Hip Hop CHH community that has received some scholarly attention At the same time scholars have analyzed Christianity and Hip Hop without focusing on the self-identified community This book brings these various conversations together and show through these three themes the complexities of the intersection of Christians and Hip Hop Hip Hop is more than rap music it is an African diasporic phenomenon These three themes elucidate the many characteristics of the intersection between Christians and Hip Hop and our reasoning for going beyond Christian Hip Hop This collection is a multi faceted view of how religious belief plays a role in Hip Hoppas lives and community It will therefore be of great interest to scholars of Religion and Hip Hop Hip Hop African Diasporas Religion and the Arts Religion and Race and Black Theology as well as Religious Studies more generally The Geopolitics of Postdigital Educational Development Michael A. Peters, Benjamin J. Green, Olivera Kamenarac, Petar Jandrić, Tina Besley, 2025-11-03 This volume examines the evolving role of education in contemporary geopolitical landscapes where technological innovation global networks and national interests redefine its purpose Moving beyond territorial geopolitics it explores education as a critical asset in postdigital societies embedded in techno nationalist agendas and global power structures In AI genomics nanotechnology and quantum technologies education serves dual functions shaping epistemic authority and underpinning knowledge economies These developments challenge paradigms of truth consciousness and equitable knowledge access The chapters engage with discourses on digital sovereignty postdigital privilege democracy and resistance illustrating how education restructures global power relations Synthesizing perspectives from geopolitics digital transformation and postdigital educational development it underscores understanding education as a contested terrain where global equity inclusion and ethical technological governance are negotiated This book is particularly suited for researchers of postdigital education The Geopolitics of Postdigital Educational Development is complemented by Postdigital Education for Development also edited by Michael A Peters Olivera Kamenarac Ben Green Petar Jandri and Tina Besley

Exchanging Symbols Anitra Nettleton, Mathias Alubafi Fubah, 2020-03-27 This book comprises eight essays that consider the politics and polemics of monuments in Africa in the wake of the RhodesMustFall movement in 2015 The removal of the Rhodes statue from UCT main campus is the pivot on which the discussion of monuments as heritage in South Africa turns It raised a number of questions about the implementation of heritage policy and the unequal deployment of memorials in the South African and other postcolonial landscapes The essays in this volume are written by authors coming from different backgrounds and different disciplines They address different aspects of this event and its aftermath offering some intensive critique of existing monuments analysing the successes of new initiatives meditating on the visual resonances of all monuments and attempting to map ways of moving forward Remembering the Holocaust in a Racial State Roni Mikel-Arieli, 2022-07-18 The lens of apartheid era Jewish commemorations of the Holocaust in South Africa reveals the fascinating transformation of a diasporic community Through the prism of Holocaust memory this book examines South African Jewry and its ambivalent position as a minority within the privileged white minority Grounded in research in over a dozen archives the book provides a rich empirical account of the centrality of Holocaust memorialization to the community s ongoing struggle against global and local antisemitism Most of the chapters focus on white perceptions of the Holocaust and reveals the tensions between the white communities in the country regarding the place of collective memories of suffering in the public arena However the book also moves beyond an insular focus on the South African Jewish community and in very different modality investigates prominent figures in the anti apartheid struggle and the role of Holocaust memory in their fascinating journeys towards freedom National Youth Development Agency Annual Report South Africa. National Youth Development Agency,2016 Does The Black Middle Class Exist And Are We Members? Grace Khunou,Kris Marsh,Polite Chauke,Lesego Plank,Leo Igbanoi,Mabone Kgosiemang,2019-11-22 Does the Black Middle Class Exist And Are We Members makes two contributions into the research of the black middle class First it explores how Black South Africans conceptualize middle classness Second it demonstrates how this conceptualization informs researchers social identity within the Black middle class Neoliberal Capitalism and Precarious Work Rob Lambert,Andrew Herod,2016-03-25 Since the renaissance of market politics on a global scale precarious work has become pervasive Divided into two parts the first section of this cross disciplinary book analyses the different forms of precarious work that have arisen over the past thirty years These transformations are captured in ethnographically orientated chapters on sweatshops day labour homework unpaid contract work of Chinese construction workers the introduction of insecure contracting in the Korean automotive industry and the insecurity of Brazilian cane cutters The editors and contributors then collectively explore trade union initiatives in the face of precarious work and stimulate debate on the issue The Aesthetics of Global Protest Aidan McGarry,Itir Erhart,Hande Eslen-Ziya,Olu Jenzen,Umut Korkut,2025-10-01 Protestors across the world use aesthetics in order to communicate their ideas and ensure their voices are heard This book looks at protest aesthetics which we consider to be the visual and performative elements of protest such as images symbols graffiti art as well as the choreography of protest actions in public spaces Through the use of social media protestors have been able to create an alternative space for people to engage with politics that is more inclusive and participatory than traditional politics This volume focuses on the role of visual culture in a highly mediated environment and draws on case studies from Europe Thailand South Africa USA Argentina and the Middle East in order to demonstrate how protestors use aesthetics to communicate their demands and ideas It examines how digital media is harnessed by protestors and argues that all protest aesthetics are performative and communicative

African Scholars and Intellectuals in North American Academies Sabella Ogbobode Abidde,2020-11-29 This book examines the process and events surrounding the migration of African scholars as well as their lives and lived experiences within and outside of their colleges and universities The chapters chronicle the lived experiences and observations of African scholars in North America and examine a range of issues ideas and phenomena within North American colleges and universities The contributors examine the political ethnic or religious upheavals that informed their migration or banishment contrast the teaching learning research environment in Africa and North America and discuss on and off campus experience with segregation and racial inequality This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the African Diaspora migration
